MEREDITH COLLEGE

First conceived by the Baptist State Convention in 1835, Meredith College, as the Baptist Female University, was granted its charter in 1891 and opened its doors to students in September, 1899. Consisting then of a college preparatory department and a three-year college course, the University later was expanded to include work from the first grade through college. Eventually all work below the college level was discontinued in order to raise the standards of the college. The name was changed in 1905 to the Baptist University for Women and in 1909 to Meredith College, in honor of Thomas Meredith, a leader in the establishment of the college. First located in the heart of Raleigh in the buildings now the Mansion Park Hotel, the college was moved in 1926 to its present location on the outskirts of the city.

Meredith was founded upon the principles of sound scholarship and Christian influence, and today the college still builds upon these principles. A spirit of friendliness and equality prevails on the campus. Good sportsmanship and consideration for others are practiced in work and in play. Through instruction and experience, Meredith College seeks to train its students for lives of constructive service.

A LETTER TO THE NEW GIRLS

DEAR NEW GIRL:

We are eager to welcome you to our campus. During the first few days of school there will be a number of activities planned to make you feel at home in your new family. By participating in every one of these events, you will become more familiar with our ways of playing and working at Meredith.

Your freshman counsellor, anxious to help you get acquainted with Meredith life, will show you where, when, and how to find your way around. Feel free to ask her anything, for she is willing to help you not only during your first days but also during the entire year.

In order to plan what to bring, you will want to know about your room. As it now stands, there are twin beds, a bookcase, a dresser, two straight chairs, one rocking chair, and a study table. There is a side wall light and an overhead light. With these details in mind, you can see that you will need a pillow, bed linen, and dresser scarfs. You will want to bring pictures, cushions, a study lamp, stuffed animals, books, and any of the other things to make your room more attractive. When you buy your bedspreads, it will be a good idea to get two alike; in that way your beds will be more attractive. You may write to your roommate or perhaps wait until you get to college before deciding on a color scheme; but, at any rate, you will want to have rugs, waste basket, and curtains. If you are buying your curtains before school, you will need to know that the regular windows (two) measure 75 inches in length by 37 inches in width. Rooms 114, 115, 218, 219, 318, and 319 in all dormitories have long windows, measuring 97 inches in length by 37 inches in width. You will also need clothes hangers.

How are you to bring your things? If you are coming by train or bus, trunks and week-end bags are advisable. You cannot keep the trunk in your room, but arrangements will be made for storing it in the attic. If you are driving to Raleigh, boxes and week-end bags will be more convenient.

Information about the opening of the dormitories and the dining hall will be sent to you along with your orientation program. The latter will acquaint you with the various meetings, discussions, and socials planned to help you to get acquainted with our organization and schedule. Be sure to bring your program with you when you come, and be on hand for the first of those scheduled meetings. If you arrive by bus or train, you will be greeted at the station by counsellors or members of the B.S.U., so watch for the maroon and white badge.

If there are questions we have left unanswered, please write to your counsellor. We hope that you will be happy with us, and we are eager to help you in any way possible.

Sincerely,

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Student government at Meredith is organized as the Student Government Association. Its executive and judicial body is the Student Government Council elected by the student body. The Student Council and the student body share in the legislative functions of the Association. Advice and guidance to the Council is furnished by the Advisory Committee, and all major student government activity is reviewed by the Faculty Committee on Student Government.

The Student Government Association governs student life in all matters except administrative and academic. Realizing that complete personal freedom in community life is impossible, the Association bases its government upon principles that promote the best interests of the community as a whole and of the individuals who compose the community.

Each student in coming to Meredith becomes a member of the Association, and as such she is expected to accept not only the privileges of self-government, but also the responsibilities and obligations. She is expected to share intelligently and cooperatively in making and revising student regulations; moreover, she is expected to uphold and carry out these regulations.

A student should prove herself at all times a capable and trustworthy college citizen, actively working for better student government. Real progress is made only as the Student Government Association trains its citizens in intelligent democracy. Self-government will be only as effective and as constructive as each student makes it.

GRANT OF POWERS

The Board of Trustees approves the adoption and operation by the faculty and the student body of what is commonly known as student government, subject, however, to the following limitations:

1. The following matters are reserved from student control, and as to these the faculty and the officers of the college shall have control:

- a. All academic matters.
- b. All matters affecting the health of the students.
- c. Chapel programs.
- d. Organization of the clubs and societies.
- e. Control of college property.

2. To the President, to the Dean, and to the Dean of Women, with their respective committees, is reserved the right to handle special cases of discipline which in their judgment can best be handled in this way; subject to the right of the Trustees to review the same, if they so desire.

3. The Trustees reserve all powers and authority not hereinbefore specifically granted to others, and reserve the right to modify or repeal this grant of authority at any time in their discretion.

The Operation of Student Government

New regulations or changes in regulations may arise either in the Student Council and go to the student body and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the top arrows show, or such legislation may arise in the student body and go to the Student Council and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the bottom arrows show. Regulations or changes must be passed by all three bodies before becoming effective. If the change is in a college policy, it must be passed by the Board of Trustees.

THE HONOR CODE

All life at Meredith is based upon the honor code, which is drawn up and defined by the students of the college.

The honor code means that:

Each student is expected to be honest and truthful at all times.

Each student is personally responsible for her own conduct, for her obligations to the college community, and for informing herself of and for abiding by the college regulations. If a student breaks a regulation, she is expected to correct her offense by reporting herself to the proper authorities: in an academic matter, to the instructor concerned; in an administrative matter, to the officer of administration concerned; and in a student government matter, to an upperclass member of the Student Government Council.

A student is responsible for seeing that the honor code is carried out at all times. If she is aware of a violation of the code by another student, it is her duty to see that the offender reports the violation.

The honor code is violated when a student is dishonest or untruthful, when a student fails to report herself for a rule infraction, or when a student fails to correct a violation of the code by another student.

Three basic principles underlie the honor code: at all times, a student shows absolute integrity, fulfills her community obligations, and assumes responsibility for her fellow citizens in the community. The students of Meredith have adopted and agreed to live by this honor code because they believe it to be the basis of successful and effective self-government.

IV. Council action is taken for the accumulation of six call downs by nonresident students or for the sixth unexcused chapel absence.

V. Cradle roll or demotion is given when a student is not considered capable of living under an honor code and must therefore be chaperoned by an upperclass Council member wherever she goes. Students who consistently make careless mistakes may become candidates for cradle roll. REGULATIONS

COLLEGE POLICIES

Students do not smoke while under the jurisdiction of the College.

Students do not give dances at Meredith, and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus.

Attendance at both church and Sunday school is required of all students except seniors.

Students do not tolerate hazing, and they consider an interference by members of one class with another as hazing.

All students are required to attend chapel exercises held Monday through Friday.

Students do not have sororities of any name or kind on the campus, whether national or local, affiliated or unaffiliated with a similar organization elsewhere. (The punishment for this offense will be probation or expulsion at the discretion of the Student Government Council subject to the approval of the Faculty Committee on Student Government and the President of the College.)

REGULATIONS OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

These regulations have been made by the Student Government Association with the approval of the Faculty Committee on Student Government and the President of the College.

The regulations have been adopted to suit the needs of the whole student body and cannot constantly be adjusted to meet the needs of each individual student. Exceptions to regulations are made only by the Student Government Council.

Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times so that their conduct will reflect favorably upon themselves and upon the College.

JURISDICTION OF THE COLLEGE

When returning to the College from out of town, students are under the jurisdiction of the College as soon as they enter Raleigh. When students are visiting in the homes of friends in Raleigh, they remain under the regular college rules unless other arrangements are made in the office of the Dean of Women. They are under their hostess' chaperonage only when in her company.

REGISTRATION

Immediately before leaving and upon returning to the College, each student signs on her own dormitory card. The student should sign the names of the persons with whom she is going, and when she goes to church, the name of the church. To exercise a privilege which requires special permission, a student must first get her permission in the office of the Dean of Women and then sign out on a special permission slip.

When to sign out on the dormitory card :

1. When leaving the campus.
2. When dating in the parlor or on the campus.
3. When horseback riding.
4. When bicycle riding.

If an emergency arises and a student cannot change or sign her own card, she may telephone the office of the Dean of Women or a member of the Student Government Council and request that the change be made. Only the Dean of Women can sign or change a special permission slip.

The keeping of a student's card is a matter of her personal honor and her own responsibility. The way a student keeps her card is a good index to the way she keeps the regulations.

SPECIAL PERMISSIONS

A student must secure permission from the office of the Dean of Women and must sign out on a special permission slip for the following privileges :

1. All overnight absences from the college.
2. All trips outside the city limits of Raleigh, except to the Drive-In.
3. Any privilege taken by a student when she is chaperoned by persons other than those listed as official chaperons.
4. Any call at a hotel or boarding house unless under the chaperonage of her parents.
5. Any call at a physician's office or hospital for consultation or treatment. Special permission is unnecessary for a student who is accompanying another student.

6. Any call on the campus of State College except to the library, to public functions, and to church on Sunday.
7. Any call at a fraternity house.
8. Any return to the College after regular hours for evening privileges.
9. The use of her car by a teaching senior for purposes other than going to and from the school in which she is teaching.
10. Permission to practice plays or hold meetings of any nature after light bell or before rising bell.
11. Dating in the parlor on Monday evening.

GENERAL APPEARANCE

In order to maintain the reputation which Meredith students have for being well-dressed and well-groomed, students are expected to dress appropriately for all occasions.

1. Off campus.

Before six o'clock students are required to wear hats and hose when they go beyond the Varsity Theater. After six o'clock, students should wear hats and hose when going off the campus, except to Wilmont when not dating or to the Manmure for bowling. It is not necessary for students to wear hose when riding a bicycle. Before October 1 and after May 1, leg makeup may replace hose. Kerchiefs may replace hats if it is raining or snowing when a girl leaves the campus.

2. On campus.

Because students should look well on campus as well as off campus, students are required to wear socks or hose to classes, in Johnson Hall, in the dining hall, and to chapel, except before October 1 and after May 1, when no socks or hose are required. Students are required to wear hose to dinner on Saturday night and on Sunday, except before October 1 and after May 1, when leg makeup may replace hose. Classroom dress is not considered appropriate for Saturday night and Sunday dinners. As an aid to general appearance, resident and nonresident students are not to wear kerchiefs in class, in chapel, or in the dining hall; neither are they to wear gym suits, jodphurs, slacks, or shorts in Johnson Hall.

Attendance at both church and Sunday school is required of all students except seniors (see p. 40). Each girl chooses the church she likes best and attends it regularly. Each student is allowed eight unexcused absences from church and five visiting Sundays per year. A week's campus is the penalty for the ninth unexcused church absence. When the student is away from the college for the day on Sunday and does not attend her church in Raleigh, the absence is unexcused. When she is away for the week-end, the absence is excused. Attending church on Sunday does not count a privilege.

Students may borrow general books for two weeks, or for a shorter period, determined by the demand for the book. At the expiration of two weeks, books may be renewed for two weeks, provided that they are not needed by other persons. Any book may be recalled by the librarian when needed in the library.

Books must not be taken from the library until they have been charged at the desk. All books taken out of the library must be returned to one of the library assistants or left on the desk.

The person who borrows a book is responsible for it until the record of its return is complete.

A fine of two cents will be charged for each day that a general book is kept out overtime. Notices are sent as soon as possible after the book is due.

How to Borrow a Book for Use Outside the Library

1. Consult the card catalogue.

Look for the book you want by its author, title, or subject, as you would for a word in a dictionary or a name in a telephone directory.

2. When you have located the card for the book you want, copy the complete call number. (It always appears in the upper left corner of the catalogue card.) Slips are kept on top of the card catalogue for this purpose.
3. Go to the stack room for the book.
4. Take the book to the circulation desk, sign your full name and room number on the book card in the back of the book, and have it properly charged there.

How to Borrow a Book for Use in the Library

Follow procedures 1, 2, and 3 as given above. Take the book to the circulation desk and sign for it on the white reading room slip. Fill out all the information asked for on the white slip. When you are through with the book, return it at the circulation desk and claim your white slip.

Reserve Reading Room

This room is dedicated to study and is reserved for those who wish to use reserve books and bound periodicals. Books are assembled here at the request of the members of the faculty to provide material for required reading in connection with class assignments. The books are grouped alphabetically by author under each subject. The essential rules governing the use of reserve books are given here; hence ignorance of them is no excuse.

1. Go directly to the shelves and get the books for yourself. (Not more than two at a time.)

2. Sign the orange cards. (Full name and hour.)
3. Leave cards at the desk.
4. Books may be used for a period of two hours. They may be renewed for an additional two-hour period if not needed by another student.
5. When you have finished with the books, claim cards at the desk and return the books to proper places on the shelves.
6. One-half hour before closing time reserve books may be charged out for overnight use. Sign full name and room number on the orange card.
7. Books taken out for overnight use must be returned at the desk in the reserve room by 8:30 a.m. the next day the library is open.
8. A fine of ten cents will be charged for each hour a reserve book is kept out overtime.
9. Reserve books are not to be taken to other parts of the building.
10. Please be as quiet as possible when using this room so as not to disturb the other students who wish to study.

Stack Room

Regulations in regard to the use of this room:

1. Here, as elsewhere in the library, we ask that you move around quietly and refrain from conversation.
2. Do not carry your books into the stack room. These may be left on the small unit of shelving at the door.
3. You are not to remain in the stack room to study.

4. Leave turned down on the shelves any books that you may remove to examine.
5. In order that the right person may get the right book at the right time, it is absolutely necessary that the books be in proper order according to the classification numbers. Please help us keep them this way.

The classification numbers for the books shelved in a section are marked on the ends of each section. If you have difficulty in finding desired books, the assistant on duty at the desk will be glad to help you.

Magazines

Current magazines and newspapers are kept in the periodical room. They are arranged in alphabetical order.

Bound magazines are arranged in alphabetical order on the shelves at the rear end of the reserve room.

Back issues of unbound magazines should be called for at the circulation desk.

A complete file of the magazines in our library is kept at the circulation desk.

Magazines must be used in the library. They do not circulate.

Interlibrary Loan

The library will borrow for you, from other libraries, books needed for special assignments. You should, however, first exhaust the resources of our library. If material is still needed, you should then present a written request from the professor under whom you are working.

All requests for permission to get books from other libraries in the city must be handed in to the librarian by 11:30 a.m. of the day on which the book is wanted. Give title and author of the book, and also the call number, if possible. Do not ask for more than two books at the same time.

The charge for postage on interlibrary loans is to be paid by the borrower.

Additional Information

Fiction is shelved in the alcove to the right of the rotunda.

The North Carolina Collection, Modern Language Collection, and International Relations Club library are in the alcove to the left of the rotunda.

Students found with missing library books in their possession will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Government Council.

It is well to remember that library regulations, in general, are made not for the convenience of the staff, but to protect your interests by giving all of you, as far as it is possible, equal privileges. To return books when due, to refrain from conversation in reading rooms where others are at work, to handle books even more carefully than if they were one's own—these are acts of courtesy which are appreciated by all who use the library.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

At Meredith there are two literary societies, the Philaretian and the Astrotekton. After a lively rush week each new student joins the society of her choice on Decision Day.

The Astro Society, whose colors are gold and white, has as its motto "He builds too low who builds beneath the stars." Its mascot is Billy Astro, a goat. Each year the Astrotekton Society offers the Carter-Upchurch medal for the best essay written by one of its members.

The colors of the Phi Society are lavender and white; its motto is "Plain living and high thinking," and its mascot is Phido, a bear. Each year the society offers the Minnie Jackson Bowling medal for the best essay written by one of its members and a scholarship to the freshman who has contributed most to the society.

Each society has a hall in which monthly meetings are held. Programs at meetings are debates, literary contests, lectures, and social activities of fun and fellowship.

The literary societies afford a means of friendly rivalry among the students and create opportunities for social and intellectual development.

ASTRO SONG

See thy children, Mother Astro,
Sisters of the Gold and White,
Bow before thee in thy beauty,
Thankful for thy wondrous light.
Now we bring our girlhood treasures,
And we lay them at thy feet—
Waiting for thy benediction
And thy bidding, always sweet.

Astro, Mother Astro,
From the mountains to the sea,
Astro, Mother Astro,
We have come in love and gladness
To be led by thee.

Now we feel thy hands upon us,
Hands so loving and so strong
That the touch fills every daughter
With a purpose of a song.

Lift your heads, ye Astro maidens,
Look into her starlit eyes,
Then go forth to life and duty
With a zeal that never dies!

Astro, Mother Astro,
With a love that grows not old,
Astro, Mother Astro,
See us rally round thy banner,
Dear old white and gold.

PHILARETIA

Behold, in shining raiment dressed
She stands! In silence bow.
High honors sits upon her breast;
A white flame blazes in her breast,
And stars upon her brow.

Look up and listen while she speaks,
In solemn tones, and slow.
She points to radiant mountain peaks,
Where morn reveals her first grey streaks,
To weary souls below.

She calls us to her house of light
Beneath her azure dome:
Come, daughters, walk with me in white,
Above the glooming realms of night;
Build here your highland home.

"Let Virtue feed her vestal fire
Within each holy fane;
Let fearless Truth, with flaming ire,
Consume the breath of base Desire,
And rule without a stain."

Lead on, O Philaretia fair,
Lead upward day by day;
Thy violet banner in the air,
Thy daughters all will highly dare!
Brave mother, lead the way.

MISS CATHERINE HILDERMAN	-----	Director

Each year the Meredith Little Theater presents two major productions, co-operates with the Stunt Night plays, and sponsors the society one-act plays and freshman class play. Students from all classes may participate in tryouts for these productions, and membership in the Little Theater is attained through work on various plays. Costuming, scenery construction, painting, and acting are all equally important, and points are awarded by the following plan:

- 15-20 points—major role in a long play
- 10-14 points—major role in a short play
- 5-10 points—minor role in a long play
- 2- 6 points—minor role in a short play
- 15-20 points—directing a major play (three acts)
- 10-14 points—directing a short play (one act)
- 0-10 points—work in costuming (making, securing, etc.)
- 0-15 points—work in staging (lighting, properties, construction, etc.)
- 0-10 points—work in publicity (posters, tickets, music, make-up)

Students become pledges when they earn 5 points and are full-fledged members when they earn 25 points.

HONOR SOCIETIES

KAPPA NU SIGMA

Organized in 1923, Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society aims to promote scholarship at Meredith. Members are admitted into the society on the basis of scholastic standing maintained over a period of at least two years.

At the annual spring meeting new members are received and a roll call of all members made.

SILVER SHIELD

The idea of the Silver Shield, an honorary leadership society, originated with members of the Class of 1933, but no definite organization was set up until the spring of 1935. The purpose of the society is to foster a better spirit on the campus and to recognize outstanding girls who have contributed to life at Meredith. Nine new members are selected from each rising and present senior class by the members of the organization and the faculty. The selection is made on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, service to the school, and scholarship.

The Silver Shield sponsors a record room, which is located on the second floor of Stringfield Hall. In the record room are filed club constitutions and records of club activities, college and class songs, college and class traditions, and other materials needed for reference by students.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

In May, 1938, the Eta Nu chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, was installed with eleven members. The Little Theater was proud to have placed the first national honorary society on the Meredith campus.

The Alpha Psi Omega in no way displaces the Little Theater, for it is not a producing organization. Its function is to give recognition to those girls who excel in dramatic endeavor. Any Little Theater member who earns at least fifty points, is eligible for membership.

DECISION DAY

On Decision Day the new students choose their literary society. The day, one Saturday in early fall, climaxes a week of competitive rushing by the societies for the affections of the new girls. Before classes on Decision Day, the new girls are given wagon rides by the Astros and "Phi" truck rides by the Phis in the front drive. If a new girl knows by breakfast where her heart lies, she enters the dining hall by the door that is decorated in the colors of her chosen society.

At the chapel assembly on Decision Day, all new students formally announce their final decision by entering the door of the auditorium decorated in the colors of the society they have selected. Then the members of each society march in singing their society song.

Decision Day ends with the Astro initiation and the Phi installation service.

PALIO AND STUNT NIGHT

The Saturday in early fall on which Palio and the class stunts are held is a red letter day at Meredith. Palio, an adaption of the ancient festival in Siena, is a unique tradition at Meredith. Each class vies with the others in parades up the front drive, the formation of class numerals, horse races, bicycle races, the frolicking of clowns, and original class songs. The class winning the parade is awarded the Palio banner; the class having the largest number of members participating in Palio wins reserved seats for the stunts.

In the evening, each class gives an original stunt, and to the winning class is awarded a silver loving cup.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

CAROLING

Early in the morning of the day on which the Christmas holidays begin, students gather to go caroling on the campus and around Raleigh.

CROOKING

Each year a shepherd's crook is hidden on the campus by the president of the Senior Class. In the spring, an organized search for the crook is begun by the Junior Class. The Freshman and Sophomore Classes aid their "big sister" classes in the search.

Crooking was begun in 1906 when Miss Caroline Berry Phelps gave the crook to the seniors to increase class spirit. It served its purpose well, for spirit ran so high that from 1913 to 1929 the crook was banished from the campus.

Definite rules govern crooking. The Senior and Junior Class presidents may draw up additional rules each year if necessary.

A. Rules Governing Crook Activities.

1. If not found, the crook shall be taken out of hiding by the Senior Class and Junior Class presidents at their discretion, after which time it is neutral until the day of registration the following September.

2. The crook shall be presented by the president of the Senior Class to the president of the incoming Senior Class at the class-day exercises.
3. It shall have the class colors of the seniors in the event that they have kept the crook. If the juniors have found the crook, it shall have the senior colors above a black bow representing mourning of the Senior Class. At the time of the presentation the colors of the incoming Senior Class shall be put on the crook.
4. All crook activities shall be limited to students of Meredith College.
5. If the crook is found, the class in possession may have twenty-four hours in which to rehide it; at the end of this time they must make known this fact and the opposing class may at once begin searching for it.
6. If by chance the finding should become known before the crook is rehidden, a one-hour truce shall be granted, during which time the opposing class members may be carefully guarded.
7. This truce must also be granted in case the crook is found within twenty-four hours of the final time limit. After this time, all activities must cease, and the class in possession may have the crook.
8. The crook may not be taken by force, and no one may be physically interfered with in searching for it.
9. In case a freshman or sophomore finds the crook, she must immediately notify a member of her "big sister" class.

B. Rules for Hiding the Crook.

1. It must be on the campus, the limits being the highway in front, the railroad on the right and the roads at the left and back.
2. It cannot be under lock and key.
3. It may not be buried.
4. Some part of it must show at all times.
5. If hidden out of doors, it must be protected from the weather.
6. The crook may not be moved after the first hiding.
7. The crook may not be hidden in or on any roof or under any building.

C. Rules About the Clues.

1. With the exception of rule four, the same rules which govern the hiding of the crook also govern the hiding of the clues.
2. The number of clues to be found shall be left to the discretion of the Junior and Senior Class presidents.
3. The time allotted for the hunting of the clues shall average one week for each clue. This applies to the rehiding of the crook and clues. If the crook is found during the last week, a hint shall be given instead of a clue.
4. After the first clue has been presented to the president of the Junior Class, mistakes in the code or description may be checked, if necessary, but no additional information of any nature may be given.

MAY DAY

May Day is celebrated the first Saturday in May. A May queen, aided by her maid-of-honor and court, presides over the day. The queen and maid-of-honor are elected by popular vote of the student body. Each class elects two May court attendants. It is customary for a girl to be in the May Court only once unless she is elected May queen or maid-of-honor.

On May Day morning, the queen is serenaded by the sophomores and later honored by them at breakfast. In the May Day fete, the queen carries an arm bouquet of iris, the college flower.

On the week-end of May Day, high school seniors are invited to the college for Hospitality Week-end.

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

Once in every college generation, the members of the faculty present for the students Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland.

SOCIETY PLAYS

In the spring, the societies compete in presenting plays. The Little Theater, as sponsor of the plays, gives a cup to the winning society. If a society wins three consecutive years, the cup becomes a permanent possession of that society. The Freshman Class also presents a play on this night.

FACULTY-STUDENT PLAY DAY

Each spring the Athletic Association sponsors a faculty-student play day. A duke, elected by the student body from the faculty, and a duchess, elected by the student body from the student body, reign over the events of the day. No afternoon classes are held, and games are played between the faculty and students during the afternoon. The day ends with a picnic in the court.

STEP SINGING

BIG SISTER AND LITTLE SISTER CLASSES

FRESHMAN CLASS TRADITIONS

The freshmen entertain their "big sisters" in the spring at a breakfast at the Chimney; they help their "big sisters" search for the crook; they present a class play; and each year they have a class party. The class president is chosen from a group of girls recommended by the Junior Class.

SOPHOMORE CLASS TRADITIONS

On "Soph Day Off" the sophomores are honored at breakfast in the morning, and in the evening they have a class party. On May Day, the sophomores sing to the May queen and honor her at breakfast. It is the responsibility of the sophomores to help the seniors with commencement. On Class Day, the sophomores early in the morning gather daisies which they make into a long daisy chain. At the Class Day exercises in the afternoon, the sophomores carry the chain and sing to the seniors. After the exercises the sophomores march to the steps of Johnson Hall to form their class numerals.

The juniors select several names to submit to the Freshman Class from which the class chooses its president. The transfer students are honored by the Junior Class at a coffee hour during the orientation period. In the spring, the seniors are honored by the juniors at the junior-senior banquet. At the Class Day exercises, the juniors decorate the posts for the daisy chain with the senior class colors.

SENIOR CLASS TRADITIONS

On May Day, the seniors invite the president of the college to breakfast with the May queen and they sing to him and present him a basket of flowers. One night during commencement week, seniors hold a grudge bonfire at which each girl burns the article she has disliked most at Meredith, so that it will never spoil her memories of the college. At step singing during commencement, the seniors form their class numerals on the steps of Johnson Hall; and, singing "The Queen of Our Hearts," march off into the grove to elect their permanent class officers. On this Sunday, too, they conduct a vesper service.

ODD CLASSES

The odd classes are those which graduate in odd years, as 1949. The song of the odd classes is "These Bones." At Class Day, the odd classes give bones to their "little sisters." A red devil is the mascot of the odd classes and a black glove worn on the left hand is symbolic of the odd spirit. These classes have as their colors for the first two years blue and white, and for the last two years the rainbow colors.

EVEN CLASSES

"Hail to the Even Spirit" is the answer of the even classes to "These Bones." Even classes are those graduating in an even year, as 1948. The leap-year classes have as their colors purple and gold; other even classes have green and white. In their sophomore year, the members of even classes wear green stockings as a mark of distinction on "Soph Day Off." On May Day, the even-class sophomores put May baskets on the doors of their "big sisters." During commencement, seniors of even classes have a candlelight service at the fountain at which all seniors engaged to be married must walk backwards around the fountain. At Class Day, the seniors give sticks and stones to their "little sisters."

ALMA MATER

1. We sa-lute thee, Al-ma Ma-ter, we sa-lute thee with a song,
 2. Thou hast come thro' trib-u-la-tion and thy robe is clean and white,
 3. In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert shall rejoice,
 4. Where the rho-do-den-dron blush-es on the bur-ly mountain's breast,
 5. Where the sons of Car-o-li-na taught a na-tion to be free,

At thy feet our loy-al hearts their trib-ute lay;
 Thou art fair-er than the sum-mer in its bloom.
 In the wil-der-ness a liv-ing foun-tain spring;
 In the mid-land, where the wild deer love to roam;
 And her daugh-ters taught their broth-ers to be brave;

We had wait-ed for thy com-ing in the dark-ness, wait-ed long,
 Thou art born un-to a king-dom and thy crown is all of light;
 For the blind shall see thy beau-ty and the deaf shall hear thy voice,
 Where the wa-ter-lil-y slum-bers, while the cy-press guards its rest—
 O'er a land of peace-ful plen-ty, from the high-lands to the sea,

Ere the morn-ing star pro-claimed thy na-tal day.
 Thou shalt smile a-way the shad-ow and the gloom.
 And the si-lent tongue their high ho-san-nas sing.
 Lo, thy sun-my land of prom-ise and thy home.
 May thy ban-ner, Al-ma Ma-ter, ev-er wave.

R. T. Vane

ALMA MATER

We salute thee, Alma Mater, we salute thee with a song;

At thy feet our loyal hearts their tribute lay;
We had waited for thy coming, in the darkness
waited long,

Ere the morning star proclaimed thy natal day.

Thou hast come through tribulation, and thy robe is clean and white!

Thou art fairer than the summer in its bloom.
Thou art born unto a kingdom, and thy crown is
all of light;

Thou shalt smile away the shadow and the gloom.

In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert
shall rejoice,

In the wilderness a living fountain spring;
For the blind shall see thy beauty and the deaf
shall hear thy voice,

And the silent tongue their high hosannas sing.

Where the rhododendron blushes on the burly mountain's breast,

In the midland where the wild deer love to roam,

Where the water lily slumbers while the cypress
guards its rest,

Lo! thy sunny land of promise and thy home.

Where the sons of Carolina taught a Nation to be free,

And her daughters taught their brothers to be brave;

O'er a land of peaceful plenty, from the highlands to the sea,

May thy banner, Alma Mater, ever wave!

DEDICATION HYMN

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

We work together in Thy sight,
We live together in Thy love;
Guide Thou our falt'ring steps aright,
And lift our thoughts to heav'n above.

Hold Thou each hand to keep it just,
Touch Thou our lips and make them pure;
If Thou art with us, Lord, we must
Be faithful friends and comrades sure.

We change, but Thou art still the same,
The same good Master, Teacher, Friend;
We change; but, Lord, we bear Thy name,
To journey with it to the end.

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

Music by RUSSELL BROUGHTON
Words by S. M. MEYER

(This hymn was dedicated by the composer to the Meredith College Choir.)

MEREDITH LOYALTY SONG

Rah, rah, rah, it's Meredith for me!
Rah, rah, rah, we'll ever loyal be!
We'll keep on striving through our college days
To serve her and to spread her fame always.
Rah, rah, rah, we'll carry on for her!
Rah, rah, rah, our efforts she will spur!
Where'er we go we'll sing her praise—
Meredith, hip, hip, hooray!

Words and music by PAT ABERNETHY, '33.

NOW A VISION GLORIOUS

Now a vision glorious dawns upon our sight,
As we stand, oh Meredith, bathed in thy light, Hope and inspiration for coming years we've found here ever.
Alma Mater, love for thee will rule our hearts always.

Words and music by VIRGINIA COUNCIL, '40.

MEREDITH, OUR ALMA MATER

Meredith, our Alma Mater,
We lift our hearts in praise,
To tell of the wondrous story
And happy college days
That mean so much to each of us.
You're our guiding star; always
You lead us toward these upward paths
By your ever-shining rays.

Words and music by EMILY BETHUNE, '38.

YOU'RE THE QUEEN OF OUR HEARTS, ALMA MATER

You're the queen of our hearts, Alma Mater ;
You hold a place that no other can fill.
Each year, in passing, has bound us
And draws us closer still.
Like the sun in the east when 'tis rising,
A new day is dawning for thee.
Through the sunshine and tears
Of our dear college years,
You're the queen of our hearts, Alma Mater.

Words and music by MARY O'KELLY, '26.

HEARTS ARE LOYAL

Hearts are loyal, love is true,
When we lift our praise to you.
Come every heart and come every hand,
Cheer the best college in the land.

Chorus

Oh, Hi, Hi, Hi, we're all together ;
Hi, Hi, Hi, Hi, nothing can sever
Hearts that adore you, hearts that uphold you—
Here's a ringing cheer for you, our Meredith!

Words and music by MARY LEE, '32.

HAIL TO THE EVEN SPIRIT

(Song of the Even Classes)

The odd spirit has passed away;
Her bones lie in the grave.
"Those bones shall rise," her sisters say;
The even class answers, "Nay."
The odd spirit turns and groans;
She tries to rise again.
But sticks and stones will break those bones;
The even spirit reigns.

Chorus

Hail to the even spirit;
She never, never dies.
She lives forever in the Meredith halls;
A challenge to our lives.

THESE BONES

(Song of the Odd Classes)

Senior-sophomore spirits last;
'Dese bones gonna rise again.
Settle right down in the sophomore class;
'Dese bones gonna rise again.
Freshman-junior spirit knows
'Dese bones gonna rise again.
Always lives and always grows;
'Dese bones gonna rise again.

Chorus

Yes, we know it, know it,
Indeed, we know it, know it,
Oh, yes, we know it, know it,
'Dese bones gonna rise again.

MAY QUEEN SONG

Dear May Queen, we greet you with garlands so fair,

That you may entwine in your beautiful hair.

The birds and the flowers sing a welcome to you,

And help you to bring in the May Day anew.

The sunrise brings with it a crown for our queen ;

Arise let your radiance be seen.

Come rule for a day while you may,

Queen -----, come rule for a day.

BIG SISTER-LITTLE SISTER SONG

(tune of "My Buddy")

Sisters, dear, the time's come to part ;

Always we'll keep you deep in our hearts ;

Big (little) sisters, we love you,

And to you we'll be true.

Through the years as we go along,

We'll think of you through all the days long ;

Big (little) sisters, we love you,

And to you we'll be true.

COLLEGE POLICIES

Students are not allowed to smoke on the Meredith College campus, except (1) resident students may smoke in dormitory bedrooms and that (2) non-resident students may smoke in one of the rooms set aside for them in Johnson Hall.

Students do not give dances at Meredith, and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus.

Attendance at both church and Sunday school is required of all students except seniors.

Students do not tolerate hazing, and they consider an interference by members of one class with another as hazing.

All students are required to attend chapel exercises held Monday through Friday.

Students do not have sororities of any name or kind on the campus, whether national or local, affiliated or unaffiliated with a similar organization elsewhere. (The punishment for this offense will be probation or expulsion at the discretion of the Student Government Council subject to the approval of the Faculty Committee on Student Government and the President of the College.)

GRANT OF POWERS

The Board of Trustees approves the adoption and operation by the faculty and the student body of what is commonly known as student government, subject, however, to the following limitations:

1. The following matters are reserved from student control, and as to these the faculty and the officers of the college shall have control:

- a. All academic matters.
- b. All matters affecting the health of the students.
- c. Chapel programs.
- d. Organization of the clubs and societies.
- e. Control of college property.

2. To the President, to the Dean, and to the Dean of Women, with their respective committees, is reserved the right to handle special cases of discipline which in their judgment can best be handled in this way; subject to the right of the Trustees to review the same, if they so desire.

3. The Trustees reserve all powers and authority not hereinbefore specifically granted to others, and reserve the right to modify or repeal this grant of authority at any time in their discretion.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

DEAR NEW GIRL,

Welcome to our campus and a sincere greeting to a new member of the Student Government Association. Here at Meredith we students are practicing democracy by governing ourselves. It is really with each of us that the responsibilities of community obligations and personal honor lie and, as a new student, you are challenged to accept the responsibility and join us in upholding the ideals of Meredith.

May we grow as we work and play together in the coming year. The Student Council is eager to help you in any way possible: please give us the opportunity.

The Operation of Student Government

New regulations or changes in regulations may arise either in the Student Council and go to the student body and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the top arrows show, or such legislation may arise in the student body and go to the Student Council and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the bottom arrows show. Regulations or changes must be passed by all three bodies before becoming effective. If the change is in a college policy, it must be passed by the Board of Trustees.

THE HONOR CODE

All life at Meredith is based upon the honor code, which is drawn up and defined by the students of the college.

The honor code means that:

Each student is expected to be honest and truthful at all times.

Each student is personally responsible for her own conduct, for her obligations to the college community, and for informing herself of and for abiding by the college regulations. If a student breaks a regulation, she is expected to correct her offense by reporting herself to the proper authorities: in an academic matter, to the instructor concerned; in an administrative matter, to the officer of administration concerned; and in a student government matter, to an upperclass member of the Student Government Council.

A student is responsible for seeing that the honor code is carried out at all times. If she is aware of a violation of the code by another student, it is her duty to see that the offender reports the violation.

The honor code is violated when a student is dishonest or untruthful, when a student fails to report herself for a rule infraction, or when a student fails to correct a violation of the code by another student.

Three basic principles underlie the honor code: at all times, a student shows absolute integrity, fulfills her community obligations, and assumes responsibility for her fellow citizens in the community. The students of Meredith have adopted and agreed to live by this honor code because they believe it to be the basis of successful and effective self-government.

FRESHMAN AND TRANSFER COUNSELLORS

These are the girls with whom you will probably first become acquainted. They will be on hand to help you in any way possible. You've probably already heard from your counsellor, but maybe you do not as yet know what she looks like. Find her in the picture, and then introduce yourself to her when you get to Meredith if she doesn't recognize you first.

Center row: Carolyn Covington (seated on radiator), Marguerite Leatherman, Mary Beth Hord, Shirley Bone, Kathleen Deane, Miss Lillian Grant, Sandra Moore, Helen Brunson, Ann McRackan (on arm of sofa), and Marianna Worth (kneeling in front of piano).

Standing: Joyce Harrell, Mabel Sperling, Frances Huffman, Betty Compton, Annie Drake Morgan, Margaret Benbow, Frances Altman, Beverly Batchelor, and Ruth Griffin.

Not in picture: Gazelle Moore, Marjorie Trippeer, and Betsy Jordan.

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

Your freshman and transfer counsellors are eager to welcome you to Meredith. Your first week here is going to be a busy one, but we are looking forward to helping you become acquainted with Meredith and get settled as a student. We are here to help you, not only during that first week, but also throughout the year, and we want you to come to us with any of your problems.

We are awaiting September and your arrival with enthusiasm.

DOROTHY SWARINGEN
Chief Counsellor

YOUR COLLEGE WARDROBE

Your college days are days of laughter and days of work . . . gay times that will be more gay if you dress to fit the mood. The keynote to a good college wardrobe is simplicity, with an eye to quality, style, and unity. Quantity is no main feature, but appropriateness is.

OPEN A CLOSET DOOR

in any dorm and see what you find on the hangers . . .

For Class: Tailored dresses, skirts with blouses or sweaters to match, and suits are worn to class.

For Church: A dress or suit with suitable accessories for Sunday, including hat, purse, gloves, and heels.

For Plays, Concerts, and Lectures: Same as for church.

For Formal or Semi-formal Occasions: Long dinner dress or formal evening dress.

For Sports: If you are planning to do some horse-back riding, you'll want to bring jodhpurs. The regulation clothes for physical education classes must be purchased on the campus. For tennis, bring tennis shoes and racket.

Some Special Suggestions:

Black dresses are very serviceable because of their adaptability to numerous occasions. One white dress is necessary for Commencement week-end.

Several cotton outfits come in well early and late in the school year.

A suitable rain outfit, including a raincoat, boots, umbrella and hat or kerchief, is a desirable addition to your wardrobe.

Color is a key to your personality, so make yourself comfortable in cheerful clothes of good style and good taste.

YOUR NEW HOME

A knock . . . "Come In" . . . and when the door is opened, your personality is on display.

YOUR NEW HOME

is your first college opportunity to present yourself to your classmates as an attractive personality. Consulting your roommate, see what ideas the following information about your new home affords.

Your Room

is 11 x 16 feet. The walls are cream-colored and each room has two closets, two single beds, one study table, two straight back chairs, one rocking chair, one dresser, one bookcase, one floor lamp, one wall light and an overhead light.

Your Windows

are two in number and they are 75" in length by 37" in width, except the windows in the rooms numbered 114, 115, 218, 219, 318, and 319 in all dormitories, which measure 97" in length and 37" in width.

Your Beds

are 81" long, 39" wide, and 27" from the floor. Each girl brings her own bedding; because of possible laundry delay, it is advisable to have about four to six sheets. You will want to bring two or three dresser scarfs and pillow cases.

THIS 'N THAT

GAME ROOM

When dating, or just for those minutes of relaxation you'll have for your own personal enjoyment, the game room will supply you with reading material, records, dominoes, Chinese checkers, caroms, monopoly, and other games of interest. It's yours to enjoy, and it's ready for use any time at your convenience. You'll find it across the hall from the Dean of Women's office in Vann Dormitory.

KITCHENETTES

On those cold nights when you crave that hot bowl of soup, or some fudge, our kitchenettes will serve this desire. Equipped with the regular kitchen materials, you and your friends will have a lot of fun "eating out" once in awhile. These kitchenettes are located on the first floor of each dormitory and are ready for use at any time.

PRESSING ROOMS

Just installed are three brand new Bendix machines (one in each dormitory first floor pressing room except Vann) that will wash a big laundry, for only twenty-five cents, while you can be out doing something else. The pressing room also has ironing boards, irons, and a sewing machine for your own personal use.

PARLORS

In Johnson Hall are two very large parlors, called by their characteristic colors, the Rose and the Blue parlors. These are used for dating, entertaining your family and friends, and for your receptions. On the first floor of each dormitory there are smaller parlors that are used for meetings, parties, and for dating. These are popular when you and your date wish to study together, or when you would like to listen to the radio or play a few records. All of the parlors are open for use by any student except the parlor on first floor Vann, which is reserved for faculty use.

HUT

A typical log cabin, ideally located, is one of the prettiest sights on our campus. Two big fireplaces, ping-pong equipment, a brand new electric stove, refrigerator, and kitchen utensils are just a few of the niceties you and your friends and dates will find when you go there to cook a meal, play games, or enjoy a quiet evening by the fire. The Hut may be used for parties, dating, and various club meetings. Keys are obtained from the Office of the Dean of Women.

STUDENT BANK

For your convenience and for the safety of your money the school provides a student bank at the Bursar's Office. Here you may deposit checks and money to your account and withdraw money as you need it. The office hours are from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. The office is closed during chapel services.

ROOM CHECK

Just to see what a good housekeeper you are, the house director and her assistants check your room twice a week. At the end of the month she posts the "A" and "B" grades. Have your name on the list every time.

SPORTS

You are urged to engage in some type or types of sports while you are here at Meredith. Tennis courts are located beside Stringfield and Vann Dormitories. The stables and riding ring are just beyond the tennis courts. Students who wish to ride and are not enrolled in horseback riding classes may pay a small fee and ride in the afternoon. The gym provides for badminton and shuffleboard. During the spring, students interested in obtaining a life-saving certificate may do so by joining a swimming class.

LECTURES

Meredith's lecture committee secures noted persons to speak to our college community each year. The Kappa Nu Sigma sponsors another lecture in the spring. You'll find these lectures interesting and informative.

CIVIC MUSIC CONCERTS, POP CONCERTS, AND OTHER ATTRACTIONS

Since Raleigh is the capital of North Carolina, Meredith students have many opportunities to visit the Legislature, and government departments as well as the State Library, State Museum, and the Hall of History.

Civic Music Concerts which compose varied programs of the most desirable type in the field of music are made available to students of Meredith College. Special buses are provided for the trip to the auditorium, and the college assumes a portion of the initial cost of the season tickets in order to encourage student membership. You'll want to get a ticket. They are too good to miss.

The Raleigh Pop Concert Series brings interesting artists from all parts of the country, and local organizations sponsor other musical programs which include modern dance groups, ballets, and others. Tickets for these concerts can usually be obtained from one of the music stores down town.

RALEIGH LITTLE THEATRE

The Raleigh Little Theatre presents current Broadway dramas in which only local actors and actresses take part. Memberships in the Raleigh Little Theatre may be bought during the first semester.

WILMONT

Wilmont is a small business district which is within walking distance of the Meredith campus. There are several dry cleaners, grocery stores, drug stores, etc., which you will enjoy.

STUDENT REGULATIONS

OUR WAY OF DOING IT

You may be one of those imaginative persons who have always cherished romantic ideas about college. Your favorite brother or sister, or parent even, has told you wild and exciting tales about his or her reckless escapades in college. And you are already looking forward to Thanksgiving when you can outdo these tales with those of your own.

If you are this sort of person, you had better think twice before coming to Meredith. Not that Meredith isn't the finest school at all for mixing business with pleasure; but the point is, that Meredith has an honor system; and it isn't good form to go tearing off on wild and illegal escapades. The faculty has always been very understanding and co-operative when student representatives have approached them about the rules; and they have had confidence enough in the individual student to say that she is on her honor to uphold these regulations.

The Student Government Council (composed of students) has the right at any time to deal with any student, who, not having grown up enough to conduct herself properly, brings discredit on herself or on Meredith. There is no one, however, out snooping to see that you are going where you say you are, or doing what you say you will do. Keeping the rules at Meredith is a matter of one's personal honor, and those who think it is smart or cute to disregard the rules soon find out that they have the respect of neither students nor faculty. As a group, Meredith girls are proud of their honor system. It develops their powers of self-discipline, and it is pleasant to live under. Most important of all, it is working; and with your co-operation, it will continue to work.

LIVE AND LET LIVE

You may not believe it now, but there will be times when you will want to study at college. At practically every waking minute of the day someone in the dormitories will want to study. Therefore, it is a regulation at Meredith that reasonable quiet shall be observed in the dormitories at all times, and that Busy and No Admittance signs be respected.

Special quiet is observed during morning class hours.

Special quiet is also required during evening study hour, from 7:30 to 10:00, on all week nights except Saturday.

This regulation doesn't mean that one begins to scream in the hall or go in and out slamming doors at 7:29 and 10:01. If given to doing either one of these things, you had better consult the school's psychology professor as soon as possible. Also from 2:00 to 4:00 on Sundays, special quiet is observed. No music should be practiced during these quiet hours on Sunday.

Radios, victrolas, or other musical instruments must not be heard outside the room during the hours of special quiet. At no times should they serve as amplifying systems. You intend for such possessions to attract friends into your room; you will defeat your purpose if these friends can remain in their own rooms and hear your music.

Please do not put radios in the windows. Everyone on your side of the building may not like the same type program you do.

Official bedtime for Juniors and Underclassmen is 10:45 p.m. except on Saturday night, when it is 11:45 p.m. Absolute quiet must be observed after these hours, and lights must be turned off unless a light permission is being exercised.

Once a week, if you are unable to study until the last minute, you may keep your light on until 12:00 p.m., provided you sign with your hall proctor. You'd better consult your roommate about the night you want to sit up, because the light permission is given to the room and not to each occupant. Light cuts are observed in one's own room.

When necessary, light permission is granted also to the following:

- A. Members of the Student Government Council, B. S. U. Council, Athletic Board, and Nominating Committee are granted light cuts on the nights of their regular meetings. Assistant hall proctors will be allowed to keep their lights on until 11:30 on the nights of their regular meetings.
- B. Members of a publication staff may have a light cut the night before the publication goes to press.
- C. Manager of the "B-Hive" has unlimited light cuts.

D. Permission to hold meetings of practices of any nature after light bell or before rising bell is granted only by the Dean of Women.

Though seniors do not have to turn their lights off until 12:00 o'clock, they are expected to remember that there are others on the hall who want to sleep, and that running water does not make a very soothing lullaby. They are also urged for the sake of health not to over-exercise their light privilege.

Those who make unnecessary noise in the halls will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Council.

HINTS TO THE HOSTESS

ENTERTAINING OVERNIGHT GUESTS

Overnight visitors may be entertained in the dormitories for not more than three nights. Be sure that you do not forget these conditions:

1. All overnight visitors should be registered in the office of the Dean of Women.
2. To obtain a room for a guest, students must see the House Director.
3. Guests are not expected to enter or to leave the college between 11:30 p.m. and 6:30 a.m.
4. Arrange for meals to be taken by guests with the Dining Room Hostess.

ENTERTAINING IN THE PARLORS

The following things should be remembered when dating in the parlors:

1. Hours for dating in the parlors are as follows:
 - A. Until 10:30 p.m. Sunday through Friday and until 11:30 p.m. on Saturday.
 - B. No dating in the parlors between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. on weekdays except for dinner dates or before 2:00 p.m. on any day of the week except for dinner dates on Sunday.
2. For the convenience of the hostess, girls who have evening dates will register in the hostess' parlor in advance whenever possible.
3. If a boy comes unexpectedly to see a student, she may see him for fifteen minutes, after signing on the sheet in the hostess' parlor. This visit will not count a privilege. More than one fifteen minute date during an evening counts as a regular evening privilege.
4. Dates are not to smoke in the parlors or in any other room on the campus.
5. All girls, including those who are going out for an evening, are to receive and leave their dates in Johnson Hall. Students are to use the doors beside the steps of Johnson Hall when going out or coming in with a date.
6. There is no dating on the campus grounds after 6:00 p.m. except for organized college functions which dates may attend.

The regulations that follow apply to entertaining in the dormitory parlors.

1. Students before dating in the dormitory parlors must sign on the hostess' sheet in Johnson Hall stating the parlor in which they're going to date.

2. Dates should enter the parlors by court doors only.
3. Dates are to be met in the Johnson Hall parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the dormitory parlors by girls; that is, a crowd of boys cannot go to the dormitory without dates.
4. Dates shall leave the dormitory parlors ten minutes before the close of the Johnson Hall parlor in order to leave this parlor on time.
5. Rooms on the court side should have shades drawn whenever girls are dressing.
6. There will be no calling out of windows to boys going to and from the dormitory parlors.
7. The faculty parlor on first floor Vann will not be used by students.

ENTERTAINING IN THE DINING HALL

When you wish to have a guest for a meal you must make arrangements with the hostess of the dining hall. Please note Dining Hall Regulations for the time to make such arrangements and the prices of the meals.

ENTERTAINING IN THE HUT

When you and your date go down to the Hut for a meal or for an evening of fun, you will want to remember the following things:

1. Students may date in the Hut under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples after six p.m.
2. Dates are to be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the Hut by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the Hut without dates.
3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the Hut.
4. Dates shall leave the Hut ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Notices of private partries or public meetings in the Hut shall be posted on the calendar in the office of the Dean of Women two days in advance.
6. Arrangements for the use of the Hut for private parties or public meetings must be made with the House Director at least twenty-four hours in advance if extra dishes are to be used or fires to be laid.
7. Each group using the Hut is responsible for having it cleaned not later than the next day.
8. Regulations to be observed while using the Hut:
 - a. Notify the House Director 24 hours in advance if fires are to be laid or dishes to be used.
 - b. The key for the Hut must be obtained from the office of the Dean of Women only.
 - c. Drapes must not be drawn at any time.

- d. All kitchen equipment must be left clean and in its respective place.
- e. Refrigerator must be left clean and empty.
- f. Stove must be left clean and all units turned off.
- g. No equipment may be taken from the Hut.
- h. Fires must be completely out before leaving the Hut.
- i. All windows must be left locked.
- j. Report any broken or missing equipment to the House Director.
- k. All furniture must be left in order.
- l. The Hut key must be returned to the office of the Dean of Women immediately after use.
- m. Any abuse of Hut property will automatically cancel the privilege of using the Hut for persons responsible.

ENTERTAINING IN THE GYM

For the sake of variety and of good fun, try taking your date to the gym for a quick game of badminton or shuffleboard. If you take us up on it, be sure to remember the following things.

1. Students may date in the gym under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples.
2. Dates must be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the gym by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the gym without dates.

3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the gym.
4. Dates shall leave the gym ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Students may wear socks when dating in the gym. Students and dates must not wear hard leather soled shoes or black rubber soled shoes in the gym.
6. Students are requested not to take dates into the Bee Hive.
7. Students wishing to use the gym for dating must sign up for it by 5:00 o'clock on the day on which they plan to use it.

ENTERTAINING ON THE CAMPUS

You will enjoy showing your friends and dates our campus in the afternoons before 6:00 p.m. We do not date on the campus after six p.m.

THE INS AND OUTS

When you're going out—which occurs quite often at Meredith, if your studies are not giving you any trouble—and if you want to go out, there are a few little instructions about the matter of registration of which every student needs to be reminded at the beginning of the year.

1. Each student must sign on her own card immediately upon leaving and upon returning to the college. By so doing, she makes it possible for the deans to locate her should unexpected company arrive.

2. When going out, each student signs on her card the name of the persons with whom she is going.
3. When to sign out on the dormitory card:
 - A. When leaving the campus.
 - B. When dating in the parlor or on the campus.
 - C. When horseback riding other than for class.
 - D. When bicycle riding.

Some privileges require permission from home or from the office of the Dean of Women. No student is to exercise a privilege of this kind without first checking on her permission in the office of the Dean of Women. She must, also, in addition to signing her own dormitory card, sign a special permission slip which is filed in a rack in front of the Dean of Women's office. The privileges which call for this type of registration are as follows:

1. All overnight absences from the college.
2. All trips outside the city limits of Raleigh, except to the Drive-In.
3. Any privilege taken by a student when she is chaperoned by persons other than those listed as official chaperones.
4. Any call at a hotel or boarding house unless under the chaperonage of her parents.
5. Any call at a physician's office or hospital for consultation or treatment. Special permission is unnecessary for a student who is accompanying another student.

6. Any call on the campus of State College except to the library, to public functions, and to church on Sunday.
7. Any call at a fraternity house.
8. Any return to the College after regular hours for evening privileges.
9. The use of her car by a teaching senior for purposes other than going to and from the school in which she is teaching.
10. Permission to practice plays or hold meetings of any nature after light bell or before rising bell.

If an emergency arises and a student cannot change or sign her own card, she may telephone the office of the Dean of Women or a member of the Student Government Council and request that the change be made. Only the Dean of Women can sign or change a special permission slip.

WHEN I'M CALLING YOU

Students receive their calls from the telephones on each floor and from the pay telephones on the first floor of each dormitory. There are only three times at which students are asked not to use the telephones. These are the hours from 7:30 to 10:00 every evening except Saturday and Sunday, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Sundays, and from 10:45 in the evening until 7:00 in the morning. Seniors are allowed to use the telephone in their dormitory during study hour.

The peculiar thing about these telephone calls is that as soon as a student has received one, she forgets that about one hundred other girls are just as anxious to get an expected call as she has been. To discourage such forgetfulness, the student body has voted that conversations be limited to five minutes, unless permission has been obtained from the house officer on her hall. Sometimes, in the afternoon, the telephones are not so much in demand. If you and Tommy Jones just must settle that argument you began the night before, tell him to call you then, and not between 10:00 and 10:30. At this time someone, somewhere, is probably trying to call every girl in the dormitory.

If you wish to make a long-distance call or to send a telegram, please use the pay telephones. By getting special permission, you may use the telephone in the office of the Dean of Women. It is wise when you are calling home for a special permission to use the office telephone, but be sure to reverse the charges.

"HAPPY MOTORING"

As riding in automobiles is such a favorite pastime, you will be glad to find that the riding privileges at Meredith are very generous. Before you may exercise any of these privileges, however, a written permission from your home must be approved and filed in the office of the Dean of Women.

A student must have a written permission from home to ride in an airplane.

Freshmen may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and with an official chaperon or older friends or relatives after 6:00 p.m.

Sophomores may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and in groups of two after 6:00 p.m.

Upperclassmen may ride unchaperoned. They may ride in Raleigh with boys in the afternoon and to and from their destination in Raleigh at night.

Riding with strangers is never permitted.

As a safety measure, girls are asked not to ride bicycles on Hillsboro Street.

TO CHAPEL AND TO CHURCH

Attendance at both church and Sunday School is required of all students except seniors (See College Policies). Each girl chooses the church she likes best and attends it regularly. When signing out on her dormitory card, she should indicate the name of the church she is attending. Each student is allowed eight unexcused absences from church and five visiting Sundays per year. A week's campus is the penalty for the ninth unexcused church absence. When the student is away from the college for the day on Sunday and does not attend her church in Raleigh, the absence is unexcused. When she is away for the week-end, the absence is excused. Attending church on Sunday does not count a privilege.

Unless with the hostess with whom she is spending Sunday, or unless for a meal, a student does not go to a drug store on Sunday.

All students are required to attend the chapel exercises held Monday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. Five unexcused chapel absences per semester are granted to each student. All absences, excused and unexcused, are recorded by resident students on their dormitory cards and by non-resident students on chapel attendance cards in the nonresident students' room.

The following absences are excused:

1. Absences taken for supervised teaching.
2. Absences taken to work at the college switchboard.
3. Absences taken by nonresident students who have no class either before or after chapel.
4. Absences taken by resident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List who have arranged permission in the office of the Dean of Women to be away from college when taking absences from classes.
5. Absences taken by nonresident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List on days on which they miss all classes.
6. Absences taken in cases deemed exceptional by the Student Government Council.

The following absences count one-third of an absence:

1. Absences taken in the infirmary because of illness.
2. Absences taken at home because of illness.
3. Absences taken because of illness or death in the immediate family (mother, father, brother, sister, grandfather, or grandmother).

A student is given one week's campus for the sixth unexcused chapel absence; an additional week's campus is given for the second of every two additional unexcused absences after the sixth.

CONCERNING DANCING

I. On the campus.

Students do not give dances at Meredith and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus (see p. 5).

II. Off the campus.

A. A written permission from parents must be presented, giving date, dance, name of escort, and, if a student is staying out of the college for the week-end, the name and address of the hostess.

B. All students must go directly to the dance and may not leave the dance before it is over except to return to the College.

C. When attending dances held in Raleigh, students must go from and return to the College. They must be in within an hour after the dance. It is necessary that students make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Women at least forty-eight hours in advance.

D. When attending dances away from Raleigh, students must make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Women forty-eight hours in advance so that all arrangements may be approved. No student may spend a night in a fraternity house, boarding house, tourist home, or hotel unless under the chaperonage of her mother.

E. When dances are held outside of Raleigh, students under chaperonage regulations may be allowed to go from and return to the College within an hour after the dance; or they may spend the week-end away from Raleigh if satisfactory arrangements are made in advance with the Dean of Women.

- F. Only girls who are students in residence at Meredith may go from and return to the College.

These special regulations apply only to dances sponsored by an approved organization or institution. The dancing of individual couples in public places is not permitted.

AS OTHERS SEE US

In order to maintain the reputation which Meredith students have for being well-dressed and well-groomed, students are expected to dress appropriately for all occasions.

1. Off campus.

Before six o'clock students are required to wear hats and hose when they go beyond the Varsity Theater. After six o'clock, students should wear hats and hose when going off the campus, except to Wilmont when not dating or to the Manmur for bowling. It is not necessary for students to wear hose when riding a bicycle. Before October 1 and after May 1, leg makeup may replace hose. Kerchiefs may replace hats if it is raining or snowing when a girl leaves the campus.

2. On campus.

Because students should look well on campus as well as off campus, students are required to wear socks or hose to classes, in Johnson Hall, in the dining hall, and to chapel, except before October 1 and after May 1, when no socks or hose are required. Students are required to wear hose to dinner on Saturday night and on Sunday, except before October 1 and after May 1, when leg makeup may replace hose. Classroom dress is not considered appropriate for Saturday night and Sunday dinners. As an aid to general appearance, resident and nonresident students are not to wear kerchiefs in class, in chapel, or in the dining hall; neither are they to wear gym suits, jodhpurs, slacks, or shorts in Johnson Hall.

WEEK-ENDS AND OUT-OF-TOWN TRIPS

During her first year at Meredith, a student may not leave the College for an overnight absence or an out-of-town trip without a written permission from parents or guardians. These permissions must be mailed directly to the office of the Dean of Women and must state the destination and dates of departure and return.

After a student has been at Meredith one year, she may use green slips to obtain from the office of the Dean of Women special permission for overnight absences or out-of-town trips, provided that she allow twenty-four hours for her request to be approved or disapproved.

DORMITORY REGULATIONS

I. Dormitory hours.

Except with permission from her hall proctor, every student is to be in her room from light bell to rising bell. To spend the night elsewhere than in one's own room, a student must obtain permission from her hall proctor and must tell the proctor on whose hall she is visiting.

II. Changing of rooms.

A. No student may change her room or roommate during the first two weeks of school.

B. Unless an emergency arises all room changes must be completed by the end of the first six weeks of the first semester. Room changes for second semester must be completed during the first two weeks of that semester.

C. At all times students before making changes must ask permission of the Dean of Women.

COLLEGE CALENDAR

In order to avoid confusion in the college calendar, dates for all meetings which are likely to cause conflict must be arranged with the Dean of Women, whether or not the original permission for the meeting was granted by her. Presidents of all student organizations should register dates of regular and special meetings as far in advance as possible.

Plans for every social event must be approved in the office of the Dean of Women and scheduled on the college calendar. Whenever such an event is sponsored by an organization outside the College, the Dean of Women will post on the bulletin board a notice giving all necessary information.

BULLETIN BOARDS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students are responsible for all announcements made and all notices posted. Bulletin boards should be read each day.

JURISDICTION OF THE COLLEGE

When returning to the College from out of town, students are under the jurisdiction of the College as soon as they enter Raleigh. When students are visiting in the homes of friends in Raleigh, they remain under the regular college rules unless other arrangements are made in the office of the Dean of Women. They are under their hostess' chaperonage only when in her company.

JUST IN CASE!

These penalties are drawn up by the Student Government Council and are subject to change during the session.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

DEAR NEW GIRL,

All Meredith girls are members of the Athletic Association and we want you to enjoy this privilege while here at school. Besides the various sports and recreational activities in which you may participate, the A.A. sponsors and earnestly hopes that you will participate in Palio and Stunt night, which are traditions at Meredith, Christmas caroling, and a faculty-student play day in which faculty and students go out for an afternoon of frolic. There is a spring dance concert too that we hope you will enjoy as much as we do. We want to impress you with the idea that sports are an important everyday part of your life without which you miss much fun and excitement.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Every student of Meredith College, upon entering, automatically becomes an active member of the Athletic Association. The A.A. Board, composed of twenty-one members including the managers of the seasonal sports and activities, meets weekly to tackle the task of organizing and coordinating all the extracurricular athletic and recreation activities of the college. The staff members of the Department of Health and Physical Education serve as advisory members of the board.

Major sports sponsored by the A.A. are hockey, soccer, basketball, and softball. Tournaments and playdays in each of these sports climax the seasons. The teams entering the tournaments are class teams or big sister-little sister teams. Sports days are often held with other schools in which the varsity teams, chosen as the most outstanding players participating in the particular sport or sports, take part.

Tennis, badminton, swimming, archery, and golf are the minor sports supervised by the Athletic Association. Individual sports such as hiking, horseshoe, ping-pong, bicycling, riding, and bowling are participated in throughout the school year. The Equitation Group, the Folk Dance Group, and the Monogam Club are under the direction of A.A. and function under the leadership of their own officers.

Medals are awarded at the close of each season to the members of the varsity teams in each of the major sports. A hockey stick is awarded at the end of the hockey season to the freshman who has shown the most teamwork, loyalty, and proficiency in hockey. Special awards for outstanding performance in other organized activities are made by the A.A. Board. A trophy is awarded at the end of the year to the member of the student body who is considered by the Athletic Association Board to have contributed most to athletics during the year.

THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

We eagerly await a new year because it gives us an opportunity to do new things, to make new friends, and to find a new and deeper aspect of living. The Executive Council and the entire Baptist Student Union are anxious to welcome you with a hope that you will find your place in it. It has a place for you because no life is ever complete and meaningful apart from religion. We hope all the activities that it sponsors will strengthen and deepen your spiritual life, and, as a result, the ideals of Meredith will be deepened as they find their expression in the spirit of Christ.

B. S. U.

Come you college students,
Old and new,
Your minds off clothes and dates awhile,
Let's talk about the B.S.U.

With this silly jingle to clear the atmosphere of all hints of cant, let's look together for a minute or two at an association which calls itself the "religious" organization on our campus. That means it is primarily concerned with the setting forth of a religion, the Christian religion, to be specific, as indispensable in the achievement of satisfaction in life. How does it work? Just listen.

Obviously there must be a special group to outline a plan of procedure. That group we call the Executive Council, members of which are elected in the spring. (They are listed one page back.) In a conference held a few days prior to the opening of school, they meet together to work out a tentative schedule for the year's activities. This includes such things as a freshman transfer party, the primary purpose of which is to initiate the new students into the Baptist Student Union; church welcome services, which usually include suppers for the students, to introduce them to the fun, fellowship, and opportunities for study and training available to them in all of the local churches of Raleigh; Y. W. A. programs, which seek to foster a missionary spirit among students, to awaken them to the needs of the world, and to indicate avenues of service.

Vespers are another big item. Held every week day at 6:45 p.m., they furnish those invaluable moments of quiet and meditation, when tense nerves are relaxed, cluttered minds are cleared, and the peace and calm of the ever-present spirit of God seems to permeate one's entire being. This program is supplemented by Family Altar, which closes the evening as Vespers does the day. Conducted on each dormitory hall, it creates an atmosphere of love and companionship, drawing students closer to one another and to God.

Then weeks of special emphasis are anticipated: one for Vocations, when there are brought to our attention various fields of work open to students for the summer or after graduation; a Religious Emphasis Week, which is a real highlight of the school year. At this time eminent preachers and teachers of the Christian faith come and live on our campus, give stimulating addresses in chapel, lead conferences, and make themselves generally available for discussion of individual and world-wide problems.

Other features of the year's program are monthly birthday parties (held in the dining hall), study courses, monthly chapel programs, inter-collegiate parties, and State conventions and conferences.

Though many of the activities listed take place on the campus, the Baptist Student Union is concerned primarily with securing the participation of the student in the life of one of the local churches, where in the fellowship of kindred minds, she can find strength, direction, and encouragement to strive for the ideal life.

College life is like a diamond given to us in the rough—it is ours to take and keep as dull ore, or ours to shape, to rub off the jagged edges, to transform into a lovely jewel. In our inexperienced hands, perfection will not be possible, but available to everyone of us is the power of an unseen Master, who can guide us as we work, point out the flaws, until in the place of native carbon there shall begin to appear a polished stone, not perfect ever, but marvelously heightened in beauty, reflecting in its highlights something of the radiance of the sun. This is the ideal life, and this is the life the B.S.U. wants for you.

LITTLE THEATER

ELSIE CORBETT	-----	President
MARY HUMPHREY	-----	Vice-president
ELIZABETH ZULALIAN	-----	Secretary
JACQUELINE KNOTT	-----	Treasurer

You may be a competent sportswoman, you may be an enthusiastic newshound, or you may be a glamorous socialite; but, in any event, we hope that you have dramatic aspirations. For on the Meredith campus, there is an organization which will kindle that spark of interest into dramatic ability and stage poise. The Little Theater offers an opportunity for you to gain experience in every phase of dramatic work. If you want to act, you can try out for any of the productions given during the year. If you prefer to be the “power behind the throne,” you can work on the staging, properties, make-up, or costuming committees. If you do not want to take an active part at all, you can spur our endeavors on by attending the productions. You don’t have to buy a ticket for each production; for when you pay your budget fee in September, you purchase admission to a year’s enjoyment of Little Theater performances. We want you to come out for our plays because of a sincere interest in dramatics. We believe that this interest of yours will increase when you learn that students from the neighboring boys’ colleges take the male roles in our major productions.

Full-fledged membership in the Little Theater shall be awarded according to the Little Theater point system. Before each production night, a committee of five, including the director of the Little Theater, the president, secretary, and two members appointed by the president, shall determine the number of points to be allotted each applicant, and make its report. One of the exciting features of each production is the announcement of new members. We don’t guarantee a Hollywood contract with acting in our plays, but we do guarantee that you will have quantities of fun and gain a good working knowledge of play production.

LITTLE THEATER POINT SYSTEM

15-20 points—major role in a long play

10-14 points—major role in a short play

5-10 points—minor role in a long play

2- 6 points—minor role in a short play

15-20 points—directing a major play (three acts)

10-14 points—directing a short play (one act)

0-10 points—work in costuming (making, securing, etc.)

0-15 points—work in staging (lighting, properties, construction, etc.)

0-10 points—work in publicity (posters, tickets, music, make-up)

Students become pledges when they earn 5 points and are full-fledged members when they earn 25 points.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Student publications make up a great part of the extracurricular activity on any college campus. The school newspaper, the magazine, and the annual are three indispensable factors of a full college life. They not only assure you hours of reading fun, but they preserve the joys of your college life in the permanency of print.

OAK LEAVES

The Oak Leaves is the college annual, the book you spend the year looking forward to. Its purpose is to portray Meredith life in word and picture. There are individual pictures of the girls, group pictures of the organization, views of the buildings and favorite college haunts, to say nothing of the informal snapshots of college life "off parade." You'll love the annual, and if you get a chance, you'll love working on its publication staff. We'll admit the job is hard, but we'll guarantee you'll enjoy it.

THE TWIG

The Twig is pretty certain to be at your door every second Saturday of the school year. It is the official college newspaper, ready to keep you informed through articles and pictures about what has been going on around you. Besides straight news, its features, cartoons, humor, and special columns are planned for your amusement and interest. Work on The Twig may seem like play, yet to those who have journalistic ambitions, it offers an opportunity for real newspaper experience. Train your "nose for news," by becoming "news hounds" for The Twig.

THE ACORN

The Acorn is the college magazine, in which you may see in print all those delightful fancies that you think up while the professor is lecturing on the Crimean War: those sonnets that are inspired in the midst of a sermon on "Where Is Youth Today?" or even the brilliant clue you get to the mystery of Hamlet and don't get a chance to voice before the bell rings.

If, when you look at one of the year's six issues of the Acorn, you think, "Humph! I could beat that myself," just remember it is your own fault if you don't. The Acorn is a student magazine and the contributions you slip into the Acorn office make it what it is.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

You will hear first at Meredith, if you haven't already heard, about the two literary societies, the Astrotekton and the Philaretian. You will be attentively "rushed" the first few weeks at Meredith by members of both of these societies. You will have parties and serenades and you will hear much about the activities and the girls in each. There is the keenest competition between these two societies for the affections of you new girls. Heed an old girl's advice and don't lose your heart too quickly.

Each society has a hall in which monthly meetings are held. Programs at meetings are debates, literary contests, lectures, and social activities of fun and fellowship!

Both societies are looking forward to the arrival of you new girls. Become well acquainted with the activities and members of each before you decide to join ranks with either the Philaretians or the Astrotektons.

HELLO, NEW STUDENTS,

Are you excited about coming to Meredith? We are, and we are looking forward to meeting each of you.

Our society plans for the coming year have already begun and seem to indicate that there is an eventful year ahead for the Phis. I hope you will like us and decide during rush week that you will join the Phis in singing their beautiful song:

“Lead on, oh Philaretia fair,
Lead upward day by day . . .”

See you in September,

Your extracurricular life is incomplete unless it includes active participation in at least one or two campus clubs. Membership in some of these clubs is open to all interested students. In others, it is restricted to include only those girls who take related subjects. No student is allowed to belong to more than three departmental clubs. In any event, a preview of the nature and pursuits of the various clubs will really make them a coming attraction for you.

Membership is limited to junior and senior business majors. Sophomores who are majoring in business may become pledges.

HONOR SOCIETIES

KAPPA NU SIGMA

Organized in 1923, Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society aims to promote scholarship at Meredith. Members are admitted into the society on the basis of scholastic standing maintained over a period of at least two years.

At the annual spring meeting new members are received and a roll call of all members made.

SILVER SHIELD

The idea of the Silver Shield, an honorary leadership society, originated with members of the Class of 1933, but no definite organization was set up until the spring of 1935. The purpose of the society is to foster a better spirit on the campus and to recognize outstanding girls who have contributed to life at Meredith. Nine new members are selected from each rising and present senior class by the members of the organization and the faculty. The selection is made on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, service to the school, and scholarship.

The Silver Shield sponsors a record room, which is located on the second floor of Stringfield Hall. In the record room are filed club constitutions and records of club activities, college and class songs, college and class traditions, and other materials needed for reference by students.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

In May, 1938, the Eta Nu chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, was installed with eleven members. The Little Theater was proud to have placed the first national honorary society on the Meredith campus.

The Alpha Psi Omega in no way displaces the Little Theater, for it is not a producing organization. Its function is to give recognition to those girls who excel in dramatic endeavor. Any Little Theater member who earns at least fifty points, is eligible for membership.

OUR TRADITIONS

TRADITIONS

LAVENDER AND OLD LACE

Sometimes the girls of today stop and join hands across the years with the girls of yesterday, by carrying on traditions which are a part of Meredith. Some of these belong to the respective classes, some to the "odd" and "even" years, and some to all Meredith Girls.

FOR ALL THE SCHOOL

The first of these traditions that belong to all the girls is "Decision Day" for the societies, with new girls as guests of honor. This day comes early in the fall and climaxes a period of competitive "rushing" for the affections of the new girls. The excitement begins in the early morning with breakfast. Two important newcomers seen on the campus are the "Phi" bear and the "Astro" goat. If you know where your heart lies by 7:30 a.m., tradition says that you enter the dining room door on which your society colors fly. After chapel in the auditorium you lose that feminine privilege of changing your mind, for there you choose between the two societies.

Closely following "Decision Day" is the initiation of the "Baby Astros" and the installation service for the "Baby Phis." This week-end is closed for visiting, but you will not wish to leave anyway.

The Saturday in early fall on which Palio and the class stunts are held is a red letter day at Meredith. Palio, an adaption of the ancient festival in Siena, is a unique tradition at Meredith. Each class vies with the others in parades up the front drive, the formation of class numerals, horse races, bicycle races, the frolicking of clowns, and original class songs. The class winning the parade is awarded the Palio banner; the class having the largest number of members participating in Palio wins reserved seats for the stunts.

In the evening, each class gives an original stunt, and to the winning class is awarded a silver loving cup.

For the night before the Christmas holidays begin, the Student Government Council, aided by the other campus organizations, arranges a party, usually a formal dinner. Later on that same night, or sometimes early the next morning, the whole student body goes caroling.

May Day is celebrated the first Saturday in May. A May queen, aided by her maid-of-honor and court, presides over the day. The queen and maid-of-honor are elected by popular vote of the student body. Each class elects two May court attendants. It is customary for a girl to be in the May Court only once unless she is elected May queen or maid-of-honor.

On May Day morning, the queen is serenaded by the sophomores and later honored by them at breakfast. In the May Day fete, the queen carries an arm bouquet of iris, the college flower.

On the week-end of May Day, high school seniors are invited to the college for Hospitality Week-end.

Once in every college generation, the members of the faculty present for the students Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland.

In the spring, the societies compete in presenting plays. The Little Theater, as sponsor of the plays, gives a cup to the winning society. If a society wins three consecutive years, the cup becomes a permanent possession of that society. The Freshman Class also presents a play on this night.

Each spring the Athletic Association sponsors a faculty-student play day. A duke, elected by the student body from the faculty, and a duchess, elected by the student body from the student body, reign over the events of the day. No afternoon classes are held, and games are played between the faculty and students during the afternoon. The day ends with a picnic in the court.

On the Sunday afternoon of commencement week-end, students of all the classes, dressed in white, gather on the steps of Johnson Hall for singing.

FOR THE CLASSES

In addition to the traditions that belong to everyone, there are those which the respective classes possess. On entering Meredith new girls find that they have a heritage to accept and hand down as the years go by.

As freshmen, they entertain in the spring their "Big Sisters" at a breakfast at the Chimney; and on a chosen gala night, they entertain themselves at a class party in one of the society halls.

As sophomores, they find that spring again is a season of traditions. All the sophomores hail "Soph Day Off," which means for them a day of special recognition. They are honored at a breakfast in the morning, and in the evening, they have a class party. It is a red letter day for the second-year class. Then, when May Day comes, the sophomores sing to the May Queen early in the morning, again at breakfast on the day that she will reign on the campus, and during the May Day ceremony. Another big event is Class Day. Every sophomore looks forward to this with eagerness. On this day they make the traditional daisy chain from the thousands of daisies that they have picked early that morning. They do have to arise early, but going on that sunrise daisy-picking excursion is something one can't afford to miss. Be sure to catch the 5:00 o'clock truck bound for the daisy field near Raleigh. At the Class Day exercises that afternoon, the sophomores carry this daisy chain and sing to their "Big Sisters." They then march to Johnson Hall and form their class numerals on the steps.

As juniors, they find that they are especially lucky in "hand-me-downs." The first and the best tradition they have is the adoption of "Little Sisters" from the Freshman Class. Each junior has a "Little Sister" of her own, and they all agree that it's a wonderful addition to the family.

The juniors aid the freshmen in their election of a president and an adviser. In the spring, when the young men's fancies have lightly turned to thoughts of love, the juniors give a banquet in honor of the seniors. For months in advance, they plan the menu and the decorations; for this affair happens only twice in a lifetime. During commencement, the juniors delight in serving the seniors in another way. For the Class Day exercises they decorate the posts with Senior Class colors for the daisy chain.

The seniors, too, look forward to the spring and to the banquet given to them by the juniors; for it is the greatest social event of the year. On May Day, the seniors invite the President of the College to breakfast with the May Queen in the dining room. They sing to him and present him a basket of flowers. Commencement week is a time when the seniors carry on many Meredith customs. One night at a grudge bonfire, they burn the article they have disliked most at Meredith, so that it will never spoil their memories of Meredith. On Sunday before Commencement, seniors conduct the vesper service. On Sunday afternoon during commencement, the seniors form their class numerals on the steps of Johnson Hall, and, singing "The Queen of Our Hearts," march off into the grove to elect their permanent class officers.

FOR THE "ODDS" AND "EVENS"

Besides the general traditions and those belonging to the individual classes, there are the "even" and "odd" set of traditions. "Even girls" are those who graduate in even years, for instance 1942-1944. "Odd girls" graduate in uneven years, for instance 1941-43. You who are entering as freshmen this year will be "even girls." Whichever you are, you are counted lucky.

"Hail to the Even Spirit" will doubtless be the first of this set of traditions to greet you. This song was written in answer to "These Bones," the "odd" song. The colors of all but the Leap Year classes are green and white. In its junior year, every Leap Year class takes purple and gold. In your sophomore year, you will learn that green stockings are worn as a mark of distinction on "Soph Day Off." Also in your sophomore year, you will put May baskets on the doors of your "Big Sisters' " rooms. To a senior or a sophomore this traditional rite is lots of fun. The last of the "even" traditions pertains especially to the seniors. During commencement, seniors have a candlelight service at the fountain. Surprising information often comes to light at this service, for all seniors engaged to be married walk backwards around the fountain while their uncommitted classmates go in the usual fashion.

"Odd" traditions are exciting too. Their song is "These Bones," and a black glove worn on the left hand as symbolic of the odd spirit. The odd classes have a red devil as mascot. Their colors through the sophomore year are blue and white, and in their junior and senior years they take the rainbow colors.

MUSIC IN THE BREEZE

Singing is a widespread custom at Meredith. During that first week here the new girls launch forth with our ever beautiful ALMA MATER. We urge new girls to learn this song as early as possible. Be a singing angel on the campus—give, with melody!

ALMA MATER

1. We sa-lute thee, Al-ma Ma-ter, we sa-lute thee with a song,
 2. Thou hast come thro' trib-u-la-tion and thy robe is clean and white,
 3. In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert shall rejoice,
 4. Where the rho-don-dron blush-es on the bur-ly mountain's breast,
 5. Where the sons of Car-o-li-na taught a na-tion to be free,

At thy fest our loy-al hearts their trib-ute lay;
 Thou art fair-er than the sum-mer in its bloom.
 In the wil-dar-ness a liv-ing foun-tain spring;
 In the mid-land, where the wild deer love to roam;
 And her daugh-ters taught their broth-ers to be brave;

We had wait-ed for thy com-ing in the dark-ness, wait-ed long.
 Thou art born un-to a king-dom and thy crown is all of light;
 For the blind shall see thy beau-ty and the deaf shall hear thy voice,
 Where the wa-ter-lil-y alum-bers, while the cy-press guards its rest—
 O'er a land of peace-ful plen-ty, from the high-lands to the sea,

Ere the morn-ing star pro-claimed thy na-tal day.
 Thou shalt smile a-way the shadow and the gloom.
 And the si-lent tongue their high ho-san-nas sing.
 Lo, thy sun-ny land of promise and thy home.
 May thy ban-ner, Al-ma Ma-ter, ev-er wave.
 R. T. Vane

ALMA MATER

We salute thee, Alma Mater, we salute thee with
a song;

At thy feet our loyal hearts their tribute lay;
We had waited for thy coming, in the darkness
waited long,

Ere the morning star proclaimed thy natal day.
Thou hast come through tribulation, and thy robe is clean and white!

Thou art fairer than the summer in its bloom.
Thou art born unto a kingdom, and thy crown is
all of light;

Thou shalt smile away the shadow and the gloom.

In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert
shall rejoice,

In the wilderness a living fountain spring;
For the blind shall see thy beauty and the deaf
shall hear thy voice,

And the silent tongue their high hosannas sing.
Where the rhododendron blushes on the burly
mountain's breast,

In the midland where the wild deer love to roam,

Where the water lily slumbers while the cypress
guards its rest,

Lo! thy sunny land of promise and thy home.
Where the sons of Carolina taught a Nation to be free,

And her daughters taught their brothers to be brave;

O'er a land of peaceful plenty, from the highlands to the sea,

May thy banner, Alma Mater, ever wave!

DEDICATION HYMN

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

We work together in Thy sight,
We live together in Thy love;
Guide Thou our falt'ring steps aright,
And lift our thoughts to heav'n above.

Hold Thou each hand to keep it just,
Touch Thou our lips and make them pure;
If Thou art with us, Lord, we must
Be faithful friends and comrades sure.

We change, but Thou art still the same,
The same good Master, Teacher, Friend;
We change; but, Lord, we bear Thy name,
To journey with it to the end.

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

Music by RUSSELL BROUGHTON
Words by S. M. MEYER

(This hymn was dedicated by the composer to
the Meredith College Choir.)

MUSIC GROUPS ON THE CAMPUS

If you have any interest or talent in music, there is a place for you in one of the active music organizations at Meredith. These groups offer excellent opportunities for student participation throughout the year.

III. LIBRARY REGULATIONS

During the college year the library is open on weekdays from 8:15 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Circulation—

Students may borrow general books for two weeks, or for a shorter period, determined by the demand for the book. At the expiration of two weeks, books may be renewed for two weeks, provided that they are not needed by other persons. Any book may be recalled by the librarian when needed in the library.

Books must not be taken from the library until they have been charged at the desk. All books taken out of the library must be returned to one of the library assistants or left on the desk.

The person who borrows a book is responsible for it until the record of its return is complete.

A fine of two cents will be charged for each day that a general book is kept out overtime. Notices are sent as soon as possible after the book is due.

How to Borrow a Book for Use Outside the Library

1. Consult the card catalogue.
Look for the book you want by its author, title, or subject, as you would for a word in a dictionary or a name in a telephone directory.
2. When you have located the card for the book you want, copy the complete call number. (It always appears in the upper left corner of the catalogue card.) Slips are kept on top of the card catalogue for this purpose.
3. Go to the stack room for the book.
4. Take the book to the circulation desk, sign your full name and room number on the book card in the back of the book, and have it properly charged there.

How to Borrow a Book for Use in the Library

Follow procedures 1, 2, and 3 as given above. Take the book to the circulation desk and sign for it on the white reading room slip. Fill out all the information asked for on the white slip. When you are through with the book, return it at the circulation desk and claim your white slip.

Reserve Reading Room

This room is dedicated to study and is reserved for those who wish to use reserve books and bound periodicals. Books are assembled here at the request of the members of the faculty to provide material for required reading in connection with class assignments. The books are grouped alphabetically by author under each subject. The essential rules governing the use of reserve books are given here; hence ignorance of them is no excuse.

1. Go directly to the shelves and get the books for yourself. (Not more than two at a time.)
2. Sign the orange cards. (Full name and hour.)
3. Leave cards at the desk.
4. Books may be used for a period of two hours. They may be renewed for an additional two-hour period if not needed by another student.
5. When you have finished with the books, claim cards at the desk and return the books to proper places on the shelves.
6. One-half hour before closing time reserve books may be charged out for overnight use. Sign full name and room number on the orange card.
7. Books taken out for overnight use must be returned at the desk in the reserve room by 8:30 a.m. the next day the library is open.
8. A fine of ten cents will be charged for each hour a reserve book is kept out overtime.

9. Reserve books are not to be taken to other parts of the building.
10. Please be as quiet as possible when using this room so as not to disturb the other students who wish to study.

Stack Room

Regulations in regard to the use of this room:

1. Here, as elsewhere in the library, we ask that you move around quietly and refrain from conversation.
2. Do not carry your books into the stack room. These may be left on the small unit of shelving at the door.
3. You are not to remain in the stack room to study.
4. Leave turned down on the shelves any books that you may remove to examine.
5. In order that the right person may get the right book at the right time, it is absolutely necessary that the books be in proper order according to the classification numbers. Please help us keep them this way.

The classification numbers for the books shelved in a section are marked on the ends of each section. If you have difficulty in finding desired books, the assistant on duty at the desk will be glad to help you.

Magazines

Current magazines and newspapers are kept in the periodical room. They are arranged in alphabetical order.

Bound magazines are arranged in alphabetical order on the shelves at the rear end of the reserve room.

Back issues of unbound magazines should be called for at the circulation desk.

A complete file of the magazines in our library is kept at the circulation desk.

Magazines must be used in the library. They do not circulate.

Interlibrary Loan

The library will borrow for you, from other libraries, books needed for special assignments. You should, however, first exhaust the resources of our library. If material is still needed, you should then present a written request from the professor under whom you are working.

All requests for permission to get books from other libraries in the city must be handed in to the librarian by 11:30 a.m. of the day on which the book is wanted. Give title and author of the book, and also the call number, if possible. Do not ask for more than two books at the same time.

The charge for postage on interlibrary loans is to be paid by the borrower.

Additional Information

Fiction is shelved in the alcove to the right of the rotunda.

The North Carolina Collection, Modern Language Collection, and International Relations Club library are in the alcove to the left of the rotunda.

Students found with missing library books in their possession will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Government Council.

It is well to remember that library regulations, in general, are made not for the convenience of the staff, but to protect your interests by giving all of you, as far as it is possible, equal privileges. To return books when due, to refrain from conversation in reading rooms where others are at work, to handle books even more carefully than if they were one's own—these are acts of courtesy which are appreciated by all who use the library.

COLLEGE POLICIES

"The purpose of Meredith College is to develop in its students the Christian attitude toward the whole of life, and to prepare them for intelligent citizenship, home-making, graduate study, and for professional and other fields of service. Its intention is to provide not only thorough instruction, but also culture made perfect through the religion of Jesus Christ. These ideals of academic integrity and religious influence have always been cherished at Meredith."

Students are not allowed to smoke on the Meredith College campus, except (1) resident students may smoke in dormitory bedrooms and that (2) non-resident students may smoke in one of the rooms set aside for them in Johnson Hall.

Students do not give dances at Meredith, and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus.

Attendance at both church and Sunday school is required of all students except seniors.

All students are required to attend chapel exercises held Monday through Friday.

Students do not have social sororities of any name or kind on the campus, whether national or local, affiliated or unaffiliated with a similar organization elsewhere. The punishment for this offense will be probation or expulsion.

GRANT OF POWERS

The Board of Trustees approves the adoption and operation by the faculty and the student body of what is commonly known as student government, subject, however, to the following limitations:

1. The following matters are reserved from student control, and as to these the faculty and the officers of the college shall have control:

- a. All academic matters.
- b. All matters affecting the health of the students.
- c. Chapel programs.
- d. Organization of the clubs and societies.
- e. Control of college property.

2. To the President, to the Dean, and to the Dean of Women, with their respective committees, is reserved the right to handle special cases of discipline which in their judgment can best be handled in this way; subject to the right of the Trustees to review the same, if they so desire.

3. The Trustees reserve all powers and authority not hereinbefore specifically granted to others, and reserve the right to modify or repeal this grant of authority at any time in their discretion.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

DEAR NEW MEREDITH GIRL,

Welcome to your campus and to the Student Government Association. We are glad that our Student Government is just what it says, a student government, and with your co-operation it will remain that. The responsibilities of college life are undertaken by us, and the carrying out of them is left up to the personal honor of the student. We feel that is a real challenge and hope that you, the new student, will also realize the privilege and responsibility of your Student Government.

You will find the Student Council willing to help you and hoping that you will let it do the most for the students. Meredith has high ideals and her students are upholding these standards of which we are so proud. We are glad to have you join us in our college program to help each Meredith girl develop into the best citizen she can be.

The Operation of Student Government

New regulations or changes in regulations may arise either in the Student Council and go to the student body and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the top arrows show, or such legislation may arise in the student body and go to the Student Council and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the bottom arrows show. Regulations or changes must be passed by all three bodies before becoming effective. If the change is in a college policy, it must be passed by the Board of Trustees.

THE HONOR CODE

All life at Meredith is based upon the honor code, which is drawn up and defined by the students of the college.

The honor code means that:

Each student is expected to be honest and truthful at all times.

Each student is personally responsible for her own conduct, for her obligations to the college community, and for informing herself of and for abiding by the college regulations. If a student breaks a regulation, she is expected to correct her offense by reporting herself to the proper authorities: in an academic matter, to the instructor concerned; in an administrative matter, to the officer of administration concerned; and in a student government matter, to an upperclass member of the Student Government Council.

A student is responsible for seeing that the honor code is carried out at all times. If she is aware of a violation of the code by another student, it is her duty to see that the offender reports the violation.

The honor code is violated when a student is dishonest or untruthful, when a student fails to report herself for a rule infraction, or when a student fails to correct a violation of the code by another student.

Three basic principles underlie the honor code: at all times, a student shows absolute integrity, fulfills her community obligations, and assumes responsibility for her fellow citizens in the community. The students of Meredith have adopted and agreed to live by this honor code because they believe it to be the basis of successful and effective self-government.

LETTER FROM CHIEF COUNSELLOR TO NEW STUDENTS

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

We are proud of Meredith and we are happy to welcome you here. You will meet first our group of freshmen and transfer counsellors whose job is to show you the true Meredith. We honestly want to help you throughout the year as well as during the first week. We know that we shall like each of you.

We are looking forward to a wonderful year with you. The year will hold new opportunities, new friends and new experiences for you, but you will find that you have something to offer us, too. We challenge you to take the best advantage of everything you find here.

WINNIE FITZGERALD

YOUR COLLEGE WARDROBE

Your college days are days of laughter and days of work . . . gay times that will be more gay if you dress to fit the mood. The keynote to a good college wardrobe is simplicity, with an eye to quality, style, and unity. Quantity is no main feature, but appropriateness is.

OPEN A CLOSET DOOR

in any dorm and see what you find on the hangers . . .

For Class: Tailored dresses, skirts with blouses or sweaters to match, and suits are worn to class.

For Church: A dress or suit with suitable accessories for Sunday, including hat, purse, gloves, and heels.

For Plays, Concerts, and Lectures: Same as for church.

For Formal or Semi-formal Occasions: Long dinner dress or formal evening dress.

For Sports: If you are planning to do some horse-back riding, you'll want to bring jodhpurs. The regulation clothes for physical education classes must be purchased on the campus. For tennis, bring tennis shoes and racket.

Some Special Suggestions:

Black dresses are very serviceable because of their adaptability to numerous occasions. One white dress is necessary for Commencement week-end.

Several cotton outfits come in well early and late in the school year.

A suitable rain outfit, including a raincoat, boots, umbrella and hat or kerchief, is a desirable addition to your wardrobe.

Color is a key to your personality, so make yourself comfortable in cheerful clothes of good style and good taste.

YOUR NEW HOME

A knock . . . "Come In" . . . and when the door is opened, your personality is on display.

YOUR NEW HOME

is your first college opportunity to present yourself to your classmates as an attractive personality. Consulting your roommate, see what ideas the following information about your new home affords.

Your Room

is 11 x 16 feet. The walls are cream-colored and each room has two closets, two single beds, one study table, two straight back chairs, one rocking chair, one dresser, one bookcase, one floor lamp, one wall light and an overhead light.

Your Windows

are two in number and they are 75" in length by 37" in width, except the windows in the rooms numbered 114, 115, 218, 219, 318, and 319 in all dormitories, which measure 97" in length and 37" in width.

Your Beds

are 81" long, 39" wide, and 27" from the floor. Each girl brings her own bedding; because of possible laundry delay, it is advisable to have about four to six sheets. You will want to bring two or three dresser scarfs and pillow cases.

THIS 'N THAT

GAME ROOM

When dating, or just for those minutes of relaxation you'll have for your own personal enjoyment, the game room will supply you with reading material, records, dominoes, Chinese checkers, caroms, monopoly, and other games of interest. It's yours to enjoy, and it's ready for use any time at your convenience. You'll find it across the hall from the Dean of Women's office in Vann Dormitory.

KITCHENETTES

On those cold nights when you crave that hot bowl of soup, or some fudge, our kitchenettes will serve this desire. Equipped with the regular kitchen materials, you and your friends will have a lot of fun "eating out" once in awhile. These kitchenettes are located on the first floor of each dormitory and are ready for use at any time.

PRESSING ROOMS

Just installed are three brand new Bendix machines (one in each dormitory first floor pressing room except Vann) that will wash a big laundry, for only twenty-five cents, while you can be out doing something else. The pressing room also has ironing boards, irons, and a sewing machine for your own personal use.

PARLORS

In Johnson Hall are two very large parlors, called by their characteristic colors, the Rose and the Blue parlors. These are used for dating, entertaining your family and friends, and for your receptions. On the first floor of each dormitory there are smaller parlors that are used for meetings, parties, and for dating. These are popular when you and your date wish to study together, or when you would like to listen to the radio or play a few records. All of the parlors are open for use by any student except the parlor on first floor Vann, which is reserved for faculty use.

HUT

A typical log cabin, ideally located, is one of the prettiest sights on our campus. Two big fireplaces, ping-pong equipment, a brand new electric stove, refrigerator, and kitchen utensils are just a few of the niceties you and your friends and dates will find when you go there to cook a meal, play games, or enjoy a quiet evening by the fire. The Hut may be used for parties, dating, and various club meetings. Keys are obtained from the Office of the Dean of Women.

STUDENT BANK

For your convenience and for the safety of your money the school provides a student bank at the Bursar's Office. Here you may deposit checks and money to your account and withdraw money as you need it. The office hours are from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. The office is closed during chapel services.

ROOM CHECK

Just to see what a good housekeeper you are, the house director and her assistants check your room twice a week. At the end of the month she posts the "A" and "B" grades. Have your name on the list every time.

SPORTS

You are urged to engage in some type or types of sports while you are here at Meredith. Tennis courts are located beside Stringfield and Vann Dormitories. The stables and riding ring are just beyond the tennis courts. Students who wish to ride and are not enrolled in horseback riding classes may pay a small fee and ride in the afternoon. The gym provides for badminton and shuffleboard. During the spring, students interested in obtaining a life-saving certificate may do so by joining a swimming class.

LECTURES

Meredith's lecture committee secures noted persons to speak to our college community each year. The Kappa Nu Sigma sponsors another lecture in the spring. You'll find these lectures interesting and informative.

CIVIC MUSIC CONCERTS, POP CONCERTS, AND OTHER ATTRACTIONS

Since Raleigh is the capital of North Carolina, Meredith students have many opportunities to visit the Legislature, and government departments as well as the State Library, State Museum, and the Hall of History.

Civic Music Concerts which compose varied programs of the most desirable type in the field of music are made available to students of Meredith College. Special buses are provided for the trip to the auditorium, and the college assumes a portion of the initial cost of the season tickets in order to encourage student membership. "You'll want to get a ticket. They are too good to miss."

The Raleigh Pop Concert Series brings interesting artists from all parts of the country, and local organizations sponsor other musical programs which include modern dance groups, ballets, and others. Tickets for these concerts can usually be obtained from one of the music stores down town.

RALEIGH LITTLE THEATRE

The Raleigh Little Theatre presents current Broadway dramas in which only local actors and actresses take part. Memberships in the Raleigh Little Theatre may be bought during the first semester.

WILMONT

Wilmont is a small business district which is within walking distance of the Meredith campus. There are several dry cleaners, grocery stores, drug stores, etc., which you will enjoy.

STUDENT REGULATIONS

OUR WAY OF DOING IT

(You may be one of those imaginative persons who have always cherished romantic ideas about college. Your favorite brother or sister, or parent even, has told you wild and exciting tales about his or her reckless escapades in college. And you are already looking forward to Thanksgiving when you can outdo these tales with those of your own.

If you are this sort of person, you had better think twice before coming to Meredith.) Not that Meredith isn't the finest school at all for mixing business with pleasure; but the point is, that Meredith has an honor system; and it isn't good form to go tearing off on wild and illegal escapades. The faculty has always been very understanding and co-operative when student representatives have approached them about the rules; and they have had confidence enough in the individual student to say that she is on her honor to uphold these regulations.

The Student Government Council (composed of students) has the right at any time to deal with any student, who, not having grown up enough to conduct herself properly, brings discredit on herself or on Meredith. There is no one, however, out snooping to see that you are going where you say you are, or doing what you say you will do. Keeping the rules at Meredith is a matter of one's personal honor, and those who think it is smart or cute to disregard the rules soon find out that they have the respect of neither students nor faculty. As a group, Meredith girls are proud of their honor system. It develops their powers of self-discipline, and it is pleasant to live under. Most important of all, it is working; and with your co-operation, it will continue to work.

LIVE AND LET LIVE

You may not believe it now, but there will be times when you will want to study at college. At practically every waking minute of the day someone in the dormitories will want to study. Therefore, it is a regulation at Meredith that reasonable quiet shall be observed in the dormitories at all times, and that Busy and No Admittance signs be respected.

Special quiet is observed during morning class hours.

Special quiet is also required during evening study hour, from 7:30 to 10:00, on all week nights except Saturday.

This regulation doesn't mean that one begins to scream in the hall or go in and out slamming doors at 7:29 and 10:01. If given to doing either one of these things, you had better consult the school's psychology professor as soon as possible. Also from 2:00 to 4:00 on Sundays, special quiet is observed. No music should be practiced during these quiet hours on Sunday.

Radios, victrolas, or other musical instruments must not be heard outside the room during the hours of special quiet. At no times should they serve as amplifying systems. You intend for such possessions to attract friends into your room; you will defeat your purpose if these friends can remain in their own rooms and hear your music.

Please do not put radios in the windows. Everyone on your side of the building may not like the same type program you do.

Official bedtime for Juniors and Underclassmen is 10:45 p.m. except on Saturday night, when it is 11:45 p.m. Absolute quiet must be observed after these hours, and lights must be turned off unless a light permission is being exercised.

Once a week, if you are unable to study until the last minute, you may keep your light on until 12:00 p.m., provided you sign with your hall proctor. You'd better consult your roommate about the night you want to sit up, because the light permission is given to the room and not to each occupant. Light cuts are observed in one's own room.

When necessary, light permission is granted also to the following:

- A. Members of the Student Government Council, B. S. U. Council, Athletic Board, and Nominating Committee are granted light cuts on the nights of their regular meetings. Assistant hall proctors will be allowed to keep their lights on until 11:30 on the nights of their regular meetings.
- B. Members of a publication staff may have a light cut the night before the publication goes to press.
- C. Manager of the "B-Hive" has unlimited light cuts.

- D. Permission to hold meetings of practices of any nature after light bell or before rising bell is granted only by the Dean of Women.

Though seniors do not have to turn their lights off until 12:00 o'clock, they are expected to remember that there are others on the hall who want to sleep, and that running water does not make a very soothing lullaby. They are also urged for the sake of health not to over-exercise their light privilege.

Those who make unnecessary noise in the halls will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Council.

ENTERTAINING OVERNIGHT GUESTS

Overnight visitors may be entertained in the dormitories for not more than three nights. Be sure that you do not forget these conditions:

1. All overnight visitors should be registered in the office of the Dean of Women upon arrival.
2. To obtain a room for a guest, students must see the House Director.
3. Guests are not expected to enter or to leave the college between 11:30 p.m. and 6:30 a.m.
4. Arrange for meals to be taken by guests with the Dining Room Hostess.

ENTERTAINING IN THE PARLORS

The following things should be remembered when dating in the parlors:

1. Hours for dating in the parlors are as follows:
 - A. Until 10:30 p.m. Sunday through Friday and until 11:30 p.m. on Saturday.
 - B. No dating in the parlors between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. on weekdays except for dinner dates or before 2:00 p.m. on any day of the week except for dinner dates on Sunday.
2. For the convenience of the hostess, girls who have evening dates will register in the hostess' parlor in advance whenever possible.
3. If a boy comes unexpectedly to see a student, she may see him for fifteen minutes, after signing on the sheet in the hostess' parlor. This visit will not count a privilege. More than one fifteen minute date during an evening counts as a regular evening privilege.
4. Dates are not to smoke in the parlors or in any other room on the campus.
5. All girls, including those who are going out for an evening, are to receive and leave their dates in Johnson Hall. Students are to use the doors beside the steps of Johnson Hall when going out or coming in with a date.
6. There is no dating on the campus grounds after 6:00 p.m. except for organized college functions which dates may attend.

The regulations that follow apply to entertaining in the dormitory parlors.

1. Students before dating in the dormitory parlors must sign on the hostess' sheet in Johnson Hall stating the parlor in which they're going to date.

2. Dates should enter the parlors by court doors only.
3. Dates are to be met in the Johnson Hall parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the dormitory parlors by girls; that is, a crowd of boys cannot go to the dormitory without dates.
4. Dates shall leave the dormitory parlors ten minutes before the close of the Johnson Hall parlor in order to leave this parlor on time.
5. Rooms on the court side should have shades drawn whenever girls are dressing.
6. There will be no calling out of windows to boys going to and from the dormitory parlors.
7. The faculty parlor on first floor Vann will not be used by students.

ENTERTAINING IN THE DINING HALL

When you wish to have a guest for a meal you must make arrangements with the hostess of the dining hall. Please note Dining Hall Regulations for the time to make such arrangements and the prices of the meals.

ENTERTAINING IN THE HUT

When you and your date go down to the Hut for a meal or for an evening of fun, you will want to remember the following things:

1. Students may date in the Hut under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples after six p.m.
2. Dates are to be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the Hut by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the Hut without dates.
3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the Hut.
4. Dates shall leave the Hut ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Notices of private parties or public meetings in the Hut shall be posted on the calendar in the office of the Dean of Women two days in advance.
6. Arrangements for the use of the Hut for private parties or public meetings must be made with the House Director at least twenty-four hours in advance if extra dishes are to be used or fires to be laid.
7. Each group using the Hut is responsible for having it cleaned not later than the next day.
8. Regulations to be observed while using the Hut:
 - a. Notify the House Director 24 hours in advance if fires are to be laid or dishes to be used.
 - b. The key for the Hut must be obtained from the office of the Dean of Women only.
 - c. Drapes must not be drawn at any time.

- d. All kitchen equipment must be left clean and in its respective place.
- e. Refrigerator must be left clean and empty.
- f. Stove must be left clean and all units turned off.
- g. No equipment may be taken from the Hut.
- h. Fires must be completely out before leaving the Hut.
- i. All windows must be left locked.
- j. Report any broken or missing equipment to the House Director.
- k. All furniture must be left in order.
- l. The Hut key must be returned to the office of the Dean of Women immediately after use.
- m. Any abuse of Hut property will automatically cancel the privilege of using the Hut for persons responsible.

ENTERTAINING IN THE GYM

For the sake of variety and of good fun, try taking your date to the gym for a quick game of badminton or shuffleboard. If you take us up on it, be sure to remember the following things.

- 1. Students may date in the gym under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples.
- 2. Dates must be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the gym by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the gym without dates.

3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the gym.
4. Dates shall leave the gym ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Students may wear socks when dating in the gym. Students and dates must not wear hard leather soled shoes or black rubber soled shoes in the gym.
6. Students are requested not to take dates into the Bee Hive.
7. Students wishing to use the gym for dating must sign up for it by 5:00 o'clock on the day on which they plan to use it.

ENTERTAINING ON THE CAMPUS

You will enjoy showing your friends and dates our campus in the afternoons before 6:00 p.m. We do not date on the campus after six p.m.

THE INS AND OUTS

When you're going out—which occurs quite often at Meredith, if your studies are not giving you any trouble—and if you want to go out, there are a few little instructions about the matter of registration of which every student needs to be reminded at the beginning of the year.

1. Each student must sign on her own card immediately upon leaving and upon returning to the college. By so doing, she makes it possible for the deans to locate her should unexpected company arrive.

2. When going out, each student signs on her card the name of the persons with whom she is going.
3. When to sign out on the dormitory card:
 - A. When leaving the campus.
 - B. When dating in the parlor or on the campus.
 - C. When horseback riding other than for class.
 - D. When bicycle riding.

Some privileges require permission from home or from the office of the Dean of Women. No student is to exercise a privilege of this kind without first checking on her permission in the office of the Dean of Women. She must, also, in addition to signing her own dormitory card, sign a special permission slip which is filed in a rack in front of the Dean of Women's office. The privileges which call for this type of registration are as follows:

1. All overnight absences from the college.
2. All trips outside the city limits of Raleigh, except to the Drive-In.
3. Any privilege taken by a student when she is chaperoned by persons other than those listed as official chaperones.
4. Any call at a hotel or boarding house unless under the chaperonage of her parents.
5. Any call at a physician's office or hospital for consultation or treatment. Special permission is unnecessary for a student who is accompanying another student.

6. Any call on the campus of State College except to the library, to public functions, and to church on Sunday.
7. Any call at a fraternity house.
8. Any return to the College after regular hours for evening privileges.
9. The use of her car by a teaching senior for purposes other than going to and from the school in which she is teaching.
10. Permission to practice plays or hold meetings of any nature after light bell or before rising bell.

If an emergency arises and a student cannot change or sign her own card, she may telephone the office of the Dean of Women or a member of the Student Government Council and request that the change be made. Only the Dean of Women can sign or change a special permission slip.

WHEN I'M CALLING YOU

Students receive their calls from the telephones on each floor and from the pay telephones on the first floor of each dormitory. There are only three times at which students are asked not to use the telephones. These are the hours from 7:30 to 10:00 every evening except Saturday and Sunday, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Sundays, and from 10:45 in the evening until 7:00 in the morning. Seniors are allowed to use the telephone in their dormitory during study hour.

The peculiar thing about these telephone calls is that as soon as a student has received one, she forgets that about one hundred other girls are just as anxious to get an expected call as she has been. To discourage such forgetfulness, the student body has voted that conversations be limited to five minutes, unless permission has been obtained from the house officer on her hall. Sometimes, in the afternoon, the telephones are not so much in demand. If you and Tommy Jones just must settle that argument you began the night before, tell him to call you then, and not between 10:00 and 10:30. At this time someone, somewhere, is probably trying to call every girl in the dormitory.

If you wish to make a long-distance call or to send a telegram, please use the pay telephones. By getting special permission, you may use the telephone in the office of the Dean of Women. It is wise when you are calling home for a special permission to use the office telephone, but be sure to reverse the charges.

"HAPPY MOTORING"

As riding in automobiles is such a favorite pastime, you will be glad to find that the riding privileges at Meredith are very generous. Before you may exercise any of these privileges, however, a written permission from your home must be approved and filed in the office of the Dean of Women.

A student must have a written permission from home to ride in an airplane.

Freshmen may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and with an official chaperon or older friends or relatives after 6:00 p.m.

Sophomores may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and in groups of two after 6:00 p.m.

Upperclassmen may ride unchaperoned. They may ride in Raleigh with boys in the afternoon and to and from their destination in Raleigh at night.

Riding with strangers is never permitted.

As a safety measure, girls are asked not to ride bicycles on Hillsboro Street.

TO CHAPEL AND TO CHURCH

Attendance at both church and Sunday School is required of all students except seniors (See College Policies). Each girl chooses the church she likes best and attends it regularly. When signing out on her dormitory card, she should indicate the name of the church she is attending. Each student is allowed eight unexcused absences from church and five visiting Sundays per year. A week's campus is the penalty for the ninth unexcused church absence. When the student is away from the college for the day on Sunday and does not attend her church in Raleigh, the absence is unexcused. When she is away for the week-end, the absence is excused. Attending church on Sunday does not count a privilege.

Unless with the hostess with whom she is spending Sunday, or unless for a meal, a student does not go to a drug store on Sunday.

All students are required to attend the chapel exercises held Monday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. Five unexcused chapel absences per semester are granted to each student. All absences, excused and unexcused, are recorded by resident students on their dormitory cards and by non-resident students on chapel attendance cards in the nonresident students' room.

The following absences are excused:

1. Absences taken for supervised teaching.
2. Absences taken to work at the college switchboard.
3. Absences taken by nonresident students who have been excused by the Dean at the beginning of each semester.
4. Absences taken by resident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List who have arranged permission in the office of the Dean of Women to be away from college when taking absences from classes.
5. Absences taken by nonresident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List on days on which they miss all classes.
6. Absences taken in cases deemed exceptional by the Student Government Council.

The following absences count one-third of an absence:

1. Absences taken in the infirmary because of illness.
2. Absences taken at home because of illness.
3. Absences taken because of illness or death in the immediate family (mother, father, brother, sister, grandfather, or grandmother).

A student is given one week's campus for the sixth unexcused chapel absence; an additional week's campus is given for the second of every two additional unexcused absences after the sixth.

CONCERNING DANCING

I. On the campus.

Students do not give dances at Meredith and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus (see p. 5).

II. Off the campus.

- A. A written permission from parents must be presented, giving date, dance, name of escort, and, if a student is staying out of the college for the week-end, the name and address of the hostess.
- B. All students must go directly to the dance and may not leave the dance before it is over except to return to the College.
- C. When attending dances held in Raleigh, students must go from and return to the College. They must be in within an hour after the dance. It is necessary that students make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Women at least forty-eight hours in advance.
- D. When attending dances away from Raleigh, students must make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Women forty-eight hours in advance so that all arrangements may be approved. No student may spend a night in a fraternity house, boarding house, tourist home, or hotel unless under the chaperonage of her mother.
- E. When dances are held outside of Raleigh, students under chaperonage regulations may be allowed to go from and return to the College within an hour after the dance; or they may spend the week-end away from Raleigh if satisfactory arrangements are made in advance with the Dean of Women.

- F. Only girls who are students in residence at Meredith may go from and return to the College.

These special regulations apply only to dances sponsored by an approved organization or institution. The dancing of individual couples in public places is not permitted.

AS OTHERS SEE US

In order to maintain the reputation which Meredith students have for being well-dressed and well-groomed, students are expected to dress appropriately for all occasions.

1. Off campus.

Before six o'clock students are required to wear hats and hose when they go beyond the Varsity Theater. After six o'clock, students should wear hose when going off the campus, except to Wilmont or to the Manmure for bowling. Hats are worn when a student goes out to dinner, to a concert, or to the Little Theatre. It is not necessary for students to wear hose when riding a bicycle. Before October 1 and after May 1, leg makeup may replace hose. Kerchiefs may replace hats if it is raining or snowing when a girl leaves the campus.

2. On campus.

Because students should look well on campus as well as off campus, students are required to wear socks or hose to classes, in Johnson Hall, in the dining hall, and to chapel, except before October 1 and after May 1, when no socks or hose are required. Students are required to wear hose to dinner on Saturday night and on Sunday, except before October 1 and after May 1, when leg makeup may replace hose. Classroom dress is not considered appropriate for Saturday night and Sunday dinners. As an aid to general appearance, resident and nonresident students are not to wear kerchiefs in class, in chapel, or in the dining hall; neither are they to wear gym suits, jodhpurs, slacks, or shorts in Johnson Hall.

CLASS PRIVILEGES

Each student has privileges of the class of which she is a member according to academic classification. For example, a second year student who is a freshman has freshman privileges.

Privileges taken after 6:00 p.m. count as evening privileges. Students may stay out until 10:30 p.m. Sunday through Friday and until 11:30 p.m. on Saturday.

WEEK-ENDS AND OUT-OF-TOWN TRIPS

During her first year at Meredith, a student may not leave the College for an overnight absence or an out-of-town trip without a written permission from parents or guardians. These permissions must be mailed directly to the office of the Dean of Women and must state the destination and dates of departure and return.

After a student has been at Meredith one year, she may use green slips to obtain from the office of the Dean of Women special permission for overnight absences or out-of-town trips, provided that she allow twenty-four hours for her request to be approved or disapproved.

DORMITORY REGULATIONS

I. Dormitory hours.

Except with permission from her hall proctor, every student is to be in her room from light bell to rising bell. To spend the night elsewhere than in one's own room, a student must obtain permission from her hall proctor and must tell the proctor on whose hall she is visiting.

II. Changing of rooms.

- A. No student may change her room or roommate during the first two weeks of school.
- B. Unless an emergency arises all room changes must be completed by the end of the first six weeks of the first semester. Room changes for second semester must be completed during the first two weeks of that semester.
- C. At all times students before making changes must ask permission of the Dean of Women.

COLLEGE CALENDAR

In order to avoid confusion in the college calendar, dates for all meetings which are likely to cause conflict must be arranged with the Dean of Women, whether or not the original permission for the meeting was granted by her. Presidents of all student organizations should register dates of regular and special meetings as far in advance as possible.

Plans for every social event must be approved in the office of the Dean of Women and scheduled on the college calendar. Whenever such an event is sponsored by an organization outside the College, the Dean of Women will post on the bulletin board a notice giving all necessary information.

BULLETIN BOARDS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students are responsible for all announcements made and all notices posted. Bulletin boards should be read each day.

JURISDICTION OF THE COLLEGE

When returning to the College from out of town, students are under the jurisdiction of the College as soon as they enter Raleigh. When students are visiting in the homes of friends in Raleigh, they remain under the regular college rules unless other arrangements are made in the office of the Dean of Women. They are under their hostess' chaperonage only when in her company.

JUST IN CASE!

These penalties are drawn up by the Student Government Council and are subject to change during the session.

- I. Call downs are given for infractions of regulations.
- II. Withdrawal of privileges is given for infractions of regulations. If a student overdraws her privileges for one week, her privileges of that type are automatically withdrawn for the following week.
- III. Campus is given for infractions of regulations or for an accumulation of six call downs.

While on campus, a student is subject to the following restrictions:

1. She may not leave the campus.
2. She may not have dates.
3. She may not receive or make telephone calls.
4. She may not exercise social privileges.

V. Cradle roll or demotion is given when a student is not considered capable of living under an honor code and must therefore be chaperoned by an upperclass Council member wherever she goes. Students who consistently make careless mistakes may become candidates for cradle roll. A. Academic dishonesty.

If a student on academic probation is returned to Council for a similar offense, expulsion will be recommended. If a student on social probation is returned to Council for social violation, suspension or expulsion will be recommended.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

DEAR NEW FRIEND,

When you become a member of our "Meredith fellowship," you also become a member of certain campus organizations, among them the Meredith College Athletic Association. The A.A. is here to help you play; and we sincerely believe that the well-rounded student is able not only to work hard, but also to play hard. We provide a variety of sports activities as well as other means of recreation on the campus and shall welcome any aid or advice you can give us that may help us better to fit your needs. Aside from sports activities, the A.A. sponsors our traditional Palio and Stunt Night, Christmas carolling, a Faculty-Student Playday (which is really informal!), a Corn-Huskin' Bee, and a spring Folk Dance Concert. Sounds like fun? Well, it is, and we hope you won't miss any of it! We'll be looking for you soon.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Every student of Meredith College, upon entering, automatically becomes an active member of the Athletic Association. The A.A. Board, composed of twenty-one members including the managers of the seasonal sports and activities, meets weekly to tackle the task of organizing and coordinating all the extracurricular athletic and recreation activities of the college. The staff members of the Department of Health and Physical Education serve as advisory members of the board.

Major sports sponsored by the A.A. are hockey, soccer, basketball, and softball. Tournaments and playdays in each of these sports climax the seasons. The teams entering the tournaments are class teams or big sister-little sister teams. Sports days are often held with other schools in which the varsity teams, chosen as the most outstanding players participating in the particular sport or sports, take part.

Tennis, badminton, swimming, archery, and golf are the minor sports supervised by the Athletic Association. Individual sports such as hiking, horseshoe, ping-pong, bicycling, riding, and bowling are participated in throughout the school year. The Equitation Group, the Folk Dance Group, and the Monogam Club are under the direction of A.A. and function under the leadership of their own officers.

Medals are awarded at the close of each season to the members of the varsity teams in each of the major sports. A hockey stick is awarded at the end of the hockey season to the freshman who has shown the most teamwork, loyalty, and proficiency in hockey. Special awards for outstanding performance in other organized activities are made by the A.A. Board. A trophy is awarded at the end of the year to the member of the student body who is considered by the Athletic Association Board to have contributed most to athletics during the year.

THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT OF B.S.U.

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

We are eagerly awaiting your arrival at Meredith, for with your arrival begins a new year of opportunities for Christian service, of Christian fellowship and fun, and of worship and praise together. All of us Baptist Student Union members welcome you into our fellowship and pray that you will find your place with us. To make your college life meaningful and purposeful, Christ must be the center and thus the integrating factor in your life. Having found the spirit of Christ in the spirit of the B.S.U., we hope that this spirit may become just as important and indispensable to you through the group and individual activities in which you will be participating soon. May our spiritual lives be deepened as we look to the spirit of Christ for guidance and inspiration.

B. S. U.

Come you college students,
Old and new,
Your minds off clothes and dates awhile,
Let's talk about the B.S.U.

With this silly jingle to clear the atmosphere of all hints of cant, let's look together for a minute or two at an association which calls itself the "religious" organization on our campus. That means it is primarily concerned with the setting forth of a religion, the Christian religion, to be specific, as indispensable in the achievement of satisfaction in life. How does it work? Just listen.

Obviously there must be a special group to outline a plan of procedure. That group we call the Executive Council, members of which are elected in the spring. (They are listed one page back.) In a conference held a few days prior to the opening of school, they meet together to work out a tentative schedule for the year's activities. This includes such things as a freshman transfer party, the primary purpose of which is to initiate the new students into the Baptist Student Union; church welcome services, which usually include suppers for the students, to introduce them to the fun, fellowship, and opportunities for study and training available to them in all of the local churches of Raleigh; Y. W. A. programs, which seek to foster a missionary spirit among students, to awaken them to the needs of the world, and to indicate avenues of service.

Vespers are another big item. Held every week day at 6:45 p.m., they furnish those invaluable moments of quiet and meditation, when tense nerves are relaxed, cluttered minds are cleared, and the peace and calm of the ever-present spirit of God seems to permeate one's entire being. This program is supplemented by Family Altar, which closes the evening as Vespers does the day. Conducted on each dormitory hall, it creates an atmosphere of love and companionship, drawing students closer to one another and to God.

Then weeks of special emphasis are anticipated: one for Vocations, when there are brought to our attention various fields of work open to students for the summer or after graduation; a Religious Emphasis Week, which is a real highlight of the school year. At this time eminent preachers and teachers of the Christian faith come and live on our campus, give stimulating addresses in chapel, lead conferences, and make themselves generally available for discussion of individual and world-wide problems.

Other features of the year's program are monthly birthday parties (held in the dining hall), study courses, monthly chapel programs, inter-collegiate parties, and State conventions and conferences.

Though many of the activities listed take place on the campus, the Baptist Student Union is concerned primarily with securing the participation of the student in the life of one of the local churches, where in the fellowship of kindred minds, she can find strength, direction, and encouragement to strive for the ideal life.

College life is like a diamond given to us in the rough—it is ours to take and keep as dull ore, or ours to shape, to rub off the jagged edges, to transform into a lovely jewel. In our inexperienced hands, perfection will not be possible, but available to everyone of us is the power of an unseen Master, who can guide us as we work, point out the flaws, until in the place of native carbon there shall begin to appear a polished stone, not perfect ever, but marvelously heightened in beauty, reflecting in its highlights something of the radiance of the sun. This is the ideal life, and this is the life the B.S.U. wants for you.

LITTLE THEATRE

BARBARA COX	Treasurer

You may be a competent sportswoman, you may be an enthusiastic newshound, or you may be a glamorous socialite; but, in any event, we hope that you have dramatic aspirations. For on the Meredith campus, there is an organization which will kindle that spark of interest into dramatic ability and stage poise. The Little Theater offers an opportunity for you to gain experience in every phase of dramatic work. If you want to act, you can try out for any of the productions given during the year. If you prefer to be the "power behind the throne," you can work on the staging, properties, make-up, or costuming committees. If you do not want to take an active part at all, you can spur our endeavors on by attending the productions. You don't have to buy a ticket for each production; for when you pay your budget fee in September, you purchase admission to a year's enjoyment of Little Theater performances. We want you to come out for our plays because of a sincere interest in dramatics. We believe that this interest of yours will increase when you learn that students from the neighboring boys' colleges take the male roles in our major productions.

Full-fledged membership in the Little Theater shall be awarded according to the Little Theater point system. Before each production night, a committee of five, including the director of the Little Theater, the president, secretary, and two members appointed by the president, shall determine the number of points to be allotted each applicant, and make its report. One of the exciting features of each production is the announcement of new members. We don't guarantee a Hollywood contract with acting in our plays, but we do guarantee that you will have quantities of fun and gain a good working knowledge of play production.

LITTLE THEATER POINT SYSTEM

- 15-20 points—major role in a long play
- 10-14 points—major role in a short play
- 5-10 points—minor role in a long play
- 2- 6 points—minor role in a short play
- 15-20 points—directing a major play (three acts)
- 10-14 points—directing a short play (one act)
- 0-10 points—work in costuming (making, securing, etc.)
- 0-15 points—work in staging (lighting, properties, construction, etc.)
- 0-10 points—work in publicity (posters, tickets, music, make-up)

Students become pledges when they earn 5 points and are full-fledged members when they earn 25 points.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Student publications make up a great part of the extracurricular activity on any college campus. The school newspaper, the magazine, and the annual are three indispensable factors of a full college life. They not only assure you hours of reading fun, but they preserve the joys of your college life in the permanency of print.

OAK LEAVES

The Oak Leaves is the college annual, the book you spend the year looking forward to. Its purpose is to portray Meredith life in word and picture. There are individual pictures of the girls, group pictures of the organization, views of the buildings and favorite college haunts, to say nothing of the informal snapshots of college life "off parade." You'll love the annual, and if you get a chance, you'll love working on its publication staff. We'll admit the job is hard, but we'll guarantee you'll enjoy it.

The Twig is pretty certain to be at your door every second Saturday of the school year. It is the official college newspaper, ready to keep you informed through articles and pictures about what has been going on around you. Besides straight news, its features, cartoons, humor, and special columns are planned for your amusement and interest. Work on The Twig may seem like play, yet to those who have journalistic ambitions, it offers an opportunity for real newspaper experience. THE ACORN

The Acorn is the college magazine, in which you may see in print all those delightful fancies that you think up while the professor is lecturing on the Crimean War: those sonnets that are inspired in the midst of a sermon on "Where Is Youth Today?" or even the brilliant clue you get to the mystery of Hamlet and don't get a chance to voice before the bell rings.

If, when you look at one of the year's six issues of the Acorn, you think, "Humph! I could beat that myself," just remember it is your own fault if you don't. The Acorn is a student magazine and the contributions you slip into the Acorn office make it what it is.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

You will hear first at Meredith, if you haven't already heard, about the two literary societies, the Astrotekton and the Philaretian. You will be attentively "rushed" the first few weeks at Meredith by members of both of these societies. You will have parties and serenades and you will hear much about the activities and the girls in each. There is the keenest competition between these two societies for the affections of you new girls. Heed an old girl's advice and don't lose your heart too quickly.

Each society has a hall in which monthly meetings are held. Programs at meetings are debates, literary contests, lectures, and social activities of fun and fellowship!

Both societies are looking forward to the arrival of you new girls. Become well acquainted with the activities and members of each before you decide to join ranks with either the Philaretians or the Astrotektons.

In any event, a preview of the nature and pursuits of the various clubs will really make them a coming attraction for you.

HONOR SOCIETIES

KAPPA NU SIGMA

Organized in 1923, Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society aims to promote scholarship at Meredith. Members are admitted into the society on the basis of scholastic standing maintained over a period of at least two years.

At the annual spring meeting new members are received and a roll call of all members made. At this time a scholarship is awarded to the freshman having the highest average in her class.

SILVER SHIELD

The idea of the Silver Shield, an honorary leadership society, originated with members of the Class of 1933, but no definite organization was set up until the spring of 1935. The purpose of the society is to foster a better spirit on the campus and to recognize outstanding girls who have contributed to life at Meredith. Nine new members are selected from each rising and present senior class by the members of the organization and the faculty. The selection is made on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, service to the school, and scholarship.

The Silver Shield sponsors a record room, which is located on the second floor of Stringfield Hall. In the record room are filed club constitutions and records of club activities, college and class songs, college and class traditions, and other materials needed for reference by students.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

In May, 1938, the Eta Nu chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, was installed with eleven members. The Little Theater was proud to have placed the first national honorary society on the Meredith campus.

The Alpha Psi Omega in no way displaces the Little Theater, for it is not a producing organization. Its function is to give recognition to those girls who excel in dramatic endeavor. Any Little Theater member who earns at least fifty points, is eligible for membership.

OUR TRADITIONS

TRADITIONS

LAVENDER AND OLD LACE

Sometimes the girls of today stop and join hands across the years with the girls of yesterday, by carrying on traditions which are a part of Meredith. Some of these belong to the respective classes, some to the "odd" and "even" years, and some to all Meredith Girls.

FOR ALL THE SCHOOL

The first of these traditions that belong to all the girls is "Decision Day" for the societies, with new girls as guests of honor. This day comes early in the fall and climaxes a period of competitive "rushing" for the affections of the new girls. The excitement begins in the early morning with breakfast. Two important newcomers seen on the campus are the "Phi" bear and the "Astro" goat. If you know where your heart lies by 7:30 a.m., tradition says that you enter the dining room door on which your society colors fly. After chapel in the auditorium you lose that feminine privilege of changing your mind, for there you choose between the two societies.

Closely following "Decision Day" is the initiation of the "Baby Astros" and the installation service for the "Baby Phis." This week-end is closed for visiting, but you will not wish to leave anyway.

The Saturday in early fall on which Palio and the class stunts are held is a red letter day at Meredith. Palio, an adaption of the ancient festival in Siena, is a unique tradition at Meredith. Each class vies with the others in parades up the front drive, the formation of class numerals, horse races, bicycle races, the frolicking of clowns, and original class songs. The class winning the parade is awarded the Palio banner; the class having the largest number of members participating in Palio wins reserved seats for the stunts.

In the evening, each class gives an original stunt, and to the winning class is awarded a silver loving cup.

For the night before the Christmas holidays begin, the Student Government Council, aided by the other campus organizations, arranges a party, usually a formal dinner. Later on that same night, or sometimes early the next morning, the whole student body goes caroling.

May Day is celebrated the first Saturday in May. A May queen, aided by her maid-of-honor and court, presides over the day. The queen and maid-of-honor are elected by popular vote of the student body. Each class elects two May court attendants. It is customary for a girl to be in the May Court only once unless she is elected May queen or maid-of-honor.

On May Day morning, the queen is serenaded by the sophomores and later honored by them at breakfast. In the May Day fete, the queen carries an arm bouquet of iris, the college flower.

On the week-end of May Day, high school seniors are invited to the college for Hospitality Week-end.

Once in every college generation, the members of the faculty present for the students Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland.

In the spring, the societies compete in presenting plays. The Little Theater, as sponsor of the plays, gives a cup to the winning society. If a society wins three consecutive years, the cup becomes a permanent possession of that society. The Freshman Class also presents a play on this night.

Each spring the Athletic Association sponsors a faculty-student play day. A duke, elected by the student body from the faculty, and a duchess, elected by the student body from the student body, reign over the events of the day. No afternoon classes are held, and games are played between the faculty and students during the afternoon. The day ends with a picnic in the court.

On the Sunday afternoon of commencement week-end, students of all the classes, dressed in white, gather on the steps of Johnson Hall for singing.

FOR THE CLASSES

In addition to the traditions that belong to everyone, there are those which the respective classes possess. On entering Meredith new girls find that they have a heritage to accept and hand down as the years go by.

As freshmen, they entertain in the spring their "Big Sisters" at a breakfast at the Chimney; and on a chosen gala night, they entertain themselves at a class party in one of the society halls.

As sophomores, they find that spring again is a season of traditions. All the sophomores hail "Soph Day Off," which means for them a day of special recognition. They are honored at a breakfast in the morning, and in the evening, they have a class party. It is a red letter day for the second-year class. Then, when May Day comes, the sophomores sing to the May Queen early in the morning, again at breakfast on the day that she will reign on the campus, and during the May Day ceremony. Another big event is Class Day. Every sophomore looks forward to this with eagerness. On this day they make the traditional daisy chain from the thousands of daisies that they have picked early that morning. They do have to arise early, but going on that sunrise daisy-picking excursion is something one can't afford to miss. Be sure to catch the 5:00 o'clock truck bound for the daisy field near Raleigh. At the Class Day exercises that afternoon, the sophomores carry this daisy chain and sing to their "Big Sisters." They then march to Johnson Hall and form their class numerals on the steps.

As juniors, they find that they are especially lucky in "hand-me-downs." The first and the best tradition they have is the adoption of "Little Sisters" from the Freshman Class. Each junior has a "Little Sister" of her own, and they all agree that it's a wonderful addition to the family.

The juniors aid the freshmen in their election of a president and an adviser. In the spring, when the young men's fancies have lightly turned to thoughts of love, the juniors give a banquet in honor of the seniors. For months in advance, they plan the menu and the decorations; for this affair happens only twice in a lifetime. During commencement, the juniors delight in serving the seniors in another way. For the Class Day exercises they decorate the posts with Senior Class colors for the daisy chain.

The seniors, too, look forward to the spring and to the banquet given to them by the juniors; for it is the greatest social event of the year. On May Day, the seniors invite the President of the College to breakfast with the May Queen in the dining room. They sing to him and present him a basket of flowers. Commencement week is a time when the seniors carry on many Meredith customs. One night at a grudge bonfire, they burn the article they have disliked most at Meredith, so that it will never spoil their memories of Meredith. On Sunday before Commencement, seniors conduct the vesper service. On Sunday afternoon during commencement, the seniors form their class numerals on the steps of Johnson Hall, and, singing "The Queen of Our Hearts," march off into the grove to elect their permanent class officers.

FOR THE "ODDS" AND "EVENS"

Besides the general traditions and those belonging to the individual classes, there are the "even" and "odd" set of traditions. "Even girls" are those who graduate in even years, for instance 1942-1944. "Odd girls" graduate in uneven years, for instance 1941-43. You who are entering as freshmen this year will be "even girls." Whichever you are, you are counted lucky.

"Hail to the Even Spirit" will doubtless be the first of this set of traditions to greet you. This song was written in answer to "These Bones," the "odd" song. The colors of all but the Leap Year classes are green and white. In its junior year, every Leap Year class takes purple and gold. In your sophomore year, you will learn that green stockings are worn as a mark of distinction on "Soph Day Off." Also in your sophomore year, you will put May baskets on the doors of your "Big Sisters'" rooms. To a senior or a sophomore this traditional rite is lots of fun. The last of the "even" traditions pertains especially to the seniors. During commencement, seniors have a candlelight service at the fountain. Surprising information often comes to light at this service, for all seniors engaged to be married walk backwards around the fountain while their uncommitted classmates go in the usual fashion.

"Odd" traditions are exciting too. Their song is "These Bones," and a black glove worn on the left hand as symbolic of the odd spirit. The odd classes have a red devil as mascot. Their colors through the sophomore year are blue and white, and in their junior and senior years they take the rainbow colors.

MUSIC IN THE BREEZE

Singing is a widespread custom at Meredith. During that first week here the new girls launch forth with our ever beautiful ALMA MATER. We urge new girls to learn this song as early as possible. Be a singing angel on the campus—give, with me'ody!

ALMA MATER

1. We sa-lute thee, Al-ma Ma-ter, we sa-lute thee with a song,
 2. Thou hast come thro' trib-u-la-tion and thy robe is clean and white,
 3. In thy path the fields shall blos-som and the des-ert shall re-joice,
 4. Where the rho-do-den-dron blush-es on the bur-ly mountain's breast,
 5. Where the sons of Car-o-li-na taught a na-tion to be free,

At thy feet our loy-al hearts their trib-ute lay;
 Thou art fair-er than the sum-mer in its bloom.
 In the wil-der-ness a liv-ing foun-tain spring;
 In the mid-land, where the wild deer love to roam;
 And her daugh-ters taught their broth-ers to be brave;

We had wait-ed for thy com-ing in the dark-ness, wait-ed long,
 Thou art born un-to a king-dom and thy crown is all of light;
 For the blind shall see thy beau-ty and the deaf shall hear thy voice,
 Where the wa-ter-lil-y elum-bere, while the cy-press guards its rest—
 O'er a land of peace-ful plen-ty, from the high-lands to the sea,

Ere the morn-ing star pro-claimed thy na-tal day.
 Thou shalt smile a-way the shad-ow and the gloom.
 And the si-lent tongue their high-ho-san-nas sing.
 Lo, thy sun-ny land of prom-ise and thy home.
 May thy ban-ner, Al-ma Ma-ter, ev-er wave.

R. T. Voss

ALMA MATER

We salute thee, Alma Mater, we salute thee with
a song;

At thy feet our loyal hearts their tribute lay;
We had waited for thy coming, in the darkness
waited long,

Ere the morning star proclaimed thy natal day.
Thou hast come through tribulation, and thy robe is clean and white!

Thou art fairer than the summer in its bloom.
Thou art born unto a kingdom, and thy crown is
all of light;

Thou shalt smile away the shadow and the gloom.

In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert
shall rejoice,

In the wilderness a living fountain spring;
For the blind shall see thy beauty and the deaf
shall hear thy voice,

And the silent tongue their high hosannas sing.
Where the rhododendron blushes on the burly
mountain's breast,

In the midland where the wild deer love to roam,

Where the water lily slumbers while the cypress
guards its rest,

Lo! thy sunny land of promise and thy home.
Where the sons of Carolina taught a Nation to be free,

And her daughters taught their brothers to be brave;

O'er a land of peaceful plenty, from the highlands to the sea,

May thy banner, Alma Mater, ever wave!

DEDICATION HYMN

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

We work together in Thy sight,
We live together in Thy love;
Guide Thou our falt'ring steps aright,
And lift our thoughts to heav'n above.

Hold Thou each hand to keep it just,
Touch Thou our lips and make them pure;
If Thou art with us, Lord, we must
Be faithful friends and comrades sure.

We change, but Thou art still the same,
The same good Master, Teacher, Friend;
We change; but, Lord, we bear Thy name,
To journey with it to the end.

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

Music by RUSSELL BROUGHTON

the Meredith College Choir.)

All amendments to a constitution must also be presented to the Committee before adoption by the organization. III. LIBRARY REGULATIONS

During the college year the library is open on weekdays from 8:15 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The library will be closed during chapel periods.

Circulation—

Students may borrow general books for two weeks, or for a shorter period, determined by the demand for the book. At the expiration of two weeks, books may be renewed for two weeks, provided that they are not needed by other persons. Any book may be recalled by the librarian when needed in the library.

Books must not be taken from the library until they have been charged at the desk. All books taken out of the library must be returned to one of the library assistants or left on the desk.

The person who borrows a book is responsible for it until the record of its return is complete.

A fine of two cents will be charged for each day that a general book is kept out overtime. Notices are sent as soon as possible after the book is due.

How to Borrow a Book for Use Outside the Library

1. Consult the card catalogue.
Look for the book you want by its author, title, or subject, as you would for a word in a dictionary or a name in a telephone directory.
2. When you have located the card for the book you want, copy the complete call number. (It always appears in the upper left corner of the catalogue card.) Slips are kept on top of the card catalogue for this purpose.
3. Go to the stack room for the book.
4. Take the book to the circulation desk, sign your full name and room number on the book cards in the back of the book, and have it properly charged there.

How to Borrow a Book for Use in the Library

Follow procedures 1, 2, and 3 as given above. Take the book to the circulation desk and sign for it on the white reading room slip. Fill out all the information asked for on the white slip. When you are through with the book, return it at the circulation desk and claim your white slip.

Reserve Reading Room

This room is dedicated to study and is reserved for those who wish to use reserve books and bound periodicals. Books are assembled here at the request of the members of the faculty to provide material for required reading in connection with class assignments. The books are grouped alphabetically by author under each subject. The essential rules governing the use of reserve books are given here; hence ignorance of them is no excuse.

1. Go directly to the shelves and get the books for yourself. (Not more than two at a time.)
2. Sign the orange cards. (Full name and hour.)
3. Leave cards at the desk.
4. Books may be used for a period of two hours. They may be renewed for an additional two-hour period if not needed by another student.
5. When you have finished with the books, claim cards at the desk and return the books to proper places on the shelves.
6. One-half hour before closing time reserve books may be charged out for overnight use. Sign full name and room number on the orange card.
7. Books taken out for overnight use must be returned at the desk in the reserve room by 8:30 a.m. the next day the library is open.
8. A fine of ten cents will be charged for each hour a reserve book is kept out overtime.

9. Reserve books are not to be taken to other parts of the building.
10. Please be as quiet as possible when using this room so as not to disturb the other students who wish to study.

Stack Room

Regulations in regard to the use of this room:

1. Here, as elsewhere in the library, we ask that you move around quietly and refrain from conversation.
2. Do not carry your books into the stack room. These may be left on the small unit of shelving at the door.
3. You are not to remain in the stack room to study.
4. Leave turned down on the shelves any books that you may remove to examine.
5. In order that the right person may get the right book at the right time, it is absolutely necessary that the books be in proper order according to the classification numbers. Please help us keep them this way.

The classification numbers for the books shelved in a section are marked on the ends of each section. If you have difficulty in finding desired books, the assistant on duty at the desk will be glad to help you.

Magazines

Current magazines and newspapers are kept in the periodical room. They are arranged in alphabetical order.

Bound magazines are arranged in alphabetical order on the shelves at the rear end of the reserve room.

Back issues of unbound magazines should be called for at the circulation desk.

A complete file of the magazines in our library is kept at the circulation desk.

Magazines must be used in the library. They do not circulate.

Interlibrary Loan

The library will borrow for you, from other libraries, books needed for special assignments. You should, however, first exhaust the resources of our library. If material is still needed, you should then present a written request from the professor under whom you are working.

All requests for permission to get books from other libraries in the city must be handed in to the librarian by 11:30 a.m. of the day on which the book is wanted. Give title and author of the book, and also the call number, if possible. Do not ask for more than two books at the same time.

The charge for postage on interlibrary loans is to be paid by the borrower.

Additional Information

Fiction is shelved in the alcove to the right of the rotunda.

The North Carolina Collection, Modern Language Collection, and International Relations Club library are in the alcove to the left of the rotunda.

Students found with missing library books in their possession will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Government Council.

It is well to remember that library regulations, in general, are made not for the convenience of the staff, but to protect your interests by giving all of you, as far as it is possible, equal privileges. To return books when due, to refrain from conversation in reading rooms where others are at work, to handle books even more carefully than if they were one's own—these are acts of courtesy which are appreciated by all who use the library.

IV. HEALTH REGULATIONS

1. The blue blank containing a record of pre-entrance physical examination must be in the possession of the Health Service before matriculation.
2. Annual physical re-check of all students is required. For new students, it is scheduled on the orientation program.

6:45 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

4. Appointments with physicians are made only through the Infirmary. Such appointments are not considered day privileges. When signing out, use special permission slips.

 - (a) The Health Service alone is responsible for the diagnosis and treatment of any illness.
 - (b) No sick girl is to stay in her room.

8. Students may not display pictures or pennants on the walls of their rooms by the use of any form of adhesive material.

The price for formal and Sunday dinners is sixty-five cents; the price for all other meals is forty cents. Girls who have cafeteria guests must pay the cashier or the hostess of dining room before leaving the cafeteria. Girls who have dinner guests must pay when arrangements are made with the hostess of the dining room. Alumnae tickets may be obtained from the alumnae office without charge.

The Board of Trustees approves the adoption and operation by the faculty and the student body of what is commonly known as student government, subject, however, to the following limitations:

1. The following matters are reserved from student control, and as to these the faculty and the officers of the college shall have control:

- a. All academic matters.
- b. All matters affecting the health of the students.
- c. Chapel programs.
- d. Organization of the clubs and societies.
- e. Control of college property.

2. To the President, to the Dean, and to the Dean of Women, with their respective committees, is reserved the right to handle special cases of discipline which in their judgment can best be handled in this way; subject to the right of the Trustees to review the same, if they so desire.

3. The Trustees reserve all powers and authority not hereinbefore specifically granted to others, and reserve the right to modify or repeal this grant of authority at any time in their discretion.

DEAR NEW MEREDITH GIRL,

Before long you'll be here with us—meeting new people, participating in unforgettable “bull sessions,” learning what it means to live in a college community such as ours. The Student Government Association welcomes you to our campus. We are looking forward to having you as a part of our family, for we know that your lives will help strengthen the Christian spirit which we are trying to foster.

TO BE ELECTED.....	Freshman Representative

The Operation of Student Government

New regulations or changes in regulations may arise either in the Student Council and go to the student body and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the top arrows show, or such legislation may arise in the student body and go to the Student Council and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the bottom arrows show. Regulations or changes must be passed by all three bodies before becoming effective. If the change is in a college policy, it must be passed by the Board of Trustees.

THE HONOR CODE

All life at Meredith is based upon the honor code, which is drawn up and defined by the students of the college.

The honor code means that:

Each student is expected to be honest and truthful at all times.

Each student is personally responsible for her own conduct, for her obligations to the college community, and for informing herself of and for abiding by the college regulations. If a student breaks a regulation, she is expected to correct her offense by reporting herself to the proper authorities: in an academic matter, to the instructor concerned; in an administrative matter, to the officer of administration concerned; and in a student government matter, to an upperclass member of the Student Government Council.

A student is responsible for seeing that the honor code is carried out at all times. If she is aware of a violation of the code by another student, it is her duty to see that the offender reports the violation.

The honor code is violated when a student is dishonest or untruthful, when a student fails to report herself for a rule infraction, or when a student fails to correct a violation of the code by another student.

Three basic principles underlie the honor code: at all times, a student shows absolute integrity, fulfills her community obligations, and assumes responsibility for her fellow citizens in the community. The students of Meredith have adopted and agreed to live by this honor code because they believe it to be the basis of successful and effective self-government.

FRESHMAN AND TRANSFER COUNSELORS

These are the girls with whom you will probably first become acquainted. They will be on hand to help you in any way possible. You've probably already heard from your counselor, but maybe you do not as yet know what she looks like. Find her in the picture, and then introduce yourself to her when you get to Meredith if she doesn't recognize you first.

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

You are now embarking on a new, exciting life—that of being a college student. We, the counselors at Meredith want to welcome you to our campus. We are to help and guide you through your freshman year. Sometime in the late summer you will receive a letter from your counselor telling you some things that you will need to know before coming. When you arrive in September, you will find us ready to assist you in any way possible.

HELEN BRUNSON
Chief Counselor

YOUR COLLEGE WARDROBE

Your college days are days of laughter and days of work . . . gay times that will be more gay if you dress to fit the mood. The keynote to a good college wardrobe is simplicity, with an eye to quality, style, and unity. Quantity is no main feature, but appropriateness is.

OPEN A CLOSET DOOR

in any dorm and see what you find on the hangers . . .

For Class: Tailored dresses, skirts with blouses or sweaters to match, and suits are worn to class.

For Church: A dress or suit with suitable accessories for Sunday, including hat, purse, gloves, and heels.

For Plays, Concerts, and Lectures: Same as for church.

For Formal or Semi-formal Occasions: Long dinner dress or formal evening dress.

For Sports: If you are planning to do some horse-back riding, you'll want to bring jodhpurs. The regulation clothes for physical education classes must be purchased on the campus. For tennis, bring tennis shoes and racket.

Some Special Suggestions:

Black dresses are very serviceable because of their adaptability to numerous occasions. One white dress is necessary for Commencement week-end.

Several cotton outfits come in well early and late in the school year.

A suitable rain outfit, including a raincoat, boots, umbrella and hat or kerchief, is a desirable addition to your wardrobe.

Color is a key to your personality, so make yourself comfortable in cheerful clothes of good style and good taste.

YOUR NEW HOME

A knock . . . "Come In" . . . and when the door is opened, your personality is on display.

YOUR NEW HOME

is your first college opportunity to present yourself to your classmates as an attractive personality. Consulting your roommate, see what ideas the following information about your new home affords.

Your Room

is 11 x 16 feet. The walls are cream-colored and each room has two closets, two single beds, one study table, two straight back chairs, one rocking chair, one dresser, one bookcase, one floor lamp, one wall light and an overhead light.

Your Windows

are two in number and they are 75" in length by 37" in width, except the windows in the rooms numbered 114, 115, 218, 219, 318, and 319 in all dormitories, which measure 97" in length and 37" in width.

Your Beds

are 81" long, 39" wide, and 27" from the floor. Each girl brings her own bedding; because of possible laundry delay, it is advisable to have about four to six sheets. You will want to bring two or three dresser scarfs and pillow cases.

THIS 'N THAT

GAME ROOM

When dating, or just for those minutes of relaxation you'll have for your own personal enjoyment, the game room will supply you with reading material, records, dominoes, Chinese checkers, caroms, monopoly, and other games of interest. It's yours to enjoy, and it's ready for use any time at your convenience. You'll find it across the hall from the Dean of Women's office in Vann Dormitory.

KITCHENETTES

On those cold nights when you crave that hot bowl of soup, or some fudge, our kitchenettes will serve this desire. Equipped with the regular kitchen materials, you and your friends will have a lot of fun "eating out" once in awhile. These kitchenettes are located on the first floor of each dormitory and are ready for use at any time.

PRESSING ROOMS

Just installed are five brand new Bendix machines that will wash a big laundry, for only twenty-five cents, while you can be out doing something else. The pressing room also has ironing boards, irons, and a sewing machine for your own personal use.

PARLORS

In Johnson Hall are two very large parlors, called by their characteristic colors, the Rose and the Blue parlors. These are used for dating, entertaining your family and friends, and for your receptions. On the first floor of each dormitory there are smaller parlors that are used for meetings, parties, and for dating. These are popular when you and your date wish to study together, or when you would like to listen to the radio or play a few records. All of the parlors are open for use by any student except the parlor on first floor Vann, which is reserved for faculty use.

HUT

A typical log cabin, ideally located, is one of the prettiest sights on our campus. Two big fireplaces, ping-pong equipment, a brand new electric stove, refrigerator, and kitchen utensils are just a few of the niceties you and your friends and dates will find when you go there to cook a meal, play games, or enjoy a quiet evening by the fire. The Hut may be used for parties, dating, and various club meetings. Keys are obtained from the Office of the Dean of Women.

STUDENT BANK

For your convenience and for the safety of your money the school provides a student bank at the Bursar's Office. Here you may deposit checks and money to your account and withdraw money as you need it. The office hours are from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. The office is closed during chapel services.

ROOM CHECK

Just to see what a good housekeeper you are, the house director and her assistants check your room twice a week. At the end of the month she posts the "A" and "B" grades. Have your name on the list every time.

SPORTS

You are urged to engage in some type or types of sports while you are here at Meredith. Tennis courts are located beside Stringfield and Vann Dormitories. The stables and riding ring are just beyond the tennis courts. Students who wish to ride and are not enrolled in horseback riding classes may pay a small fee and ride in the afternoon. The gym provides for badminton and shuffleboard. During the spring, students interested in obtaining a life-saving certificate may do so by joining a swimming class.

LECTURES

Meredith's lecture committee secures noted persons to speak to our college community each year. The Kappa Nu Sigma sponsors another lecture in the spring. You'll find these lectures interesting and informative.

CIVIC MUSIC CONCERTS, POP CONCERTS, AND OTHER ATTRACTIONS

Since Raleigh is the capital of North Carolina, Meredith students have many opportunities to visit the Legislature, and government departments as well as the State Library, State Museum, and the Hall of History.

Civic Music Concerts which compose varied programs of the most desirable type in the field of music are made available to students of Meredith College. Special buses are provided for the trip to the auditorium, and the college assumes a portion of the initial cost of the season tickets in order to encourage student membership. You'll want to get a ticket. They are too good to miss.

The Raleigh Pop Concert Series brings interesting artists from all parts of the country, and local organizations sponsor other musical programs which include modern dance groups, ballets, and others. Tickets for these concerts can usually be obtained from one of the music stores down town.

RALEIGH LITTLE THEATRE

The Raleigh Little Theatre presents current Broadway dramas in which only local actors and actresses take part. Memberships in the Raleigh Little Theatre may be bought during the first semester.

WILMONT

Wilmont is a small business district which is within walking distance of the Meredith campus. There are several dry cleaners, grocery stores, drug stores, etc., which you will enjoy.

STUDENT REGULATIONS

COLLEGE POLICIES

Students are not allowed to smoke on the Meredith College campus, except that (1) resident students may smoke in dormitory bedrooms and that (2) non-resident students may smoke in one of the rooms set aside for them in Johnson Hall.

Students do not give dances at Meredith, and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus.

Students do not drink intoxicants while under the jurisdiction of the College.

All students are required to attend chapel exercises held Monday through Friday.

Students do not have social sororities of any name or kind on the campus, whether national or local, affiliated or unaffiliated with a similar organization elsewhere. The punishment for this offense will be probation or expulsion.

OUR WAY OF DOING IT

You may be one of those imaginative persons who have always cherished romantic ideas about college. Your favorite brother or sister, or parent even, has told you wild and exciting tales about his or her reckless escapades in college. And you are already looking forward to Thanksgiving when you can outdo these tales with those of your own.

If you are this sort of person, you had better think twice before coming to Meredith. Not that Meredith isn't the finest school at all for mixing business with pleasure; but the point is, that Meredith has an honor system; and it isn't good form to go tearing off on wild and illegal escapades. The faculty has always been very understanding and co-operative when student representatives have approached them about the rules; and they have had confidence enough in the individual student to say that she is on her honor to uphold these regulations.

The Student Government Council (composed of students) has the right at any time to deal with any student, who, not having grown up enough to conduct herself properly, brings discredit on herself or on Meredith. There is no one, however, out snooping to see that you are going where you say you are, or doing what you say you will do. Keeping the rules at Meredith is a matter of one's personal honor, and those who think it is smart or cute to disregard the rules soon find out that they have the respect of neither students nor faculty. As a group, Meredith girls are proud of their honor system. It develops their powers of self-discipline, and it is pleasant to live under. Most important of all, it is working; and with your co-operation, it will continue to work.

LIVE AND LET LIVE

You may not believe it now, but there will be times when you will want to study at college. At practically every waking minute of the day someone in the dormitories will want to study. Therefore, it is a regulation at Meredith that reasonable quiet shall be observed in the dormitories at all times, and that Busy and No Admittance signs be respected.

Special quiet is observed during morning class hours.

Special quiet is also required during evening study hour, from 7:30 to 10:00, on all week nights except Saturday.

This regulation doesn't mean that one begins to scream in the hall or go in and out slamming doors at 7:29 and 10:01. If given to doing either one of these things, you had better consult the school's psychology professor as soon as possible. Also from 2:00 to 4:00 on Sundays, special quiet is observed. No music should be practiced during these quiet hours on Sunday.

Radios, victrolas, or other musical instruments must not be heard outside the room during the hours of special quiet. At no times should they serve as amplifying systems. You intend for such possessions to attract friends into your room; you will defeat your purpose if these friends can remain in their own rooms and hear your music.

Please do not put radios in the windows. Everyone on your side of the building may not like the same type program you do.

Official bedtime for Juniors and Underclassmen is 10:45 p.m. except on Saturday night, when it is 11:45 p.m. Absolute quiet must be observed after these hours, and lights must be turned off unless a light permission is being exercised.

Once a week, if you are unable to study until the last minute, you may keep your light on until 12:00 p.m., provided you sign with your hall proctor. You'd better consult your roommate about the night you want to sit up, because the light permission is given to the room and not to each occupant. Light cuts are observed in one's own room.

When necessary, light permission is granted also to the following:

- A. Members of the Student Government Council, B. S. U. Council, Athletic Board, and Nominating Committee are granted light cuts on the nights of their regular meetings. Assistant hall proctors will be allowed to keep their lights on until 11:30 on the nights of their regular meetings.
- B. Members of a publication staff may have a light cut the night before the publication goes to press.
- C. Manager of the "B-Hive" has unlimited light cuts.
- D. Permission to hold meetings of practices of any nature after light bell or before rising bell is granted only by the Dean of Women.

Though seniors do not have to turn their lights off until 12:00 o'clock, they are expected to remember that there are others on the hall who want to sleep, and that running water does not make a very soothing lullaby. They are also urged for the sake of health not to over-exercise their light privilege.

Those who make unnecessary noise in the halls will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Council.

ENTERTAINING OVERNIGHT GUESTS

Overnight visitors may be entertained in the dormitories for not more than three nights. Be sure that you do not forget these conditions:

1. All overnight visitors should be registered in the office of the Dean of Women upon arrival.
2. To obtain a room for a guest, students must see the House Director.
3. Guests are not expected to enter or to leave the college between 11:30 p.m. and 6:30 a.m.
4. Arrange for meals to be taken by guests with the Dining Room Hostess.

ENTERTAINING IN THE PARLORS

The following things should be remembered when dating in the parlors:

1. Hours for dating in the parlors are as follows:
 - A. Until 10:30 p.m. Sunday through Friday and until 11:30 p.m. on Saturday.
 - B. No dating in the parlors between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. on weekdays except for dinner dates or before 2:00 p.m. on any day of the week except for dinner dates on Sunday.
2. Girls who date in dorm parlors are to sign up with the parlor hostess, stating name and parlor in which they are dating.

3. If a boy comes unexpectedly to see a student, she may see him for fifteen minutes, after signing on the sheet in the hostess' parlor. This visit will not count a privilege. More than one fifteen minute date during an evening counts as a regular evening privilege.
4. Dates are not to smoke in the parlors or in any other room on the campus.
5. All girls, including those who are going out for an evening, are to receive and leave their dates in Johnson Hall. Students are to use the doors beside the steps of Johnson Hall when going out or coming in with a date.
6. There is no dating on the campus grounds after 6:00 p.m. except for organized college functions which dates may attend.

The regulations that follow apply to entertaining in the dormitory parlors.

1. Students before dating in the dormitory parlors must sign on the hostess' sheet in Johnson Hall stating the parlor in which they're going to date.
2. Dates should enter the parlors by court doors only.
3. Dates are to be met in the Johnson Hall parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the dormitory parlors by girls; that is, a crowd of boys cannot go to the dormitory without dates.
4. Dates shall leave the dormitory parlors ten minutes before the close of the Johnson Hall parlor in order to leave this parlor on time.

5. Rooms on the court side should have shades drawn whenever girls are dressing.
6. There will be no calling out of windows to boys going to and from the dormitory parlors.
7. The faculty parlor on first floor Vann will not be used by students.

ENTERTAINING IN THE DINING HALL

When you wish to have a guest for a meal you must make arrangements with the hostess of the dining hall. Please note Dining Hall Regulations for the time to make such arrangements and the prices of the meals.

ENTERTAINING IN THE HUT

When you and your date go down to the Hut for a meal or for an evening of fun, you will want to remember the following things:

1. Students may date in the Hut under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples after six p.m.
2. Dates are to be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the Hut by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the Hut without dates.
3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the Hut.
4. Dates shall leave the Hut ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Notices of private parties or public meetings in the Hut shall be posted on the calendar in the office of the Dean of Women two days in advance.

6. Arrangements for the use of the Hut for private parties or public meetings must be made with the House Director at least twenty-four hours in advance if extra dishes are to be used or fires to be laid.
7. Each group using the Hut is responsible for having it cleaned not later than the next day.
8. Regulations to be observed while using the Hut:
 - a. Notify the House Director 24 hours in advance if fires are to be laid or dishes to be used.
 - b. The key for the Hut must be obtained from the office of the Dean of Women only.
 - c. Drapes must not be drawn at any time.
 - d. All kitchen equipment must be left clean and in its respective place.
 - e. Refrigerator must be left clean and empty.
 - f. Stove must be left clean and all units turned off.
 - g. No equipment may be taken from the Hut.
 - h. Fires must be completely out before leaving the Hut.
 - i. All windows must be left locked.
 - j. Report any broken or missing equipment to the House Director.

- k. All furniture must be left in order.
- l. The Hut key must be returned to the office of the Dean of Women immediately after use.
- m. Any abuse of Hut property will automatically cancel the privilege of using the Hut for persons responsible.

ENTERTAINING IN THE GYM

For the sake of variety and of good fun, try taking your date to the gym for a quick game of badminton or shuffleboard. If you take us up on it, be sure to remember the following things.

1. Students may date in the gym under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples.
2. Dates must be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the gym by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the gym without dates.
3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the gym.
4. Dates shall leave the gym ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Students may wear socks when dating in the gym. Students and dates must not wear hard leather soled shoes or black rubber soled shoes in the gym.
6. Students are requested not to take dates into the Bee Hive.
7. Students wishing to use the gym for dating must sign up for it by 5:00 o'clock on the day on which they plan to use it.

ENTERTAINING ON THE CAMPUS

You will enjoy showing your friends and dates our campus in the afternoons before 6:00 p.m. We do not date on the campus after six p.m.

THE INS AND OUTS

When you're going out—which occurs quite often at Meredith, if your studies are not giving you any trouble—and if you want to go out, there are a few little instructions about the matter of registration of which every student needs to be reminded at the beginning of the year.

1. Each student must sign on her own card immediately upon leaving and upon returning to the college. By so doing, she makes it possible for the deans to locate her should unexpected company arrive. Dorm cards are filled out on a weekly basis and should be turned over or turned in to the hall proctor by 6:00 p.m. every Monday.
2. When going out, each student signs on her card the name of the persons with whom she is going.
3. When to sign out on the dormitory card:
 - A. When leaving the campus.
 - B. When dating in the parlor or on the campus.
 - C. When horseback riding other than for class.
 - D. When bicycle riding.

Some privileges require permission from home or from the office of the Dean of Women. No student is to exercise a privilege of this kind without first checking on her permission in the office of the Dean of Women. She must, also, in addition to signing her own dormitory card, sign a special permission slip which is filed in a rack in front of the Dean of Women's office. The privileges which call for this type of registration are as follows:

1. All overnight absences from the college.
2. All trips outside the city limits of Raleigh, except to the "Drive-In Grill" on the Wake Forest Road.
3. Any privilege taken by a student when she is chaperoned by persons other than those listed as official chaperones.
4. Any call at a hotel or boarding house unless under the chaperonage of her parents.
5. Any call at a physician's office or hospital for consultation or treatment. Special permission is unnecessary for a student who is accompanying another student.
6. Any call on the campus of State College except to the library, to public functions, and to church on Sunday.
7. Any call at a fraternity house.
8. Any return to the College after regular hours for evening privileges.
9. The use of her car by a teaching senior for purposes other than going to and from the school in which she is teaching.
10. Permission to practice plays or hold meetings of any nature after light bell or before rising bell.

If an emergency arises and a student cannot change or sign her own card, she may telephone the office of the Dean of Women or a member of the Student Government Council and request that the change be made. Only the Dean of Women can sign or change a special permission slip.

WHEN I'M CALLING YOU

Students receive their calls from the telephones on each floor and from the pay telephones on the first floor of each dormitory. There are only three times at which students are asked not to use the telephones. These are the hours from 7:30 to 10:00 every evening except Saturday and Sunday, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Sundays, and from 10:45 in the evening until 7:00 in the morning. Seniors are allowed to use the telephone in their dormitory during study hour.

The peculiar thing about these telephone calls is that as soon as a student has received one, she forgets that about one hundred other girls are just as anxious to get an expected call as she has been. To discourage such forgetfulness, the student body has voted that conversations be limited to five minutes, unless permission has been obtained from the house officer on her hall. Sometimes, in the afternoon, the telephones are not so much in demand. If you and Tommy Jones just must settle that argument you began the night before, tell him to call you then, and not between 10:00 and 10:30. At this time someone, somewhere, is probably trying to call every girl in the dormitory.

If you wish to make a long-distance call or to send a telegram, please use the pay telephones. By getting special permission, you may use the telephone in the office of the Dean of Women. It is wise when you are calling home for a special permission to use the office telephone, but be sure to reverse the charges.

“HAPPY MOTORING”

As riding in automobiles is such a favorite pastime, you will be glad to find that the riding privileges at Meredith are very generous. Before you may exercise any of these privileges, however, a written permission from your home must be approved and filed in the office of the Dean of Women.

A student must have a written permission from home to ride in an airplane.

Freshmen may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and with an official chaperon or older friends or relatives after 6:00 p.m.

Sophomores may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and in groups of two after 6:00 p.m.

Upperclassmen may ride unchaperoned. They may ride in Raleigh with boys in the afternoon and to and from their destination in Raleigh at night.

Riding with strangers is never permitted.

As a safety measure, girls are asked not to ride bicycles on Hillsboro Street.

TO CHAPEL AND TO CHURCH

Attendance at both church and Sunday School is required of all students except seniors. Each girl chooses the church she likes best and attends it regularly. When signing out on her dormitory card, she should indicate the name of the church she is attending. Each student is allowed eight unexcused absences from church and five visiting Sundays per year. A week's campus is the penalty for the ninth unexcused church absence. When the student is away from the college for the day on Sunday and does not attend her church in Raleigh, the absence is unexcused. When she is away for the week-end, the absence is excused. Attending church on Sunday does not count a privilege.

Unless with the hostess with whom she is spending Sunday, or unless for a meal, a student does not go to a drug store on Sunday.

All students are required to attend the chapel exercises held Monday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. Five unexcused chapel absences per semester are granted to each student. All absences, excused and unexcused, are recorded by resident students on their dormitory cards and by non-resident students on chapel attendance cards in the nonresident students' room. Chapel absences taken immediately before and/or after a holiday count as double cuts unless no classes are cut.

The following absences are excused:

1. Absences taken for supervised teaching.
2. Absences taken to work at the college switchboard.

3. Absences taken by nonresident students who have been excused by the Dean at the beginning of each semester.
4. Absences taken by resident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List who have arranged permission in the office of the Dean of Women to be away from college when taking absences from classes.
5. Absences taken by nonresident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List on days on which they miss all classes.
6. Absences taken in cases deemed exceptional by the Student Government Council.

The following absences count one-third of an absence:

1. Absences taken in the infirmary because of illness.
2. Absences taken at home because of illness.
3. Absences taken because of illness or death in the immediate family (mother, father, brother, sister, grandfather, or grandmother).

A student is given one week's campus for the sixth unexcused chapel absence; an additional week's campus is given for the second of every two additional unexcused absences after the sixth.

CONCERNING DANCING

I. On the campus.

Students do not give dances at Meredith and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus (see p. 37).

II. Off the campus.

- A. A written permission from parents must be presented, giving date, dance, name of escort, and, if a student is staying out of the college for the week-end, the name and address of the hostess, or blanket dance permission may be obtained by requesting the office of the dean of women to secure the necessary information or a written permission.
- B. All students must go directly to the dance and may not leave the dance before it is over except to return to the College.
- C. When attending dances held in Raleigh, students must go from and return to the College. They must be in within an hour after the dance. It is necessary that students make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Women at least forty-eight hours in advance.
- D. When attending dances away from Raleigh, students must make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Women forty-eight hours in advance so that all arrangements may be approved. No student may spend a night in a fraternity house, boarding house, tourist home, or hotel unless under the chaperonage of her mother.
- E. When dances are held outside of Raleigh, students under chaperonage regulations may be allowed to go from and return to the College within an hour after the dance; or they may spend the week-end away from Raleigh if satisfactory arrangements are made in advance with the Dean of Women.

F. Only girls who are students in residence at Meredith may go from and return to the College.

These special regulations apply only to dances sponsored by an approved organization or institution. The dancing of individual couples in public places is not permitted.

AS OTHERS SEE US

In order to maintain the reputation which Meredith students have for being well-dressed and well-groomed, students are expected to dress appropriately for all occasions.

1. Off campus.

Before six o'clock students are required to wear hats and hose when they go beyond the Varsity Theater. After six o'clock, students should wear hose when going off the campus, except to Wilmont or to the Manmure for bowling. Hats are worn when a student goes out to dinner, to a concert, or to the Little Theatre. Before October 1 and after May 1, leg makeup may replace hose. Kerchiefs may replace hats if it is raining or snowing when a girl leaves the campus.

2. On campus.

There is to be no sun bathing on the campus grounds, only on the breezeways between the dorms and at the pool.

Because students should look well on campus as well as off campus, students are required to wear socks or hose to classes, in Johnson Hall, in the dining hall, and to chapel, except before October 1 and after May 1, when no socks or hose are required. Students are required to wear hose to dinner on Sunday, except before October 1 and after May 1, when leg makeup may replace hose. Classroom dress is not considered appropriate for Sunday dinners. As an aid to general appearance, resident and nonresident students are not to wear kerchiefs in class, in chapel, or in the dining hall; they are not to wear gym suits, jodhpurs, slacks, or shorts in Johnson Hall.

CLASS PRIVILEGES

Each student has privileges of the class of which she is a member according to academic classification. For example, a second year student who is a freshman has freshman privileges.

Privileges taken after 6:00 p.m. count as evening privileges. Students may stay out until 10:30 p.m. Sunday through Friday and until 11:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Dating always counts as a privilege, on or off the campus. When going directly to and returning directly from a Civic Music concert or a Little Theatre production without a date, it does not count as a privilege.

WEEK-ENDS AND OUT-OF-TOWN TRIPS

During her first year at Meredith, a student may not leave the College for an overnight absence or an out-of-town trip without a written permission from parents or guardians. These permissions must be mailed directly to the office of the Dean of Women and must state the destination and dates of departure and return.

After a student has been at Meredith one year, she may use green slips to obtain from the office of the Dean of Women special permission for overnight absences or out-of-town trips, provided that she allow twenty-four hours for her request to be approved or disapproved.

DORMITORY REGULATIONS

I. Dormitory hours.

Except with permission from her hall proctor, every student is to be in her room from light bell to rising bell. To spend the night elsewhere than in one's own room, a student must obtain permission from her hall proctor and must tell the proctor on whose hall she is visiting.

II. Changing of rooms.

A. No student may change her room or roommate during the first two weeks of school.

B. Unless an emergency arises all room changes must be completed by the end of the first six weeks of the first semester. Room changes for second semester must be completed during the first two weeks of that semester.

C. At all times students before making changes must ask permission of the Dean of Women.

COLLEGE CALENDAR

In order to avoid confusion in the college calendar, dates for all meetings which are likely to cause conflict must be arranged with the Dean of Women, whether or not the original permission for the meeting was granted by her. Presidents of all student organizations should register dates of regular and special meetings as far in advance as possible.

Plans for every social event must be approved in the office of the Dean of Women and scheduled on the college calendar. Whenever such an event is sponsored by an organization outside the College, the Dean of Women will post on the bulletin board a notice giving all necessary information.

BULLETIN BOARDS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students are responsible for all announcements made and all notices posted. Bulletin boards should be read each day.

JURISDICTION OF THE COLLEGE

When returning to the College from out of town, students are under the jurisdiction of the College as soon as they enter Raleigh. When students are visiting in the homes of friends in Raleigh, they remain under the regular college rules unless other arrangements are made in the office of the Dean of Women. They are under their hostess' chaperonage only when in her company.

JUST IN CASE!

These penalties are drawn up by the Student Government Council and are subject to change during the session.

I. Call downs are given for infractions of regulations.

A. One automatic call down is given for the following:

1. Failure to sign in or out on dormitory card.
2. Error on dormitory card, including failure to hand in card on time (one call down for each day late).
3. Failure to wear hat, hose, or socks where required.
4. Wearing gym suits, jodhpurs, slacks, or shorts in Johnson Hall.

 3. Failure to cancel special permission.
- C. For repeated infractions of regulations otherwise handled automatically, the Council may give additional penalties.
- D. The Council may give call downs for failure to comply with infirmary or library regulations. This regulation applies also to nonresident students.
- II. Withdrawal of privileges is given for infractions of regulations. If a student overdraws her privileges for one week, her privileges of that type are automatically withdrawn for the following week.
- III. Campus is given for infractions of regulations or for an accumulation of six call downs. The secretary of Student Government notifies a student when she is to serve campus. The student has one week in which to begin campus. She is to report to her hall proctor and to the secretary of the Student Government telling them the day and hour she is beginning campus.

While on campus, a student is subject to the following restrictions:

1. She may not leave the campus.
2. She may not have dates.
3. She may not receive or make telephone calls, except in the case of receiving long distance calls, which she may take with the permission of her hall proctor.
4. She may not exercise social privileges.

Exceptions: A student may attend church on Sunday morning and Civic Music concerts; she may attend church on Sunday nights with permission from the president of the Student Government Association.

Permission to break campus is given by the president of the Student Government Association or the Dean of Women.

IV. Council action is taken for the accumulation of six call downs by nonresident students or for the sixth unexcused chapel absence.

V. Cradle roll or demotion is given when a student is not considered capable of living under an honor code and must therefore be chaperoned by an upperclass Council member wherever she goes. Students who consistently make careless mistakes may become candidates for cradle roll. Students placed on cradle roll may have their privileges limited as determined by the Student Government Council.

VI. Probation, suspension, and expulsion are given for serious offenses, including the following:

A. Academic dishonesty.

1. Cheating in tests and examinations.
2. Cheating in assignments.

(a) Acceptance of assistance in themes, either in organization or in corrections; failure to give credit for quotations from the writings of other people.

(b) Acceptance of assistance in book reports or book outlines.

(c) Using another student's mathematical problems, maps, or notes on parallel reading.

(d) Signing for parallel reading which has not been done.

(e) Copying laboratory work from other students.

(f) Using interlined books.

B. Theft.

C. General dishonesty.

D. Any other offense which is of such nature that reproach is thereby brought upon the college.

NOTE: Probation, suspension and expulsion are given by the Student Government Council, subject to approval of the Faculty Committee on Student Government and the President of the College.

MEANING OF PROBATION

Probation can be one of three types: general, academic, or social. If a student on general probation is returned to Council for either academic or social violation, expulsion will be recommended. If a student on academic probation is returned to Council for a similar offense, expulsion will be recommended. If a student on social probation is returned to Council for social violation, suspension or expulsion will be recommended.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

As a new student at Meredith next year, you are an important part of our campus Athletic Association, better known as the "A. A." We sponsor sports activities throughout the school year, as well as the traditional Palio, Stunt Night and the Corn Huskin' Bee in the fall, Christmas Caroling, Faculty-Student Play Day, and the Folk Dance Concert in the spring.

We hope that you will have as much fun in sports and recreation as all of us here have. You can help us make the A. A. even better next year.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Every student of Meredith College, upon entering, automatically becomes an active member of the Athletic Association. The A.A. Board, composed of twenty-one members including the managers of the seasonal sports and activities, meets weekly to tackle the task of organizing and coordinating all the extracurricular athletic and recreation activities of the college. The staff members of the Department of Health and Physical Education serve as advisory members of the board.

Major sports sponsored by the A.A. are hockey, soccer, basketball, and softball. Tournaments and playdays in each of these sports climax the seasons. The teams entering the tournaments are class teams or big sister-little sister teams. Sports days are often held with other schools in which the varsity teams, chosen as the most outstanding players participating in the particular sport or sports, take part.

Tennis, badminton, swimming, archery, and golf are the minor sports supervised by the Athletic Association. Individual sports such as hiking, horseshoe, ping-pong, bicycling, riding, and bowling are participated in throughout the school year. The Equitation Group, the Folk Dance Group, and the Monogam Club are under the direction of A.A. and function under the leadership of their own officers.

Medals are awarded at the close of each season to the members of the varsity teams in each of the major sports. A hockey stick is awarded at the end of the hockey season to the freshman who has shown the most teamwork, loyalty, and proficiency in hockey. Special awards for outstanding performance in other organized activities are made by the A.A. Board. A trophy is awarded at the end of the year to the member of the student body who is considered by the Athletic Association Board to have contributed most to athletics during the year.

THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

It is the privilege of the B. S. U. to serve all the students at Meredith by providing opportunity for their development in the Christian way of life. A well-rounded program of Christian activity with parties, fellowship, worship, and study for every student is our aim.

The program has been worked out so as to aid you in placing Christ at the center of your life through worship and work on the campus and in the churches. With this center it is possible for you to see all the areas and phases of your life integrated into their proper relationships.

It is our hope that you will become an active part of such a program, thus giving our life together at Meredith the highest and fullest meaning.

B. S. U.

Come you college students,
Old and new,
Your minds off clothes and dates awhile,
Let's talk about the B.S.U.

With this silly jingle to clear the atmosphere of all hints of cant, let's look together for a minute or two at an association which calls itself the "religious" organization on our campus. That means it is primarily concerned with the setting forth of a religion, the Christian religion, to be specific, as indispensable in the achievement of satisfaction in life. How does it work? Just listen.

Obviously there must be a special group to outline a plan of procedure. That group we call the Executive Council, members of which are elected in the spring. (They are listed one page back.) In a conference held a few days prior to the opening of school, they meet together to work out a tentative schedule for the year's activities. This includes such things as a freshman transfer party, the primary purpose of which is to initiate the new students into the Baptist Student Union; church welcome services, which usually include suppers for the students, to introduce them to the fun, fellowship, and opportunities for study and training available to them in all of the local churches of Raleigh; Y. W. A. programs, which seek to foster a missionary spirit among students, to awaken them to the needs of the world, and to indicate avenues of service.

Vespers are another big item. Held every week day at 6:45 p.m., they furnish those invaluable moments of quiet and meditation, when tense nerves are relaxed, cluttered minds are cleared, and the peace and calm of the ever-present spirit of God seems to permeate one's entire being. This program is supplemented by Family Altar, which closes the evening as Vespers does the day. Conducted on each dormitory hall, it creates an atmosphere of love and companionship, drawing students closer to one another and to God.

Then weeks of special emphasis are anticipated: one for Vocations, when there are brought to our attention various fields of work open to students for the summer or after graduation; a Religious Emphasis Week, which is a real highlight of the school year. At this time eminent preachers and teachers of the Christian faith come and live on our campus, give stimulating addresses in chapel, lead conferences, and make themselves generally available for discussion of individual and world-wide problems.

Other features of the year's program are monthly birthday parties (held in the dining hall), study courses, monthly chapel programs, inter-collegiate parties, and State conventions and conferences.

Though many of the activities listed take place on the campus, the Baptist Student Union is concerned primarily with securing the participation of the student in the life of one of the local churches, where in the fellowship of kindred minds, she can find strength, direction, and encouragement to strive for the ideal life.

College life is like a diamond given to us in the rough—it is ours to take and keep as dull ore, or ours to shape, to rub off the jagged edges, to transform into a lovely jewel. In our inexperienced hands, perfection will not be possible, but available to everyone of us is the power of an unseen Master, who can guide us as we work, point out the flaws, until in the place of native carbon there shall begin to appear a polished stone, not perfect ever, but marvelously heightened in beauty, reflecting in its highlights something of the radiance of the sun. This is the ideal life, and this is the life the B.S.U. wants for you.

You may be a competent sportswoman, you may be an enthusiastic newshound, or you may be a glamorous socialite; but, in any event, we hope that you have dramatic aspirations. For on the Meredith campus, there is an organization which will kindle that spark of interest into dramatic ability and stage poise. The Little Theater offers an opportunity for you to gain experience in every phase of dramatic work. If you want to act, you can try out for any of the productions given during the year. If you prefer to be the “power behind the throne,” you can work on the staging, properties, make-up, or costuming committees. If you do not want to take an active part at all, you can spur our endeavors on by attending the productions. You don’t have to buy a ticket for each production; for when you pay your budget fee in September, you purchase admission to a year’s enjoyment of Little Theater performances. We want you to come out for our plays because of a sincere interest in dramatics. We believe that this interest of yours will increase when you learn that students from the neighboring boys’ colleges take the male roles in our major productions.

Full-fledged membership in the Little Theater shall be awarded according to the Little Theater point system. Before each production night, a committee of five, including the director of the Little Theater, the president, secretary, and two members appointed by the president, shall determine the number of points to be allotted each applicant, and make its report. One of the exciting features of each production is the announcement of new members. We don’t guarantee a Hollywood contract with acting in our plays, but we do guarantee that you will have quantities of fun and gain a good working knowledge of play production.

LITTLE THEATER POINT SYSTEM

- 15-20 points—major role in a long play
- 10-14 points—major role in a short play
- 5-10 points—minor role in a long play
- 2- 6 points—minor role in a short play
- 15-20 points—directing a major play (three acts)
- 10-14 points—directing a short play (one act)
- 0-10 points—work in costuming (making, securing, etc.)
- 0-15 points—work in staging (lighting, properties, construction, etc.)
- 0-10 points—work in publicity (posters, tickets, music, make-up)

Students become pledges when they earn 5 points and are full-fledged members when they earn 25 points.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Student publications make up a great part of the extracurricular activity on any college campus. The school newspaper, the magazine, and the annual are three indispensable factors of a full college life. They not only assure you hours of reading fun, but they preserve the joys of your college life in the permanency of print.

OAK LEAVES

The Oak Leaves is the college annual, the book you spend the year looking forward to. Its purpose is to portray Meredith life in word and picture. There are individual pictures of the girls, group pictures of the organization, views of the buildings and favorite college haunts, to say nothing of the informal snapshots of college life "off parade." You'll love the annual, and if you get a chance, you'll love working on its publication staff. We'll admit the job is hard, but we'll guarantee you'll enjoy it.

THE TWIG

The Twig is pretty certain to be at your door every second Saturday of the school year. It is the official college newspaper, ready to keep you informed through articles and pictures about what has been going on around you. Besides straight news, its features, cartoons, humor, and special columns are planned for your amusement and interest. Work on The Twig may seem like play, yet to those who have journalistic ambitions, it offers an opportunity for real newspaper experience. THE ACORN

The Acorn is the college magazine, in which you may see in print all those delightful fancies that you think up while the professor is lecturing on the Crimean War: those sonnets that are inspired in the midst of a sermon on "Where Is Youth Today?" or even the brilliant clue you get to the mystery of Hamlet and don't get a chance to voice before the bell rings.

If, when you look at one of the year's six issues of the Acorn, you think, "Humph! I could beat that myself," just remember it is your own fault if you don't. The Acorn is a student magazine and the contributions you slip into the Acorn office make it what it is.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

You will hear first at Meredith, if you haven't already heard, about the two literary societies, the Astrotekton and the Philaretia. You will be attentively "rushed" the first few weeks at Meredith by members of both of these societies. You will have parties and serenades and you will hear much about the activities and the girls in each. There is the keenest competition between these two societies for the affections of you new girls. Heed an old girl's advice and don't lose your heart too quickly.

Each society has a hall in which monthly meetings are held. Programs at meetings are debates, literary contests, lectures, and social activities of fun and fellowship!

Both societies are looking forward to the arrival of you new girls. Become well acquainted with the activities and members of each before you decide to join ranks with either the Philaretians or the Astrotektons.

PHILARETIA SOCIETY

GREETINGS, NEW STUDENTS,

All the Phi's join me in saying we are glad that you are coming to Meredith. As Phi's, we hope to help make your life here a happy one.

New ideas are being developed in our society for next year and we are anxious for you to share them with us. Our hope is that you will help us achieve our ideal of "plain living and high thinking."

In any event, a preview of the nature and pursuits of the various clubs will really make them a coming attraction for you.

HONOR SOCIETIES

KAPPA NU SIGMA

Organized in 1923, Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society aims to promote scholarship at Meredith. Members are admitted into the society on the basis of scholastic standing maintained over a period of at least two years.

At the annual spring meeting new members are received and a roll call of all members made. At this time a scholarship is awarded to the freshman having the highest average in her class.

SILVER SHIELD

The idea of the Silver Shield, an honorary leadership society, originated with members of the Class of 1933, but no definite organization was set up until the spring of 1935. The purpose of the society is to foster a better spirit on the campus and to recognize outstanding girls who have contributed to life at Meredith. Nine new members are selected from each rising and present senior class by the members of the organization and the faculty. The selection is made on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, service to the school, and scholarship.

The Silver Shield sponsors a record room, which is located on the second floor of Stringfield Hall. In the record room are filed club constitutions and records of club activities, college and class songs, college and class traditions, and other materials needed for reference by students.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

In May, 1938, the Eta Nu chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, was installed with eleven members. The Little Theater was proud to have placed the first national honorary society on the Meredith campus.

OUR TRADITIONS

TRADITIONS

LAVENDER AND OLD LACE

Sometimes the girls of today stop and join hands across the years with the girls of yesterday, by carrying on traditions which are a part of Meredith. Some of these belong to the respective classes, some to the "odd" and "even" years, and some to all Meredith Girls.

FOR ALL THE SCHOOL

The first of these traditions that belong to all the girls is "Decision Day" for the societies, with new girls as guests of honor. This day comes early in the fall and climaxes a period of competitive "rushing" for the affections of the new girls. The excitement begins in the early morning with breakfast. Two important newcomers seen on the campus are the "Phi" bear and the "Astro" goat. If you know where your heart lies by 7:30 a.m., tradition says that you enter the dining room door on which your society colors fly. After chapel in the auditorium you lose that feminine privilege of changing your mind, for there you choose between the two societies.

Closely following "Decision Day" is the initiation of the "Baby Astros" and the installation service for the "Baby Phis." This week-end is closed for visiting, but you will not wish to leave anyway.

The Saturday in early fall on which Palio and the class stunts are held is a red letter day at Meredith. Palio, an adaption of the ancient festival in Siena, is a unique tradition at Meredith. Each class vies with the others in parades up the front drive, the formation of class numerals, horse races, bicycle races, the frolicking of clowns, and original class songs. The class winning the parade is awarded the Palio banner; the class having the largest number of members participating in Palio wins reserved seats for the stunts.

In the evening, each class gives an original stunt, and to the winning class is awarded a silver loving cup.

For the night before the Christmas holidays begin, the Student Government Council, aided by the other campus organizations, arranges a party, usually a formal dinner. Later on that same night, or sometimes early the next morning, the whole student body goes caroling.

May Day is celebrated the first Saturday in May. A May queen, aided by her maid-of-honor and court, presides over the day. The queen and maid-of-honor are elected by popular vote of the student body. Each class elects two May court attendants. The cost of the flowers for May Day are divided between the four classes. It is customary for a girl to be in the May Court only once unless she is elected May queen or maid-of-honor.

On May Day morning, the queen is serenaded by the sophomores and later honored by them at breakfast. In the May Day fete, the queen carries an arm bouquet of iris, the college flower.

On the week-end of May Day, high school seniors are invited to the college for Hospitality Week-end.

Once in every college generation, the members of the faculty present for the students Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland.

In the spring, the societies compete in presenting plays. The Little Theater, as sponsor of the plays, gives a cup to the winning society. If a society wins three consecutive years, the cup becomes a permanent possession of that society. The Freshman Class also presents a play on this night.

Each spring the Athletic Association sponsors a faculty-student play day. A duke, elected by the student body from the faculty, and a duchess, elected by the student body from the student body, reign over the events of the day. No afternoon classes are held, and games are played between the faculty and students during the afternoon. The day ends with a picnic in the court.

FOR THE CLASSES

In addition to the traditions that belong to everyone, there are those which the respective classes possess. On entering Meredith new girls find that they have a heritage to accept and hand down as the years go by.

As freshmen, they entertain in the spring their "Big Sisters" at a breakfast at the Chimney; and on a chosen gala night, they entertain themselves at a class party in one of the society halls.

As sophomores, they find that spring again is a season of traditions. When May Day comes, the sophomores sing to the May Queen early in the morning, again at breakfast on the day that she will reign on the campus, and during the May Day ceremony. Another big event is Class Day. Every sophomore looks forward to this with eagerness. On this day they make the traditional daisy chain from the thousands of daisies that they have picked early that morning. They do have to arise early, but going on that sunrise daisy-picking excursion is something one can't afford to miss. Be sure to catch the 5:00 o'clock truck bound for the daisy field near Raleigh. At the Class Day exercises that afternoon, the sophomores carry this daisy chain and sing to their "Big Sisters." They then march to Johnson Hall and form their class numerals on the steps.

As juniors, they find that they are especially lucky in "hand-me-downs." The first and the best tradition they have is the adoption of "Little Sisters" from the Freshman Class. Each junior has a "Little Sister" of her own, and they all agree that it's a wonderful addition to the family. The juniors aid the freshmen in their election of a president and an adviser. In the spring, when the young men's fancies have lightly turned to thoughts of love, the juniors give a banquet in honor of the seniors. For months in advance, they plan the menu and the decorations; for this affair happens only twice in a lifetime. During commencement, the juniors delight in serving the seniors in another way. For the Class Day exercises they decorate the posts with Senior Class colors for the daisy chain.

The seniors, too, look forward to the spring and to the banquet given to them by the juniors; for it is the greatest social event of the year. On May Day, the seniors invite the President of the College to breakfast with the May Queen in the dining room. They present him a basket of flowers. Commencement week is a time when the seniors carry on many Meredith customs. One night at a grudge bonfire, they burn the article they have disliked most at Meredith, so that it will never spoil their memories of Meredith. On Sunday before Commencement, seniors conduct the vesper service. On Sunday afternoon during commencement, the seniors form their class numerals on the steps of Johnson Hall, and, singing "The Queen of Our Hearts," march off into the grove to elect their permanent class officers.

FOR THE "ODDS" AND "EVENS"

Besides the general traditions and those belonging to the individual classes, there are the "even" and "odd" set of traditions. "Even girls" are those who graduate in even years, for instance 1942-1944. "Odd girls" graduate in uneven years, for instance 1941-43. You who are entering as freshmen this year will be "even girls." Whichever you are, you are counted lucky.

"Hail to the Even Spirit" will doubtless be the first of this set of traditions to greet you. This song was written in answer to "These Bones," the "odd" song. The colors of all but the Leap Year classes are green and white. In its junior year, every Leap Year class takes purple and gold. Also in your sophomore year, you will put May baskets on the doors of your "Big Sisters' " rooms. To a senior or a sophomore this traditional rite is lots of fun. The last of the "even" traditions pertains especially to the seniors. During commencement, seniors have a candlelight service at the fountain. Surprising information often comes to light at this service, for all seniors engaged to be married walk backwards around the the fountain while their uncommitted classmates go in the usual fashion.

"Odd" traditions are exciting too. Their song is "These Bones," and a black glove worn on the left hand as symbolic of the odd spirit. The odd classes have a red devil as mascot. Their colors through the sophomore year are blue and white, and in their junior and senior years they take the rainbow colors.

MUSIC IN THE BREEZE

Singing is a widespread custom at Meredith. During that first week here the new girls launch forth with our ever beautiful ALMA MATER. We urge new girls to learn this song as early as possible. Be a singing angel on the campus—give, with melody!

Words and music by former President R. T. Vann.

ALMA MATER

1. We sa-lute thee, Al-ma Ma-ter, we sa-lute thee with a song,
 2. Thou hast come thro' trib-u-la-tion and thy robe is clean and white,
 3. In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert shall re-joice,
 4. Where the rho-do-den-dron blush-es on the bur-ly mountain's breast,
 5. Where the sons of Car-o-li-na taught a na-tion to be free,

At thy feet our loy-al hearts their trib-ute lay;
 Thou art fair-er than the sum-mer in its bloom.
 In the wil-der-ness a liv-ing foun-tain spring;
 In the mid-land, where the wild deer love to roam;
 And her daugh-ters taught their broth-ers to be brave;

We had wait-ed for thy com-ing in the dark-ness, wait-ed long,
 Thou art born un-to a king-dom and thy crown is all of light;
 For the blind shall see thy beau-ty and the deaf shall hear thy voice,
 Where the wa-ter-lil-y slum-bers, while the cy-press guards its rest—
 O'er a land of peace-ful plen-ty, from the high-lands to the sea,

Ere the morn-ing star pro-claimed thy na-tal day.
 Thou shalt smile a-way the shad-ow and the gloom.
 And the si-lent tongue their high ho-san-nas sing.
 Lo, thy sun-ny land of prom-ise and thy home.
 May thy ban-ner, Al-ms Ma-ter, ev-er wave.
 R. T. Vann

ALMA MATER

We salute thee, Alma Mater, we salute thee with
a song;

At thy feet our loyal hearts their tribute lay;
We had waited for thy coming, in the darkness
waited long,

Ere the morning star proclaimed thy natal day.
Thou hast come through tribulation, and thy robe is clean and white!

Thou art fairer than the summer in its bloom.
Thou art born unto a kingdom, and thy crown is
all of light;

Thou shalt smile away the shadow and the gloom.

In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert
shall rejoice,

In the wilderness a living fountain spring;
For the blind shall see thy beauty and the deaf
shall hear thy voice,

And the silent tongue their high hosannas sing.
Where the rhododendron blushes on the burly
mountain's breast,

In the midland where the wild deer love to roam,
Where the water lily slumbers while the cypress
guards its rest,

Lo! thy sunny land of promise and thy home.
Where the sons of Carolina taught a Nation to be free,

And her daughters taught their brothers to be brave;
O'er a land of peaceful plenty, from the highlands to the sea,

May thy banner, Alma Mater, ever wave!

DEDICATION HYMN

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

We work together in Thy sight,
We live together in Thy love;
Guide Thou our falt'ring steps aright,
And lift our thoughts to heav'n above.

Hold Thou each hand to keep it just,
Touch Thou our lips and make them pure;
If Thou art with us, Lord, we must
Be faithful friends and comrades sure.

We change, but Thou art still the same,
The same good Master, Teacher, Friend;
We change; but, Lord, we bear Thy name,
To journey with it to the end.

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

Music by RUSSELL BROUGHTON

Words by S. M. MEYER

(This hymn was dedicated by the composer to the Meredith College Choir.)

2. A student may not drop a subject or change her course without written permission from the Dean of the College.
3. Students are required to take examinations on all courses pursued during a semester unless excused by both the Dean of the College and the instructor.
4. A student who wishes to hold office must have fulfilled in the semester preceding her election the requirements of the Eligibility List, which are as follows:
 - a. that a student carry at least twelve hours of work (with the exception of a few seniors who are engaged in their supervised teaching) ;

8. Any proposed organization must have its constitution approved by the Faculty Committee on Student Government. All amendments to a constitution must also be presented to the Committee before adoption by the organization. Every organization is required to file a copy of its constitution with the Dean of the College, the Dean of Women, and the college library.

III. LIBRARY REGULATIONS

During the college year the library is open on weekdays from 8:15 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The library will be closed during chapel periods.

Circulation—

Students may borrow general books for two weeks, or for a shorter period, determined by the demand for the book. At the expiration of two weeks, books may be renewed for two weeks, provided that they are not needed by other persons. Any book may be recalled by the librarian when needed in the library.

Books must not be taken from the library until they have been charged at the desk. All books taken out of the library must be returned to one of the library assistants or left on the desk.

The person who borrows a book is responsible for it until the record of its return is complete.

A fine of two cents will be charged for each day that a general book is kept out overtime. Notices are sent as soon as possible after the book is due.

How to Borrow a Book for Use Outside the Library

1. Consult the card catalogue.

Look for the book you want by its author, title, or subject, as you would for a word in a dictionary or a name in a telephone directory.

2. When you have located the card for the book you want, copy the complete call number. (It always appears in the upper left corner of the catalogue card.) Slips are kept on top of the card catalogue for this purpose.
3. Go to the stack room for the book.

4. Take the book to the circulation desk, sign your full name and room number on the book cards in the back of the book, and have it properly charged there.

How to Borrow a Book for Use in the Library

Follow procedures 1, 2, and 3 as given above. Take the book to the circulation desk and sign for it on the white reading room slip. Fill out all the information asked for on the white slip. When you are through with the book, return it at the circulation desk and claim your white slip.

Reserve Reading Room

This room is dedicated to study and is reserved for those who wish to use reserve books and bound periodicals. Books are assembled here at the request of the members of the faculty to provide material for required reading in connection with class assignments. The books are grouped alphabetically by author under each subject. The essential rules governing the use of reserve books are given here; hence ignorance of them is no excuse.

1. Go directly to the shelves and get the books for yourself. (Not more than two at a time.)
2. Sign the orange cards. (Full name and hour.)
3. Leave cards at the desk.
4. Books may be used for a period of two hours. They may be renewed for an additional two-hour period if not needed by another student.

5. When you have finished with the books, claim cards at the desk and return the books to proper places on the shelves.
6. One-half hour before closing time reserve books may be charged out for overnight use. Sign full name and room number on the orange card.
7. Books taken out for overnight use must be returned at the desk in the reserve room by 8:30 a.m. the next day the library is open.
8. A fine of ten cents will be charged for each hour a reserve book is kept out overtime.
9. Reserve books are not to be taken to other parts of the building.
10. Please be as quiet as possible when using this room so as not to disturb the other students who wish to study.

Stack Room

Regulations in regard to the use of this room:

1. Here, as elsewhere in the library, we ask that you move around quietly and refrain from conversation.
2. Do not carry your books into the stack room. These may be left on the small unit of shelving at the door.
3. You are not to remain in the stack room to study.
4. Leave turned down on the shelves any books that you may remove to examine.
5. In order that the right person may get the right book at the right time, it is absolutely necessary that the books be in proper order according to the classification numbers.

Please help us keep them this way.

The classification numbers for the books shelved in a section are marked on the ends of each section. If you have difficulty in finding desired books, the assistant on duty at the desk will be glad to help you.

Magazines

Current magazines and newspapers are kept in the periodical room. They are arranged in alphabetical order.

Bound magazines are arranged in alphabetical order on the shelves at the rear end of the reserve room.

Back issues of unbound magazines should be called for at the circulation desk.

A complete file of the magazines in our library is kept at the circulation desk.

Magazines must be used in the library. They do not circulate.

Interlibrary Loan

The library will borrow for you, from other libraries, books needed for special assignments. You should, however, first exhaust the resources of our library. If material is still needed, you should then present a written request from the professor under whom you are working.

All requests for permission to get books from other libraries in the city must be handed in to the librarian by 11:30 a.m. of the day on which the book is wanted. Give title and author of the book, and also the call number, if possible. Do not ask for more than two books at the same time.

The charge for postage on interlibrary loans is to be paid by the borrower.

Additional Information

Fiction is shelved in the alcove to the right of the rotunda.

The North Carolina Collection and International Relations Club library are in the alcove to the left of the rotunda.

Students found with missing library books in their possession will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Government Council.

It is well to remember that library regulations, in general, are made not for the convenience of the staff, but to protect your interests by giving all of you, as far as it is possible, equal privileges. To return books when due, to refrain from conversation in reading rooms where others are at work, to handle books even more carefully than if they were one's own—these are acts of courtesy which are appreciated by all who use the library.

IV. HEALTH REGULATIONS

1. The blue blank containing a record of pre-entrance physical examination must be in the possession of the Health Service before matriculation.
2. Annual physical re-check of all students is required. For new students, it is scheduled on the orientation program.

8:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.

1:45 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

6:45 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

Lights out at 9:00 every night. Nurses are available at all hours for accidents and emergencies.

4. Appointments with physicians are made only through the Infirmary. Such appointments are not considered day privileges. When signing out, use special permission slips.
5. Illness and accidents of any degree must be reported to the Infirmary.
- (a) The Health Service alone is responsible for the diagnosis and treatment of any illness.
 - (b) No sick girl is to stay in her room.
 - (c) Notification of parents regarding the illness of students is the sole responsibility of the Health Service Staff. Please cooperate by withholding information prior to official action.

7. Students desiring rooms for guests may obtain them for 50 cents per night.
8. Students may not display pictures or pennants on the walls of their rooms by the use of any form of adhesive material or by driving nails in the plaster or doors unless approved by the house director.

The Operation of Student Government

New regulations or changes in regulations may arise either in the Student Council and go to the student body and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the top arrows show, or such legislation may arise in the student body and go to the Student Council and then to the Faculty Committee and the President, as the bottom arrows show. Regulations or changes must be passed by all three bodies before becoming effective. If the change is in a college policy, it must be passed by the Board of Trustees.

THE HONOR CODE

All life at Meredith is based upon the honor code, which is drawn up and defined by the students of the college.

The honor code means that:

Each student is expected to be honest and truthful at all times.

Each student is personally responsible for her own conduct, for her obligations to the college community, and for informing herself of and for abiding by the college regulations. If a student breaks a regulation, she is expected to correct her offense by reporting herself to the proper authorities: in an academic matter, to the instructor concerned; in an administrative matter, to the officer of administration concerned; and in a student government matter, to an upperclass member of the Student Government Council.

A student is responsible for seeing that the honor code is carried out at all times. If she is aware of a violation of the code by another student, it is her duty to see that the offender reports the violation.

The honor code is violated when a student is dishonest or untruthful, when a student fails to report herself for a rule infraction, or when a student fails to correct a violation of the code by another student.

Three basic principles underlie the honor code: at all times, a student shows absolute integrity, fulfills her community obligations, and assumes responsibility for her fellow citizens in the community. The students of Meredith have adopted and agreed to live by this honor code because they believe it to be the basis of successful and effective self-government.

HELLO NEW STUDENTS

Your new adventure of being a part of Meredith College will soon begin! We, your counselors, will be here to help you that first exciting week. And throughout the year we want you to continue to share your experiences with us, for we will always be willing to guide and help you.

We are looking forward to seeing you in September.

ANNE CREECH
Chief Counsellor

YOUR COLLEGE WARDROBE

Your college days are days of laughter and days of work . . . gay times that will be more gay if you dress to fit the mood. The keynote to a good college wardrobe is simplicity, with an eye to quality, style, and unity. Quantity is no main feature, but appropriateness is.

OPEN A CLOSET DOOR

in any dorm and see what you find on the hangers . . .

For Class: Tailored dresses, skirts with blouses or sweaters to match, and suits are worn to class.

For Church: A dress or suit with suitable accessories for Sunday, including hat, purse, gloves, and heels.

For Plays, Concerts, and Lectures: Same as for church.

For Formal or Semi-formal Occasions: Long dinner dress or formal evening dress.

For Sports: If you are planning to do some horseback riding, you'll want to bring jodhpurs. The regulation clothes for physical education classes must be purchased on the campus. For tennis, bring tennis shoes.

Some Special Suggestions:

Black dresses are very serviceable because of their adaptability to numerous occasions. One white dress is necessary for Commencement week-end.

Several cotton outfits come in well early and late in the school year.

A suitable rain outfit, including a raincoat, boots, umbrella and hat or kerchief, is a desirable addition to your wardrobe.

Color is a key to your personality, so make yourself comfortable in cheerful clothes of good style and good taste.

YOUR NEW HOME

A knock . . . "Come In" . . . and when the door is opened, your personality is on display.

YOUR NEW HOME

is your first college opportunity to present yourself to your classmates as an attractive personality. Consulting your roommate, see what ideas the following information about your new home affords.

Your Room

is 11 x 16 feet. The walls are cream-colored and each room has two closets, two single beds, one study table, two straight back chairs, one rocking chair, one dresser, one bookcase, one floor lamp, one wall light and an overhead light.

Your Windows

are two in number and they are 75" in length by 37" in width, except the windows in the rooms numbered 114, 115, 218, 219, 318, and 319 in all dormitories, which measure 97" in length and 37" in width.

Your Beds

are 81" long, 39" wide, and 27" from the floor. Each girl brings her own bedding; because of possible laundry delay, it is advisable to have about four to six sheets. You will want to bring two or three dresser scarfs and pillow cases.

THIS 'N THAT

GAME ROOM

When dating, or just for those minutes of relaxation you'll have for your own personal enjoyment, the game room will supply you with reading material, records, dominoes, Chinese checkers, caroms, monopoly, and other games of interest. It's yours to enjoy, and it's ready for use any time at your convenience. You'll find it across the hall from the Dean of Students' office in Vann Dormitory.

KITCHENETTES

On those cold nights when you crave that hot bowl of soup, or some fudge, our kitchenettes will serve this desire. Equipped with the regular kitchen materials, you and your friends will have a lot of fun "eating out" once in awhile. These kitchenettes are located on the first floor of each dormitory and may be used before 10:30 P.M.

PRESSING ROOMS

Just installed are five brand new Bendix machines that will wash a big laundry, for only twenty-five cents, while you can be out doing something else. The pressing room also has ironing boards, irons, and a sewing machine for your own personal use.

PARLORS

In Johnson Hall are two very large parlors, called by their characteristic colors, the Rose and the Blue parlors. These are used for dating, entertaining your family and friends, and for your receptions. On the first floor of each dormitory there are smaller parlors that are used for meetings, parties, and for dating. These are popular when you and your date wish to study together, or when you would like to listen to the radio or play a few records. All of the parlors are open for use by any student except the parlor on first floor Vann, which is reserved for faculty use.

HUT

A typical log cabin, ideally located, is one of the prettiest sights on our campus. Two big fireplaces, ping-pong equipment, a brand new electric stove, refrigerator, and kitchen utensils are just a few of the niceties you and your friends and dates will find when you go there to cook a meal, play games, or enjoy a quiet evening by the fire. The Hut may be used for parties, dating, and various club meetings by making arrangements in the office of the Dean of Students.

STUDENT BANK

For your convenience and for the safety of your money the school provides a student bank at the Bursar's Office. Here you may deposit checks and money to your account and withdraw money as you need it. The office hours are from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon. The office is closed during chapel services.

ROOM CHECK

Just to see what a good housekeeper you are, the house director and her assistants check your room twice a week. At the end of the month she posts the "A" and "B" grades. Have your name on the list every time.

SPORTS

You are urged to engage in some type or types of sports while you are here at Meredith. Tennis courts are located beside Stringfield and Vann Dormitories. The stables and riding ring are just beyond the tennis courts. Students who wish to ride and are not enrolled in horseback riding classes may pay a small fee and ride in the afternoon. The gym provides for badminton and shuffleboard. During the spring, students interested in obtaining a life-saving certificate may do so by joining a swimming class.

LECTURES

Meredith's lecture committee secures noted persons to speak to our college community each year. The Kappa Nu Sigma sponsors another lecture in the spring. You'll find these lectures interesting and informative.

CIVIC MUSIC CONCERTS, POP CONCERTS, AND OTHER ATTRACTIONS

Since Raleigh is the capital of North Carolina, Meredith students have many opportunities to visit the Legislature, and government departments as well as the State Library, State Museum, and the Hall of History.

Civic Music Concerts which compose varied programs of the most desirable type in the field of music are made available to students of Meredith College. Special buses are provided for the trip to the auditorium, and the college assumes a portion of the initial cost of the season tickets in order to encourage student membership. You'll want to get a ticket. They are too good to miss.

The Raleigh Pop Concert Series brings interesting artists from all parts of the country, and local organizations sponsor other musical programs which include modern dance groups, ballets, and others. Tickets for these concerts can usually be obtained from one of the music stores down town.

RALEIGH LITTLE THEATRE

The Raleigh Little Theatre presents current Broadway dramas in which only local actors and actresses take part. Memberships in the Raleigh Little Theatre may be bought during the first semester.

WILMONT

Wilmont is a small business district which is within walking distance of the Meredith campus. There are several dry cleaners, grocery stores, drug stores, etc., which you will enjoy.

STUDENT REGULATIONS

COLLEGE POLICIES

Students are not allowed to smoke on the Meredith College campus, except that (1) resident students may smoke in dormitory bedrooms and that (2) non-resident students may smoke in one of the rooms set aside for them in Johnson Hall.

Students do not give dances at Meredith, and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus.

Students do not drink intoxicants while under the jurisdiction of the College.

All students are required to attend chapel exercises held Monday through Friday.

Students do not have social sororities of any name or kind on the campus, whether national or local, affiliated or unaffiliated with a similar organization elsewhere. The punishment for this offense will be probation or expulsion.

OUR WAY OF DOING IT

You may be one of those imaginative persons who have always cherished romantic ideas about college. Your favorite brother or sister, or parent even, has told you wild and exciting tales about his or her reckless escapades in college. And you are already looking forward to Thanksgiving when you can outdo these tales with those of your own.

If you are this sort of person, you had better think twice before coming to Meredith. Not that Meredith isn't the finest school at all for mixing business with pleasure; but the point is, that Meredith has an honor system; and it isn't good form to go tearing off on wild and illegal escapades. The faculty has always been very understanding and co-operative when student representatives have approached them about the rules; and they have had confidence enough in the individual student to say that she is on her honor to uphold these regulations.

The Student Government Council (composed of students) has the right at any time to deal with any student, who, not having grown up enough to conduct herself properly, brings discredit on herself or on Meredith. There is no one, however, out snooping to see that you are going where you say you are, or doing what you say you will do. Keeping the rules at Meredith is a matter of one's personal honor, and those who think it is smart or cute to disregard the rules soon find out that they have the respect of neither students nor faculty. As a group, Meredith girls are proud of their honor system. It develops their powers of self-discipline, and it is pleasant to live under. Most important of all, it is working; and with your co-operation, it will continue to work.

LIVE AND LET LIVE

You may not believe it now, but there will be times when you will want to study at college. At practically every waking minute of the day someone in the dormitories will want to study. Therefore, it is a regulation at Meredith that reasonable quiet shall be observed in the dormitories at all times, and that Busy and No Admittance signs be respected.

Special quiet is observed during morning class hours.

Special quiet is also required during evening study hour, from 7:30 to 10:00, on all week nights except Saturday.

Radios, victrolas, or other musical instruments must not be heard outside the room during the hours of special quiet. At no times should they serve as amplifying systems. You intend for such possessions to attract friends into your room; you will defeat your purpose if these friends can remain in their own rooms and hear your music.

Please do not put radios in the windows. Everyone on your side of the building may not like the same type program you do.

Official bedtime for Juniors and Underclassmen is 11:15 p.m. except on Saturday night, when it is 12:15 a.m. Absolute quiet must be observed after these hours, and lights must be turned off unless a light permission is being exercised.

Once a week, if you are unable to study until the last minute, you may keep your light on until 12:00 p.m., provided you sign with your hall proctor. You'd better consult your roommate about the night you want to sit up, because the light permission is given to the room and not to each occupant. Light cuts are observed in one's own room.

When necessary, light permission is granted also to the following:

- A. Members of the Student Government Council, B. S. U. Council, Athletic Board, and Nominating Committee are granted light cuts on the nights of their regular meetings. Assistant hall proctors will be allowed to keep their lights on until 12:00 on the nights of their regular meetings.
- B. Members of a publication staff may have a light cut the night before the publication goes to press.
- C. Manager of the "B-Hive" has unlimited light cuts.
- D. Permission to hold meetings or practices of any nature after light bell or before rising bell is granted only by the Dean of Students.

Though seniors do not have to turn their lights off until 12:00 o'clock, they are expected to remember that there are others on the hall who want to sleep, and that running water does not make a very soothing lullaby. They are also urged for the sake of health not to over-exercise their light privilege.

Those who make unnecessary noise in the halls will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Council.

ENTERTAINING OVERNIGHT GUESTS

Overnight visitors may be entertained in the dormitories for not more than three nights. Be sure that you do not forget these conditions:

1. All overnight visitors should be registered in the office of the Dean of Students upon arrival.
2. To obtain a room for a guest, students must see the House Director.
3. Guests are not expected to enter or to leave the college between 11:30 p.m. and 6:30 a.m.
4. Arrange for meals to be taken by guests with the Dining Room Hostess.

ENTERTAINING IN THE PARLORS

The following things should be remembered when dating in the parlors:

1. Hours for dating in the parlors are as follows:
 - A. Until 11:00 p.m. Sunday through Friday and until 12:00 midnight on Saturday.
 - B. No dating in the parlors between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. on weekdays except for dinner dates or before 2:00 p.m. on any day of the week except for dinner dates on Sunday.
2. If a boy comes unexpectedly to see a student, she may see him for fifteen minutes, after signing on the sheet in the hostess' parlor. This visit will not count a privilege. More than one fifteen minute date during an evening counts as a regular evening privilege.
3. Dates are not to smoke in the parlors in Johnson Hall.
4. All girls, including those who are going out for an evening, are to receive and leave their dates in Johnson Hall. Students are to use the doors beside the steps of Johnson Hall when going out or coming in with a date.

5. There is no dating on the campus grounds after dark except for organized college functions which dates may attend.

The regulations that follow apply to entertaining in the dormitory parlors.

1. Students before dating in the dormitory parlors must sign on the hostess' sheet in Johnson Hall stating the parlor in which they're going to date.
2. Dates should enter the parlors by court doors only.
3. Dates are to be met in the Johnson Hall parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the dormitory parlors by girls; that is, a crowd of boys cannot go to the dormitory without dates.
4. Dates shall leave the dormitory parlors ten minutes before the close of the Johnson Hall parlor in order to leave this parlor on time.
5. Rooms on the court side should have shades drawn whenever girls are dressing.
6. There will be no calling out of windows to boys going to and from the dormitory parlors.
7. The faculty parlor on first floor Vann will not be used by students.
8. Guests may smoke in the first floor dormitory parlors.

ENTERTAINING IN THE DINING HALL

When you wish to have a guest for a meal you must make arrangements with the hostess of the dining hall. Please note Dining Hall Regulations for the time to make such arrangements and the prices of the meals.

ENTERTAINING IN THE HUT

When you and your date go down to the Hut for a meal or for an evening of fun, you will want to remember the following things:

1. Students may date in the Hut under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples after six p.m.
2. Dates are to be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the Hut by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the Hut without dates.
3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the Hut.
4. Dates shall leave the Hut ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Notices of private parties or public meetings in the Hut shall be posted on the calendar in the office of the Dean of Students two days in advance.
6. Each group using the Hut is responsible for having it cleaned not later than the next day.
7. Regulations to be observed while using the Hut:
 - a. Notify the House Director 24 hours in advance if fires are to be laid or dishes to be used.

- b. The key for the Hut must be obtained from the office of the Dean of Students only.
- c. Drapes must not be drawn at any time.
- d. All kitchen equipment must be left clean and in its respective place.
- e. Refrigerator must be left clean and empty.
- f. Stove must be left clean and all units turned off.
- g. No equipment may be taken from the Hut.
- h. Fires must be completely out before leaving the Hut.
- i. All windows must be left locked.
- j. Report any broken or missing equipment to the House Director.
- k. All furniture must be left in order.
- l. The Hut key must be returned to the office of the Dean of Students immediately after use.
- m. Any abuse of Hut property will automatically cancel the privilege of using the Hut for persons responsible.

ENTERTAINING IN THE GYM

For the sake of variety and of good fun, try taking your date to the gym for a quick game of badminton or shuffleboard. If you take us up on it, be sure to remember the following things.

1. Students may date in the gym under regular chaperonage. At all times there should be at least two couples.

2. Dates must be met in the parlor as usual. Boys must be taken to the gym by girls; that is, a group of boys cannot go to the gym without dates.
3. Students must sign on the sheet in the hostess' parlor when dating in the gym.
4. Dates shall leave the gym ten minutes before the close of the parlors in order to leave the parlors on time.
5. Students may wear socks when dating in the gym. Students and dates must not wear hard leather soled shoes or black rubber soled shoes in the gym.
6. Students are requested not to take dates into the Bee Hive.
7. Students wishing to use the gym for dating must sign up for it by 5:00 o'clock on the day on which they plan to use it.

ENTERTAINING ON THE CAMPUS

You will enjoy showing your friends and dates our campus in the afternoons. We do not date on the campus after dark.

THE INS AND OUTS

When you're going out—which occurs quite often at Meredith, if your studies are not giving you any trouble—and if you want to go out, there are a few little instructions about the matter of registration of which every student needs to be reminded at the beginning of the year.

1. Each student must sign on her own card immediately upon leaving and upon returning to the college. By so doing, she makes it possible for the deans to locate her should unexpected company arrive. Dorm cards are filled out on a weekly basis and should be turned over or turned in to the hall proctor by 6:00 p m. every Monday.

2. When going out, each student signs on her card the name of the persons with whom she is going.
3. When to sign out on the dormitory card:
 - A. When leaving the campus.
 - B. When dating in the parlor or on the campus.
 - C. When horseback riding other than for class.
 - D. When bicycle riding.

Some privileges require permission from home or from the office of the Dean of Students. No student is to exercise a privilege of this kind without first checking on her permission in the office of the Dean of Students. She must, also, in addition to signing her own dormitory card, sign a special permission slip which is filed in a rack in front of the Dean of Students' office. The privileges which call for this type of registration are as follows:

1. All overnight absences from the college.
2. All trips outside the city limits of Raleigh, except to the "Drive-In Grill" on the Wake Forest Road.
3. Any privilege taken by a student when she is chaperoned by persons other than those listed as official chaperones.

4. Any call at a hotel or boarding house unless under the chaperonage of her parents.
5. Any call at a physician's office or hospital for consultation or treatment. Special permission is unnecessary for a student who is accompanying another student.
6. Any call on the campus of State College except to the library, to public functions, and to church on Sunday.
7. Any call at a fraternity house.
8. Any return to the College after regular hours for evening privileges.
9. The use of her car by a senior with car privileges for purposes other than those connected with her academic work.
10. Permission to practice plays or hold meetings of any nature after light bell or before rising bell.

If an emergency arises and a student cannot change or sign her own card, she may telephone the office of the Dean of Students or a member of the Student Government Council and request that the change be made. Only the Dean of Students can sign or change a special permission slip.

WHEN I'M CALLING YOU

Students receive their calls from the telephones on each floor and from the pay telephones on the first floor of each dormitory. There are only two times at which students are asked not to use the telephones. These are the hours from 7:30 to 10:00 every evening except Saturday and Sunday, and from 10:45 in the evening until 7:00 in the morning. Seniors are allowed to use the telephone in their dormitory during study hour.

The peculiar thing about these telephone calls is that as soon as a student has received one, she forgets that about one hundred other girls are just as anxious to get an expected call as she has been. To discourage such forgetfulness, the student body has voted that conversations be limited to five minutes, unless permission has been obtained from the house officer on her hall. Sometimes, in the afternoon, the telephones are not so much in demand. If you and Tommy Jones just must settle that argument you began the night before, tell him to call you then, and not between 10:00 and 10:30. At this time someone, somewhere, is probably trying to call every girl in the dormitory.

If you wish to make a long-distance call or to send a telegram, please use the pay telephones. By getting special permission, you may use the telephone in the office of the Dean of Students. It is wise when you are calling home for a special permission to use the office telephone, but be sure to reverse the charges.

"HAPPY MOTORING"

As riding in automobiles is such a favorite pastime, you will be glad to find that the riding privileges at Meredith are very generous. Before you may exercise any of these privileges, however, a written permission from your home must be approved and filed in the office of the Dean of Students.

A student must have a written permission from home to ride in an airplane.

Freshmen may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and with an official chaperon or older friends or relatives after 6:00 p.m.

Sophomores may ride to and from their destination in Raleigh unchaperoned before 6:00 p.m. and in groups of two after 6:00 p.m.

Upperclassmen may ride unchaperoned. They may ride in Raleigh with boys in the afternoon and to and from their destination in Raleigh at night.

Riding with strangers is never permitted.

TO CHAPEL AND TO CHURCH

Attendance at both church and Sunday School is required of all students except seniors. Each girl chooses the church she likes best and attends it regularly. When signing out on her dormitory card, she should indicate the name of the church she is attending. Each student is allowed eight unexcused absences from church and five visiting Sundays per year. A week's campus is the penalty for the ninth unexcused church absence. When the student is away from the college for the day on Sunday and does not attend her church in Raleigh, the absence is unexcused. When she is away for the week-end, the absence is excused. Attending church on Sunday does not count a privilege.

All students are required to attend the chapel exercises held Monday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. Five unexcused chapel absences per semester are granted to each student. All absences, excused and unexcused, are recorded by resident students on their dormitory cards and by non-resident students on chapel attendance cards in the nonresident students' room. Chapel absences taken immediately before and/or after a holiday count as double cuts unless no classes are cut.

The following absences are excused:

1. Absences taken for supervised teaching.
2. Absences taken to work at the college switchboard.
3. Absences taken by nonresident students who have been excused by the Dean at the beginning of each semester.
4. Absences taken by resident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List who have arranged permission in the office of the Dean of Students to be away from college when taking absences from classes.
5. Absences taken by nonresident juniors and seniors on the Dean's List on days on which they miss all classes.
6. Absences taken in cases deemed exceptional by the Student Government Council.

The following absences count one-third of an absence:

1. Absences taken in the infirmary because of illness.
2. Absences taken at home because of illness.
3. Absences taken because of illness or death in the immediate family (mother, father, brother, sister, grandfather, or grandmother).

CONCERNING DANCING

I. On the campus.

Students do not give dances at Meredith and no dancing with men is permitted on the campus.

II. Off the campus

A. Arrangements may be made in the office of the Dean of Students to obtain from parents of upperclassmen blanket dance permission for Raleigh and for out of town dances. Second semester freshmen on the eligibility list may have blanket dance permission at the discretion of their parents through arrangements of the Dean of Students.

B. All students must go directly to the dance and may not leave the dance before it is over except to return to the college.

C. When attending dances held in Raleigh, or within a radius of ten miles of Raleigh, students must go from and return to the college. They must be in within an hour after the dance and not later than two a.m. It is necessary to make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Students at least forty-eight hours in advance.

- D. When attending dances away from Raleigh, students must make arrangements with the office of the Dean of Students forty-eight hours in advance so that all arrangements may be approved. Students under chaperonage regulations may be allowed to go from and return to the college within an hour after the dance; or they may spend the week end away from Raleigh if satisfactory arrangements are made in advance with the Dean of Students. No student may spend a night in a fraternity house, boarding house, tourist home, or hotel unless under the chaperonage of her mother.
- E. Only girls who are students in residence at Meredith may go from and return to the college.

These special regulations apply only to dances sponsored by an approved organization or institution. The dancing of individual couples in public places is not permitted.

AS OTHERS SEE US

In order to maintain the reputation which Meredith students have for being well-dressed and well-groomed, students are expected to dress appropriately for all occasions.

1. Off campus.

Students are required to wear hose when they go beyond the Varsity Theater, except to the Manmur for bowling. Hats are worn when a student goes out to dinner, to a concert, or to the Little Theatre and before six o'clock when one goes beyond the Varsity Theater. Before October 1 and after May 1, leg makeup may replace hose. Kerchiefs may replace hats if it is raining or snowing when a girl leaves the campus.

2. On campus.

There is to be no sun bathing on the campus grounds, only on the breezeways between the dorms and at the pool. There is no sun bathing on Sunday.

Because students should look well on campus as well as off campus, they are required to wear hose to dinner on Sunday, except before October 1 and after May 1, when leg makeup may replace hose. Classroom dress is not considered appropriate for Sunday dinners. As an aid to general appearance, resident and nonresident students are not to wear kerchiefs in class, in chapel, or in the dining hall; they are not to wear gym suits, jodhpurs, slacks, or shorts in Johnson Hall.

CLASS PRIVILEGES

Each student has privileges of the class of which she is a member according to academic classification. For example, a second year student who is a freshman has freshman privileges.

Privileges taken after 6:00 p.m. count as evening privileges. Students may stay out until 11:00 p.m. Sunday through Friday and until 12:00 midnight on Saturday.

Dating always counts as a privilege, on or off the campus. When going directly to and returning directly from a Civic Music concert or a Little Theatre production without a date, it does not count as a privilege.

WEEK-ENDS AND OUT-OF-TOWN TRIPS

During her first semester at Meredith, a Freshman may not leave the College for an overnight absence or an out-of-town trip without a written permission from parents or guardians. These permissions must be mailed directly to the office of the Dean of Students and must state the destination and dates of departure and return.

After a Freshman has been at Meredith one semester, she may use green slips to obtain from the office of the Dean of Students special permission for overnight absences or out-of-town trips, provided that she allow twenty-four hours for her request to be approved or disapproved.

DORMITORY REGULATIONS

I. Dormitory hours.

Except with permission from her hall proctor, every student is to be in her room from light bell to rising bell. To spend the night elsewhere than in one's own room, a student must obtain permission from her hall proctor and must tell the proctor on whose hall she is visiting.

II. Changing of rooms.

A. No student may change her room or roommate during the first two weeks of school.

B. Unless an emergency arises all room changes must be completed by the end of the first six weeks of the first semester. Room changes for second semester must be completed during the first two weeks of that semester.

- C. At all times students before making changes must ask permission of the Dean of Students.

COLLEGE CALENDAR

In order to avoid confusion in the college calendar, dates for all meetings which are likely to cause conflict must be arranged with the Dean of Students, whether or not the original permission for the meeting was granted by her. Presidents of all student organizations should register dates of regular and special meetings as far in advance as possible.

Plans for every social event must be approved in the office of the Dean of Students and scheduled on the college calendar. Whenever such an event is sponsored by an organization outside the College, the Dean of Students will post on the bulletin board a notice giving all necessary information.

BULLETIN BOARDS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students are responsible for all announcements made and all notices posted. Bulletin boards should be read each day.

JURISDICTION OF THE COLLEGE

When returning to the College from out of town, students are under the jurisdiction of the College as soon as they enter Raleigh. When students are visiting in the homes of friends in Raleigh, they remain under the regular college rules unless other arrangements are made in the office of the Dean of Students. They are under their hostess' chaperonage only when in her company.

JUST IN CASE!

These penalties are drawn up by the Student Government Council and are subject to change during the session.

I. Call downs are given for infractions of regulations.

A. One automatic call down is given for the following:

campus a student is subject to the following restrictions:

IV. Council action is taken for the accumulation of six call downs by nonresident students.

V. Cradle roll or demotion is given when a student is not considered capable of living under an honor code and must therefore be chaperoned by an upperclass Council member wherever she goes. Students who consistently make careless mistakes may become candidates for cradle roll. Students placed on cradle roll may have their privileges limited as determined by the Student Government Council.

VI. Probation, suspension, and expulsion are given for serious offenses, including the following:

A. Academic dishonesty.

1. Cheating in tests and examinations.

2. Cheating in assignments.

(a) Acceptance of assistance in themes, either in organization or in corrections; failure to give credit for quotations from the writings of other people.

(b) Acceptance of assistance in book reports or book outlines.

(d) Signing for parallel reading which has not been done.

(e) Copying laboratory work from other students.

(f) Using interlined books.

NOTE: Probation, suspension and expulsion are given by the Student Government Council, subject to approval of the Faculty Committee on Student Government and the President of the College.

MEANING OF PROBATION

Probation can be one of three types: general, academic, or social. If a student on general probation is returned to Council for either academic or social violation, expulsion will be recommended. If a student on academic probation is returned to Council for a similar offense, expulsion will be recommended. If a student on social probation is returned to Council for social violation, suspension or expulsion will be recommended.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Every student of Meredith College, upon entering, automatically becomes an active member of the Athletic Association. The A.A. Board, composed of twenty-one members including the managers of the seasonal sports and activities, meets weekly to tackle the task of organizing and coordinating all the extracurricular athletic and recreation activities of the college. Staff members of the Department of Health and Physical Education serve as advisory members of the board.

Major sports sponsored by the A.A. are hockey, soccer, basketball, and softball. Tournaments and playdays in each of these sports climax the seasons. The teams entering the tournaments are class teams or big sister-little sister teams. Sports days are often held with other schools in which the varsity teams, chosen as the most outstanding players participating in the particular sport or sports, take part.

Tennis, badminton, swimming, archery, and golf are the minor sports supervised by the Athletic Association. Individual sports such as hiking, horseshoe, ping-pong, bicycling, riding, and bowling are participated in throughout the school year. The Equitation Group, the Folk Dance Group, and the Monogam Club are under the direction of A.A. and function under the leadership of their own officers.

Medals are awarded at the close of each season to the members of the varsity teams in each of the major sports. A hockey stick is awarded at the end of the hockey season to the freshman who has shown the most teamwork, loyalty, and proficiency in hockey. Special awards for outstanding performance in other organized activities are made by the A.A. Board. A trophy is awarded at the end of the year to the member of the student body who is considered by the Athletic Association Board to have contributed most to athletics during the year. At the end of the basketball season when the honorary varsity is chosen, the girl who is considered to be the most outstanding member of the team is awarded a trophy, which we call the Cunningham Trophy for Miss Cunningham, who gives the award each year. The first of these trophies was given at the end of 1950-51 season.

THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

DEAR NEW STUDENT,

Being a new student means that you are also a new member of our Baptist Student Union, which seeks to present a well-rounded program of Christian activity for the total student body on our campus.

Through parties, worship, work, and fellowship both on the campus and in the local churches, we hope that the B.S.U. will aid you in placing Christ at the center of your life.

We are anxious for you to take an active part in our program so that our life together at Meredith will have the highest and fullest meaning.

B. S. U.

The Baptist Student Union of Meredith College is a student Christian movement which exists for the total student body at Meredith College. The union is called a Baptist Union because Meredith is a Baptist school; however, it seeks to include in its program students of all denominations.

The program of the Baptist Student Union is planned and executed by the Baptist Student Union executive council, elected in the spring of each year. This council begins planning for the next year immediately after election. Then, in a planning conference held a few days prior to the opening of school this council sets up a tentative schedule for the year's activities. This schedule includes such things as a freshman transfer party, the primary purpose of which is to initiate the new students into the Baptist Student Union; church welcome services, which usually include suppers for the students, to introduce them to the fun, fellowship, and opportunities for study and training available to them in all of the local churches of Raleigh; Y.W.A. programs, which seek to foster a missionary spirit among students, to awaken them to the needs of the world, and to indicate avenues of service.

Vespers are another big item. Held every week day at 6:45 p.m., they furnish those invaluable moments of quiet and meditation, when tense nerves are relaxed, cluttered minds are cleared, and the peace and calm of the ever-present spirit of God seems to permeate one's entire being. This program is supplemented by Family Altar, which closes the evening as Vespers do the day. Conducted on each dormitory hall, it creates an atmosphere of love and companionship, drawing students closer to one another and to God.

Then weeks of special emphasis are anticipated: one for vocations, when there are brought to our attention various fields of work open to students for the summer or after graduation; a Religious Emphasis Week, which is a real highlight of the school year. At this time eminent preachers and teachers of the Christian faith come and live on our campus, give stimulating addresses in chapel, lead conferences, and make themselves generally available for discussion of individual and worldwide problems.

Other features of the year's program are monthly birthday parties (held in the dining hall), study courses, monthly chapel programs, inter-collegiate parties, and State conventions and conferences.

Though many of the activities listed take place on the campus, the Baptist Student Union is concerned primarily with securing the participation of the student in the life of one of the local churches, where in the fellowship of kindred minds, she can find strength, direction, and encouragement to strive for the ideal life.

College life is like a diamond given to us in the rough—it is ours to take and keep as dull ore, or ours to shape, to rub off the jagged edges, to transform into a lovely jewel. In our inexperienced hands, perfection will not be possible, but available to everyone of us is the power of an unseen Master, who can guide us as we work, point out the flaws, until in the place of native carbon there shall begin to appear a polished stone, not perfect ever, but marvelously heightened in beauty, reflecting in its highlights something of the radiance of the sun. This is the ideal life, and this is the life the B.S.U. wants for you.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Student publications make up a great part of the extracurricular activity on any college campus. The school newspaper, the magazine, and the annual are three indispensable factors of a full college life. They not only assure you hours of reading fun, but they preserve the joys of your college life in the permanency of print.

OAK LEAVES

The Oak Leaves is the college annual, the book you spend the year looking forward to. Its purpose is to portray Meredith life in word and picture. There are individual pictures of the girls, group pictures of the organizations, views of the buildings and favorite college haunts, to say nothing of the informal snapshots of college life "off parade." You'll love the annual, and if you get a chance, you'll love working on its publication staff. We'll admit the job is hard, but we'll guarantee you'll enjoy it.

THE TWIG

The Twig is pretty certain to be at your door every second Saturday of the school year. It is the official college newspaper, ready to keep you informed through articles and pictures about what has been going on around you. Besides straight news, its features, cartoons, humor, and special columns are planned for your amusement and interest. Work on The Twig may seem like play, yet to those who have journalistic ambitions, it offers an opportunity for real newspaper experience. Train your "nose for news," by becoming "news hounds" for The Twig.

The Acorn is the college magazine, in which you may see in print all those delightful fancies that you think up while the professor is lecturing on the Crimean War, those sonnets that are inspired in the midst of a sermon on "Where Is Youth Today?," or even the brilliant clue that you get to the mystery of Hamlet and that you don't get a chance to voice before the bell rings.

If, when you look at one of the year's six issues of the Acorn, you think, "Humph! I could beat that myself," just remember it is your own fault if you don't. The Acorn is a student magazine and the contributions you slip into the Acorn office make it what it is.

You may be a competent sportswoman, you may be an enthusiastic newshound, or you may be a glamorous socialite; but in any event, we hope that you have dramatic aspirations. For on the Meredith campus, there is an organization which will kindle that spark of interest into dramatic ability and stage poise. The Little Theater offers you an opportunity to gain experience in every phase of dramatic work. If you want to act, you can try out for any of the productions given during the year. If you prefer to be the "power behind the throne," you can work on the staging, properties, make-up, or costuming committees. If you do not want to take an active part at all, you can spur our endeavors on by attending the productions. You don't have to buy a ticket for each production; for when you pay your budget fee in September, you purchase admission to a year's enjoyment of Little Theater performances. We want you to come out for our plays because of a sincere interest in dramatics. We believe that this interest of yours will increase when you learn that students from the neighboring boys' colleges take the male roles in our major productions.

Full-fledged membership in the Little Theater is awarded according to the amount of work in at least one major production.

MEREDITH SOCIETIES

You will hear first at Meredith, if you haven't already heard, about the two societies, the Astrotekton and the Philaretia. You will be attentively "rushed" the first few weeks at Meredith by members of both of these societies. You will have parties and serenades and you will hear much about the activities and the girls in each. There is the keenest competition between these two societies for the affections of you new girls. Heed an old girl's advice and don't lose your heart too quickly.

Each society has a hall in which monthly meetings are held. Programs at meetings are debates, literary contests, lectures, and social activities of fun and fellowship!

Both societies are looking forward to the arrival of you new girls. Become well acquainted with the activities and members of each before you decide to join the ranks of either the Philaretians or the Astrotektons.

ASTROTEKTON SOCIETY

DEAR GIRLS,

Take it from me, there's nothing like Meredith. I hope you love it from the start as I have loved it.

The societies intend to balance your intellectual life with our extra-curricular activities. Whichever society you choose, you won't go wrong. P. S.—I hope it's Astro!

HONOR SOCIETIES

KAPPA NU SIGMA

Organized in 1923, Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society aims to promote scholarship at Meredith. Members are admitted into the society on the basis of scholastic standing maintained over a period of at least two years.

At the annual spring meeting new members are received and a roll call of all members made. At this time a scholarship is awarded to the freshman having the highest average in her class.

SILVER SHIELD

The idea of the Silver Shield, an honorary leadership society, originated with members of the Class of 1933, but no definite organization was set up until the spring of 1935. The purpose of the society is to foster a better spirit on the campus and to recognize outstanding girls who have contributed to life at Meredith. Nine new members are selected from each rising and present senior class by the members of the organization and the faculty. The selection is made on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, service to the school, and scholarship.

The Silver Shield sponsors a record room, which is located on the second floor of Stringfield Hall. In the record room are filed club constitutions and records of club activities, college and class songs, college and class traditions, and other materials needed for reference by students.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

In May, 1938, the Eta Nu chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, was installed with eleven members. The Little Theater was proud to have placed the first national honorary society on the Meredith campus.

The Alpha Psi Omega in no way displaces the Little Theater, for it is not a producing organization. Its function is to give recognition to those girls who excel in dramatic endeavor. Any Little Theater member who earns at least fifty points is eligible for membership.

OUR TRADITIONS

TRADITIONS

LAVENDER AND OLD LACE

Sometimes the girls of today stop and join hands across the years with the girls of yesterday, by carrying on traditions which are a part of Meredith. Some of these belong to the respective classes, some to the "odd" and "even" years, and some to all Meredith Girls.

FOR ALL THE SCHOOL

The first of these traditions that belong to all the girls is "Decision Day" for the societies, with new girls as guests of honor. This day comes early in the fall and climaxes a period of competitive "rushing" for the affections of the new girls. The excitement begins in the early morning with breakfast. Two important newcomers seen on the campus are the "Phi" bear and the "Astro" goat. If you know where your heart lies by 7:30 a.m., tradition says that you enter the dining room door on which your society colors fly. After chapel in the auditorium you lose the feminine privilege of changing your mind, for there you choose between the two societies.

Closely following "Decision Day" is the initiation of the "Baby Astros" and the installation service for the "Baby Phis." This week-end is closed for visiting, but you will not wish to leave anyway.

The Saturday in early fall on which Palio is held is a red letter day at Meredith. Palio, an adaptation of the ancient festival in Siena, is a unique tradition at Meredith. Each class vies with the others in parades up the front drive, the formation of class numerals, horse races, bicycle races, the frolicking of clowns, and original class songs. The class winning the parade is awarded the Palio banner; the class having the largest number of members participating in Palio wins reserved seats for the stunts.

In the spring, each class gives an original stunt, and to the winning class is awarded a silver loving cup.

For the night before the Christmas holidays begin, the Student Government Council, aided by the other campus organizations, arranges a party, usually a formal dinner. Later on that same night, or sometimes early the next morning, the student body goes caroling.

May Day is celebrated the first Saturday in May. A May queen, aided by her maid-of-honor and court, presides over the day. The queen and maid-of-honor are elected by popular vote of the student body. Each class elects two May court attendants. The cost of the flowers for May Day is divided between the four classes. It is customary for a girl to be in the May Court only once unless she is elected May queen or maid-of-honor.

On May Day morning, the queen is serenaded by the sophomores and later honored by them at breakfast. In the May Day fete, the queen carries an arm bouquet of iris, the college flower.

On the week-end of May Day, high school students are invited to the college for Hospitality Week-end.

Once in every college generation, the members of the faculty present for the students Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland.

In the spring, the societies compete in presenting plays. The Little Theater, as sponsor of the plays, gives a cup to the winning society. If a society wins three consecutive years, the cup becomes a permanent possession of that society. The Freshman Class also presents a play on this night.

Each spring the Athletic Association sponsors a faculty-student play day. A duke, elected by the student body from the faculty, and a duchess, elected by the student body from the student body, reign over the events of the day. No afternoon classes are held, and games are played between the faculty and students during the afternoon. The day ends with a picnic in the court.

The Junior and Freshman, Senior and Sophomore Classes are "big sister-little sister" classes. Each junior has assigned to her a "little sister" who is her special charge for the rest of her college days.

FOR THE CLASSES

In addition to the traditions that belong to everyone, there are those which the respective classes possess. On entering Meredith new girls find that they have a heritage to accept and hand down as the years go by.

As freshmen, they entertain in the spring their "Big Sisters" at a breakfast at the Chimney; and on a chosen gala night, they entertain themselves at a class party in one of the society halls.

As sophomores, they find that spring again is a season of traditions. When May Day comes, the sophomores sing to the May Queen early in the morning, again at breakfast on the day that she will reign on the campus, and during the May Day ceremony. Another big event is Class Day. Every sophomore looks forward to this with eagerness. On this day they make the traditional daisy chain from the thousands of daisies that they have picked early that morning. They do have to arise early, but going on that sunrise daisy-picking excursion is something one can't afford to miss. Be sure to catch the 5:00 o'clock truck bound for the daisy field near Raleigh. At the Class Day exercises that afternoon, the sophomores carry this daisy chain and sing to their "Big Sisters." They then march to Johnson Hall and form their class numerals on the steps.

As juniors, they find that they are especially lucky in "hand-me-downs." The first and the best tradition they have is the adoption of "Little Sisters" from the Freshman Class. Each junior has a "Little Sister" of her own, and they all agree that it's a wonderful addition to the family. The juniors aid the freshmen in their election of a president and an adviser. In the spring, when the young men's fancies have lightly turned to thoughts of love, the juniors give a banquet in honor of the seniors. For months in advance, they plan the menu and the decorations; for this affair happens only twice in a lifetime. During commencement, the juniors delight in serving the seniors in another way. For the Class Day exercises they decorate the posts with Senior Class colors for the daisy chain.

The seniors, too, look forward to the spring and to the banquet given to them by the juniors; for it is the greatest social event of the year. On May Day, the seniors invite the President of the College to breakfast with the May Queen in the dining room. They present him a basket of flowers. Commencement week is a time when the seniors carry on many Meredith customs. One night at a grudge bonfire, they burn the article they have disliked most at Meredith, so that it will never spoil their memories of Meredith. On Sunday before Commencement, seniors conduct the vesper service. On Sunday afternoon during commencement, the seniors form their class numerals on the steps of Johnson Hall, and, singing "The Queen of Our Hearts," march off into the grove to elect their permanent class officers.

FOR THE "ODDS" AND "EVENS"

Besides the general traditions and those belonging to the individual classes, there are the "even" and "odd" set of traditions. "Even girls" are those who graduate in even years, for instance 1942-1944. "Odd girls" graduate in uneven years, for instance 1941-43. You who are entering as freshmen this year will be "even girls." Whichever you are, you are counted lucky.

"Hail to the Even Spirit" will doubtless be the first of this set of traditions to greet you. This song was written in answer to "These Bones," the "odd" song. The colors of all but the Leap Year classes are green and white. In its junior year, every Leap Year class takes purple and gold. Also in your sophomore year, you will put May baskets on the doors of your "Big Sisters' " rooms. To a senior or a sophomore this traditional rite is lots of fun. The last of the "even" traditions pertains especially to the seniors. During commencement, seniors have a candlelight service at the fountain. Surprising information often comes to light at this service, for all seniors engaged to be married walk backwards around the fountain while their uncommitted classmates go in the usual fashion.

"Odd" traditions are exciting too. Their song is "These Bones," and a black glove worn on the left hand is symbolic of the odd spirit. The odd classes have a red devil as mascot. Their colors through the sophomore year are blue and white, and in their junior and senior years they take the rainbow colors.

MUSIC IN THE BREEZE

Singing is a widespread custom at Meredith. During that first week here the new girls launch forth with our ever beautiful ALMA MATER. We urge new girls to learn this song as early as possible. Be a singing angel on the campus—give, with melody!

Words and music by former President R. T. Vann.

ALMA MATER

1. We sa-lute thee, Al-ma Ma-ter, we sa-lute thee with a song,
 2. Thou hast come thro' trib-u-la-tion and thy robe is clean and white,
 3. In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert shall rejoice,
 4. Where the rho-do-den-dron blush-es on the bur-ly mountain's breast,
 5. Where the sons of Car-o-li-na taught a na-tion to be free,

At thy feet our loy-al hearts their trib-ute lay;
 Thou art fair-er than the sum-mer in its bloom.
 In the wil-der-ness a liv-ing foun-tain spring;
 In the mid-land, where the wild deer love to roam;
 And her daugh-ters taught their broth-ers to be brave;

We had wait-ed for thy com-ing in the dark-ness, wait-ed long,
 Thou art born un-to a king-dom and thy crown is all of light;
 For the blind shall see thy beau-ty and the deaf shall hear thy voice,
 Where the wa-ter-lil-y slum-bers, while the cy-press guards its rest—
 O'er a land of peace-ful plen-ty, from the high-lands to the sea,

Ere the morn-ing star pro-claimed thy na-tal day.
 Thou shalt smile a-way the shad-ow and the gloom.
 And the si-lent tongue their high ho-san-nas sing.
 Lo, thy sun-ny laud of prom-ise and thy home.
 May thy ban-ner, Al-ma Ma-ter, ev-er wave.

R. T. Vann

ALMA MATER

We salute thee, Alma Mater, we salute thee with
a song ;

At thy feet our loyal hearts their tribute lay ;
We had waited for thy coming, in the darkness
waited long,

Ere the morning star proclaimed thy natal day.
Thou hast come through tribulation, and thy robe is clean and white !

Thou art fairer than the summer in its bloom.
Thou art born unto a kingdom, and thy crown is
all of light ;

Thou shalt smile away the shadow and the gloom.

In thy path the fields shall blossom and the desert
shall rejoice,

In the wilderness a living fountain spring ;
For the blind shall see thy beauty and the deaf
shall hear thy voice,

And the silent tongue their high hosannas sing.
Where the rhododendron blushes on the burly
mountain's breast,

In the midland where the wild deer love to roam,
Where the water lily slumbers while the cypress
guards its rest,

Lo ! thy sunny land of promise and thy home.
Where the sons of Carolina taught a Nation to be free,

And her daughters taught their brothers to be brave ;
O'er a land of peaceful plenty, from the highlands to the sea,

May thy banner, Alma Mater, ever wave !

DEDICATION HYMN

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need ;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

We work together in Thy sight,
We live together in Thy love ;
Guide Thou our falt'ring steps aright,
And lift our thoughts to heav'n above.

Hold Thou each hand to keep it just,
Touch Thou our lips and make them pure ;
If Thou art with us, Lord, we must
Be faithful friends and comrades sure.

We change, but Thou art still the same,
The same good Master, Teacher, Friend ;
We change ; but, Lord, we bear Thy name,
To journey with it to the end.

We build our school on Thee, O Lord
To Thee we bring our common need ;
The loving heart, the helpful word,
The tender thought, the kindly deed.

Words by S. M. MEYER

(This hymn was dedicated by the composer to the Meredith College Choir.)

MEREDITH COLLEGE CHORUS

The Meredith College Chorus, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Donley, consists of about eighty voices. This Chorus as a whole, and groups selected from it, provide music for various college functions, such as Founders' Day, Religious Emphasis services, and the Commencement Exercises. The group also leads the singing in chapel daily, gives a Christmas concert and a spring concert each year and sings concerts in several other cities over the state. Radio broadcasts and numerous programs for music clubs, churches, and other organizations, are also included in the activities of this group, which ranks as one of the major choral organizations of the state.

III. LIBRARY REGULATIONS

During the college year the library is open on weekdays from 8:15 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The library will be closed during chapel periods.

Circulation—

Students may borrow general books for two weeks, or for a shorter period, determined by the demand for the book. At the expiration of two weeks, books may be renewed for two weeks, provided that they are not needed by other persons. Any book may be recalled by the librarian when needed in the library.

Books must not be taken from the library until they have been charged at the desk. All books taken out of the library must be returned to one of the library assistants or left on the desk.

The person who borrows a book is responsible for it until the record of its return is complete.

A fine of two cents will be charged for each day that a general book is kept out overtime. Notices are sent as soon as possible after the book is due.

How to Borrow a Book for Use Outside the Library

1. Consult the card catalogue.

Look for the book you want by its author, title, or subject, as you would for a word in a dictionary or a name in a telephone directory.

2. When you have located the card for the book you want, copy the complete call number. (It always appears in the upper left corner of the catalogue card.) Slips are kept on top of the card catalogue for this purpose.
3. Go to the stack room for the book.
4. Take the book to the circulation desk, sign your full name and room number on the book cards in the back of the book, and have it properly charged there.

How to Borrow a Book for Use in the Library

Follow procedures 1, 2, and 3 as given above. Take the book to the circulation desk and sign for it on the white reading room slip. Fill out all the information asked for on the white slip. When you are through with the book, return it at the circulation desk and claim your white slip.

Reserve Reading Room

This room is dedicated to study and is reserved for those who wish to use reserve books and bound periodicals. Books are assembled here at the request of the members of the faculty to provide material for required reading in connection with class assignments. The books are grouped alphabetically by author under each subject. The essential rules governing the use of reserve books are given here; hence ignorance of them is no excuse.

1. Go directly to the shelves and get the books for yourself. (Not more than two at a time.)
2. Sign the orange cards. (Full name and hour.)
3. Leave cards at the desk.
4. Books may be used for a period of two hours. They may be renewed for an additional two-hour period if not needed by another student.
5. When you have finished with the books, claim cards at the desk and return the books to proper places on the shelves.
6. One-half hour before closing time reserve books may be charged out for overnight use. Sign full name and room number on the orange card.
7. Books taken out for overnight use must be returned at the desk in the reserve room by 8:30 a.m. the next day the library is open.
8. A fine of ten cents will be charged for each hour a reserve book is kept out overtime.

9. Reserve books are not to be taken to other parts of the building.
10. Please be as quiet as possible when using this room so as not to disturb the other students who wish to study.

Stack Room

Regulations in regard to the use of this room:

1. Here, as elsewhere in the library, we ask that you move around quietly and refrain from conversation.
2. Do not carry your books into the stack room. These may be left on the small unit of shelving at the door.
3. You are not to remain in the stack room to study.
4. Leave turned down on the shelves any books that you may remove to examine.
5. In order that the right person may get the right book at the right time, it is absolutely necessary that the books be in proper order according to the classification numbers. Please help us keep them this way.

The classification numbers for the books shelved in a section are marked on the ends of each section. If you have difficulty in finding desired books, the assistant on duty at the desk will be glad to help you.

Magazines

Current magazines and newspapers are kept in the periodical room. They are arranged in alphabetical order.

Bound magazines are arranged in alphabetical order on the shelves at the rear end of the reserve room.

Back issues of unbound magazines should be called for at the circulation desk.

A complete file of the magazines in our library is kept at the circulation desk.

Magazines must be used in the library. They do not circulate.

Interlibrary Loan

The library will borrow for you, from other libraries, books needed for special assignments. You should, however, first exhaust the resources of our library. If material is still needed, you should then present a written request from the professor under whom you are working.

Students must have permission from the librarian to borrow books from other libraries in the city and to use State College library.

All requests for permission to get books from other libraries in the city must be handed in to the librarian by 11:30 a.m. of the day on which the book is wanted. Give title and author of the book, and also the call number, if possible. Do not ask for more than two books at the same time.

The charge for postage on interlibrary loans is to be paid by the borrower.

Additional Information

Students found with missing library books in their possession will be dealt with at the discretion of the Student Government Council.

It is well to remember that library regulations, in general, are made not for the convenience of the staff, but to protect your interests by giving all of you, as far as it is possible, equal privileges. To return books when due, to refrain from conversation in reading rooms where others are at work, to handle books even more carefully than if they were one's own—these are acts of courtesy which are appreciated by all who use the library.
